The Origins Of Civilization Wolfson College Lectures 1978:

The Origins of Civilization Peter Roger Stuart Moorey, 1979 This collection of essays by leading scholars of archaeology and prehistory examines the emergence of permanent human settlements and the social political and religious ideas that may have accompanied this development Two introductory lectures sketch the emergence of man and his development as hunter farmer and fisherman Then taking civilization in its most precise sense separate essays review the evolution of urban societies in the Near East Europe China and Mesoamerica Final lectures address the role of religion in early human societies and the development of writing in the Old World This distinguished and highly accessible collection will appeal to both the specialist and the interested general reader The Emergence of Civilisation Charles Keith Maisels, 2003-12-16 The Emergence of Civilisation is a major contribution to our understanding of the development of urban culture and social stratification in the Near Eastern region Charles Maisels argues that our present assumptions about state formation based on nineteenth century speculations are wrong His investigation illuminates the changes in scale complexity and hierarchy which accompany the development of civilisation The book draws conclusions about the dynamics of social change and the processes of social evolution in general applying those concepts to the rise of Greece and Rome and to the collapse of the classical Mediterranean world Marxist-Leninist 'Scientific Atheism' and the Study of Religion and Atheism in the USSR James Thrower, 2011-04-20 Since its founding by Jacques Waardenburg in 1971 Religion and Reason has been a leading forum for contributions on theories theoretical issues and agendas related to the phenomenon and the study of religion Topics include among others category formation comparison ethnophilosophy hermeneutics methodology myth phenomenology philosophy of science scientific atheism structuralism and theories of religion From time to time the series publishes volumes that map the state of the art and the history of the discipline Consciousness, Theatre, Literature and the Arts 2009 Daniel Meyer-Dinkgräfe, 2009-12-14 The essays collected in this volume were initially presented at the Third International Conference on Consciousness Theatre Literature and the Arts held at the University of Lincoln May 16 18 2009 The conference was organised on the basis of the success of its predecessors in 2005 and 2007 and on the basis of the success of the Rodopi book series Consciousness Literature and the Arts which has to date seen twenty one volumes in print with another twelve in press or in the process of being written The 2009 conference and the book series highlight the continuing growth of interest within the interdisciplinary field of consciousness studies and in the distinct disciplines of theatre studies literary studies film studies fine arts and music in the relationship between the object of these disciplines and human consciousness Fifty six delegates from twenty one countries across the world attended the May 2009 conference in Lincoln their range of disciplines and approaches is reflected well in this book Grahame Clark and His Legacy John Coles, Arkadiusz Marciniak, 2010-05-11 Grahame Clark was a major figure in European archaeology for over 50 years and pioneered work in prehistoric economies and ecology in science based archaeology and in a world view of ancient societies In this book a variety of authorities from Europe and beyond assess these major contributions and provide discussions about Clark's own colleagues and contemporaries his major archaeological themes and his varied approaches and his world wide contacts and travels The papers provide surveys and opinions on Clark's role in the development of archaeology in the 20th century and the basis that it provided for archaeological work of today The book will be a valuable source of evidence ideas and references for scholars interested in the development of the discipline Varia Mesopotamica Jens Høyrup, 2025-05-16

The central theme of the 21 essays collected here and written between 1989 and 2019 is Ancient Mesopotamian Mathematics its techniques and concepts but also its historical dynamics and its influence on later Greek and Arabic and thus to later European mathematical reasoning In addition the first essay deals with historical dynamics in the field of language and argues that the Sumerian as a language originated from a creole language of the slaves of the late fourth millennium and only thereafter developed into the elaborate Sumerian language attested in the late 3rd Millennium BCE The Logic of Writing and the Organization of Society Jack Goody, 1986-12-18 Author is particularly concerned with ancient Near East and contemporary West Africa World Military History Bibliography Barton Hacker, 2003-06-01 Preclassical and indigenous nonwestern military institutions and methods of warfare are the chief subjects of this annotated bibliography of work published 1967-1997 Classical antiquity post Roman Europe and the westernized armed forces of the 20th century although covered receive less systematic attention Emphasis is on historical studies of military organization and the relationships between military and other social institutions rather than wars and battles Especially rich in references to the periodical literature the bibliography is divided into eight parts 1 general and comparative topics 2 the ancient world 3 Eurasia since antiquity 4 sub Saharan Africa and Oceania 5 pre Columbian America 6 postcontact America 7 the contemporary nonwestern world and 8 philosophical social scientific natural scientific and other works not primarily historical Early Mesopotamia Nicholas Postgate, 2017-07-05 The roots of our modern world lie in the civilization of Mesopotamia which saw the development of the first urban society and the invention of writing The cuneiform texts reveal the technological and social innovations of Sumer and Babylonia as surprisingly modern and the influence of this fascinating culture was felt throughout the Near East Early Mesopotamia gives an entirely new account integrating the archaeology with historical data which until now have been largely scattered in specialist literature A Bibliography on Writing and Written Language Konrad Ehlich, Florian Coulmas, Gabriele Graefen, 2011-06-01 The bibliography offers information on research about writing and written language over the past 50 years No comprehensive bibliography on this subject has been published since Sattler's 1935 handbook With a selection of some 27 500 titles it covers the most important literature in all scientific fields relating to writing Emphasis has been placed on the interdisciplinary organization of the bibliography creating many points of common interest for literacy experts educationalists psychologists sociologists linguists cultural anthropologists and historians The bibliography is organized in such a way as to provide the specialist as well as the researcher in neighboring disciplines with access to the relevant literature on writing in a given field While necessarily selective it also offers information on more specialized bibliographies In addition an overview of norms and standards concerning script and writing will prove very useful for non professional readers It is therefore also of interest to the generally interested public as a reference work for the humanities
