Day,2017-11-23 Excerpt from The Opium Habit With Suggestions as to the Remedy Sufferers from protracted and apparently hopeless disorders profit little by scientific information as to the nature of their complaints yet they listen with profound interest to the experience of fellow sufferers even when this experience is unprofessionally and unconnectedly told Medical empirics understand this and profit by it In place of the general statements of the educated practitioner of medicine the empiric encourages the drooping hopes Of his patient by narrating in detail the minute particulars of analogous cases in which his Skill has brought relief Before the victim Of opium eating is prepared for the services Of an intelligent physician he requires some stimulus to rouse him to the possibility of recovery It is not the Of the medical man but the experience Of the relieved patient that the Opium eater desiring nobody but he knows how ardently to enter again into the world of hope needs to quicken his paralyzed will in the direction of one tremendous effort for escape from the thick night that blackens around him The confirmed Opium eater is habitually hopeless His attempts at reformation have been repeated again and again 3 his failures have been as frequent as his attempts He sees nothing before him but irremediable ruin Under such circumstances Of helpless depression the following narratives from fellow sufferers and fellow victims will appeal to whatever remains of his hopeful nature with the assurance that others who have suffered even as he has suffered and who have struggled as he has struggled and have failed again and again as he has failed have at length escaped the destruction which in his own case he has regarded as inevitable About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a
