Coasean Economics Law and Economics and the New Institutional Economics Steven G. Medema, 2012-12-06 Upon hearing that Ronald Coase had been awarded the Nobel Prize a fellow economist's first response was to ask with whom Coase had shared the Prize Whether this response was idiosyncratic or not I do not know I expect not Part of this type of reaction can no doubt be explained by the fact that Coase has often been characterized as an economist who wrote only two significant or influential papers The Nature of the Firm 1937 and The Problem of Social Cost 1960 And by typical professional standards of significant and influential i.e. widely read and cited this perception embodies a great deal of truth even subsequent to Coase's receipt of the Prize. This is not to say that there have not been other important works. The Marginal Cost Controversy 1946 and The Lighthouse in Economics 1974 come immediately to mind here only that in a random sample of say one hundred economists one would likely find few who could list a Coase bibliography beyond the two classic pieces noted above in spite of Coase's significant publication record. The purpose of this collection is to assess the development of tensions within and prospects for Coasean Economics those aspects of economic analysis that have evolved out of Coase's path breaking work. Two major strands of research can be identified here law and economics and the New Institutional Economics.

The Sociology and Professionalization of Economics A. W. Bob Coats, 2005-08-17 Coats has made an outstanding contribution to the history of economic thought economic methodology and the sociology of economics. This unique volume represents a substantial part of his work on the sociology and professionalization of economics. The Microeconomic Foundations of Macroeconomics G. C. Harcourt, 1977-08-25

The Hesitant Hand Steven G. Medema, 2011-03-06 The author explores what has been perhaps the central controversy in modern economics from Adam Smith to today. He traces the theory of market failure from the 1840s through the 1950s and subsequent attacks on this view by the Chicago and Virginia schools.
