

Sociology Hesitant

W. E. B. Du Bois

The Congress of Arts and Sciences at St. Louis last summer served to emphasize painfully the present plight of Sociology; for the devotee of the cult made the strange discovery that the further following of his bent threatened violent personal dismemberment. His objects of interest were distributed quite impartially under some six of the seven grand divisions of Science: economics, here; ethnology, there; a thing called "Sociology" hidden under Mental Science, and the things really sociological ranged in a rag-bag and labeled "Social Regulation." And so on.

This document is based on the typewritten, signed manuscript in the W. E. B. Du Bois Papers, Special Collections and Archives section of the W. E. B. Du Bois Library at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst. The manuscript adheres to style conventions prevalent when Du Bois composed it. In particular, it follows the convention of capitalizing key terms, as well as now antiquated rules of punctuation. Except in those very few instances where confusion in meaning is likely, I have decided to preserve the tone of the manuscript by adhering to its original style and have refrained from updating it. I am thankful to David Graham Du Bois and the W. E. B. Du Bois Foundation for providing permission to publish "Sociology Hesitant." I also thank the W. E. B. Du Bois Papers, Special Collections and Archives of the W. E. B. Du Bois Library, University of Massachusetts, Amherst. Ed.

Sociology Hesitant:

Sociology Hesitant R. A. Judy, 2000 This collection of essays reflects a new distinctively rigorous engagement with W E B DuBois's theoretical and philosophical thought It includes the first publication of DuBois's important critical essay on the conceptual foundations of sociology as a science Sociology Hesitant Taking its title from that 1905 essay Sociology Hesitant draws attention to the ways in which DuBois's thinking about the Negro problem was an explicit effort to think about the problem of historical agency Spanning a wide array of disciplines from German studies and sociology to literary criticism philosophy and anthropology with contributions from some of the most outstanding scholars in these fields Sociology Hesitant contributes to the recognition of DuBois as an important historical figure by focusing on the complexity of his theoretical work These essays offer an extended interaction with the ideas and projects DuBois formulated in a series of essays written between 1887 and 1910 that take up intricate questions concerning the nature of methodology and the theory of knowledge Using DuBois's work as a point of departure contributors explore current thinking about diverse subjects such as geopolitics and postcolonialism Demonstrating that engaging the question of race requires rethinking the historical nature of theoretical understanding this collection brings to light the notion that the struggle for equality is a struggle for freedom of thought in pursuit of truth Contributors Kenneth Barkin Nahum Chandler Ronald Judy David Krell Charles Lemert Sieglinde D Lemke Tommy Lott Kevin Miles Abdulkarim Mustapha Ken Warren

Sociology Hesitant Ronald A. T. Judy, 2000 Sociology Hesitant: Thinking with W. E. Du Bois Ronald A. T. Judy, 2000 The Oxford Handbook of W. E. B. Du Bois Aldon D. Morris, Michael Schwartz, Cheryl Johnson-Odim, Walter R Allen, Marcus Anthony Hunter, Karida L Brown, Dan S Green, 2024 The wide ranging work of W E B Du Bois critical to understanding the role that race has played in creating the modern world we find around us mostly has been ignored or hidden from sociological researchers until after the civil rights movement in the U S As a result one of the key goals of The Oxford Handbook of W E B Du Bois is to reclaim Du Bois from those efforts to marginalize his thought The chapters of this volume explore in a comprehensive manner all aspects of Du Boisian sociology It is organized into ten thematic sections Social Theory Change and Agency Sociology Social Science Humanities Public Intellectual Women and Gender Studies Methodologies and Archival Resources Black Interiority and Whiteness Color Line Empire Marxism and War Talented Tenth and Black Colleges and Universities Black Community Religion Crime and Wealth Internationalism Pan Africanism and Anti Colonialism

Annotations Nahum Dimitri Chandler, 2023-03-31 In Annotations Nahum Dimitri Chandler offers a philosophical interpretation of W E B Du Bois's 1897 American Negro Academy address The Conservation of Races Chandler approaches Du Bois as a generative and original philosophical thinker writer on the status and historical implication of matters of human difference both the fact of and the very idea thereof Chandler proposes both a close reading of Du Bois's engagement of the concept of so called race and a deep meditation on Du Bois's conceptualization of historicity in general He elaborates on the way Du Bois's thought in this address can give an account of the organization of the historicity that yields the emergence of something like the African American at once with its own internal dimensions and yet also as an originary articulation of forces and possibilities that have world historical implications Chandler refigures Du Bois's thought as a vital theoretical resource for rethinking our concepts of differences among humans and so too our understanding of modern historicity itself

West, 2013-04-11 With a focus on the connected spiritual legacy of the black Atlantic Literary Expressions of African Spirituality leads the way to more comprehensive trans geographical studies of African spirituality in black art With essays focusing on African spirituality in creative works by several trans Atlantic black authors across varying locations in the Ameri Atlantic diaspora this collection reveals and examines their shared spiritual cosmology Diasporic in scope Literary Expressions of African Spirituality offers new readings of black literatures through the prism of spiritual memory that survived the damaging impact of trans Atlantic slaving This memory is a significant thread that has often been missed in the reading and teaching of the literatures of the African diaspora Essays in this collection explore unique black angles of seeing and ways of knowing that characterize African spiritual presence and influence in trans Atlantic black artistic productions Essays exploring works ranging from turn of the century African American figure W E B DuBois South African novelist Zakes Mda Haitian novelists Edwidge Danticat and Jacques Roumain as well as African belief systems such as Voudoun and Candomble provide a scope not yet offered in a single published volume This collection explores the deep and often unconscious spiritual and psychosocial connectedness of people of African descent in the African and Ameri Atlantic world

W. E. B. Du Bois and The Souls of Black Folk Stephanie J. Shaw, 2013-09-02 In this book Stephanie J Shaw brings a new understanding to one of the great documents of American and black history While most scholarly discussions of The Souls of Black Folk focus on the veils the color line double consciousness or Booker T Washington Shaw reads Du Bois book as a profoundly nuanced interpretation of the souls of black Americans at the turn of the twentieth century Demonstrating the importance of the work as a sociohistorical study of black life in America through the turn of the twentieth century and offering new ways of thinking about many of the topics introduced in Souls Shaw charts Du Bois successful appropriation of Hegelian idealism in order to add America the nineteenth century and black people to the historical narrative in Hegel's philosophy of history Shaw adopts Du Bois point of view to delve into the social cultural political and intellectual milieus that helped to create The Souls of Black Folk

Paris, Capital of the Black Atlantic Jeremy Braddock, Jonathan P. Eburne, 2013-09-20 How African American artists and intellectuals sought greater liberty in Paris while also questioning the extent of the freedoms they so publicly praised American Literary History Paris has always fascinated and welcomed writers Throughout the twentieth and into the twenty first century writers of American Caribbean and African descent were no exception Paris Capital of the Black Atlantic considers the travels made to Paris whether literally or imaginatively by black writers These collected essays explore the transatlantic circulation of ideas texts and objects to which such travels to Paris contributed Editors Jeremy Braddock and Jonathan P Eburne expand upon an acclaimed special issue of the journal Modern Fiction Studies with four new essays and a revised introduction Beginning with W E B Du Bois s trip to Paris in 1900 and ending with the contemporary state of diasporic letters in the French capital this collection embraces theoretical close readings materialist intellectual studies of networks comparative essays and writings at the intersection of literary and visual studies Paris Capital of the Black Atlantic is unique both in its focus on literary fiction as a formal and sociological category and in the range of examples it brings to bear on the question of Paris as an imaginary capital of diasporic consciousness Demonstrate s how Black writers shaped history and contributed to conflicting notions of modernity hosted in Paris The wide range of writers and scholars from American and Francophone studies makes this collection very original and an exciting adventure in concepts movements and ideologies that could be acceptable to non specialists as well American Studies The Black Skyscraper Adrienne Brown, 2017-11-15 A highly interdisciplinary work The Black Skyscraper reclaims the influence of race on modern architectural design as well as the less well understood effects these designs had on the experience and perception of race Alienation Studies Paul Seeman, Teresa Seeman, 2024-07-13 This book compiles cross cultural studies on alienation undertaken by the late Dr Melvin Seeman including relevant historical and theoretical contexts and analyses related to the ongoing development of the alienation model and its counterparts in the behavioral sciences Chapters track the development of this model across a half century of interdisciplinary research encompassing various research partnerships over the years W.E.B. Du Bois Elvira Basevich, 2020-10-22 W E B Du Bois spent many decades fighting to ensure that African Americans could claim their place as full citizens and thereby fulfill the deeply compromised ideals of American democracy Yet he died in Africa having apparently given up on the United States In this tour de force Elvira Basevich examines this paradox by tracing the development of his life and thought and the relevance of his legacy to our troubled age She adroitly analyses the main concepts that inform Du Bois s critique of American democracy such as the color line and double consciousness before examining how these concepts might inform our understanding of contemporary struggles from Black Lives Matter to the campaign for reparations for slavery She stresses the continuity in Du Bois s thought from his early writings to his later embrace of self segregation and Pan Africanism while not shying away from assessing the challenging implications of his later work This wonderful book vindicates the power of Du Bois s thought to help transform a stubbornly unjust world It is essential reading for racial justice activists as well as students of African American philosophy and political thought Disturbing Times Catherine E. Karkov, Anna Kłosowska, Vincent W. J. van Gerven Oei, 2020 From Kehinde Wiley to W E B Du Bois from Nubia to Cuba Willie Doherty s terror in ancient landscapes to the violence of institutional Neo Gothic Reagan s AIDS policies to Beowulf fanfiction this richly diverse volume brings together art historians and literature scholars to articulate a more inclusive intersectional medieval studies It will be of interest to students working on the diaspora and migration white settler colonialism and pogroms Indigenous studies and decolonial methodology slavery genocide and culturecide The authors confront the often disturbing legacies of medieval studies and its current failures to own up to those and also analyze fascist nationalist colonialist anti Semitic and other ideologies to which the medieval has been and is yoked collectively formulating concrete ethical choices and aims for future research and teaching In the face of rising global fascism and related ideological mobilizations contemporary and past and of cultural heritage and history as weapons of symbolic and physical oppression this volume s chapters on Byzantium Medieval Nubia Old English Hebrew Old French Occitan and American and European medievalisms examine how educational institutions museums universities and individuals are shaped by ethics and various ideologies in research collecting and teaching

An Introduction to W. E. B. Du Bois Kalasia S. Ojeh, Earl Wright II, 2024-02-29 An Introduction to W E B Du Bois examines the historical contributions to social science and the continuing relevance of the work of W E B Du Bois in an accessible manner The first volume of its kind it places the theories of Du Bois in context showing how the socio racial environment in which he grew up and came of age influenced the development of his thought In addition to covering well known concepts such as double consciousness the veil and religious fatalism the authors discuss Du Bois uncoined theories emanating from the Atlanta University Studies as well as his contributions to the development of Black sociology and research methodology A groundbreaking contextualization and summary of the importance of Du Bois work to sociology and sociological theory this book constitutes a much needed resource for scholars and students seeking to understand this scholar s significance to the social sciences beyond the elementary level

Moral Minefields Shai M. Dromi, Samuel D. Stabler, 2023-09 In Moral Minefields Shai M Dromi and Samuel D Stabler take a systematic look at the profound effects moral debates have on sociological research The authors explore five recent controversial topics in sociology about race and genetics secularization theory methodological nationalism the culture of poverty and parenting practices to show how researchers make decisions about what topics to study and how to engage with them They present three broad ways in which sociologists respond to moral criticism of scholarly work while some accept and endorse the criticism others work out new ways to address these topics that would transcend the criticism and still others build on the debates to form new more morally acceptable research Moral Minefields addresses one of the most prominent questions in contemporary sociological theory today how can sociology contribute to the development of a virtuous society Rather than suggesting that sociologists adopt a clear paradigm that can guide their research toward clearly defined moral aims Dromi and Stabler argue that sociologists already largely possess and employ the repertoires to address questions of moral virtue in their research They thus shift the conversation away from attempts to theorize the moral goods sociologists should support and toward questions about how sociologists manage the plurality of moral positions that present themselves in their studies Moral diversity within sociology they show fosters disciplinary progress The book promises to be of interest to sociologists of knowledge production of higher education and especially to sociologists who aim to reach a wider public The Sociology of Human Rights Mark Frezzo, 2014-12-23 Long the arena of philosophers legal scholars and political scientists the interdisciplinary study of human rights has recently seen an influx of sociologists Why is this so and how do sociologists contribute to our understanding of human rights in the contemporary world In this landmark new text Mark Frezzo explores the sociological perspective on human rights which he shows to be uniquely placed to illuminate the economic political social and cultural conditions under which human rights norms and laws are devised interpreted implemented and enforced Sociologists treat human rights not as immutable attributes but as highly contested claims that vary across historical time and geographic space and investigate how human rights can serve either to empower or to constrain social actors from large societies to small communities and identity groups Frezzo guides readers through the scholarly pedagogical and practical applications of a sociological view of major debates such as foundationalism vs social constructionism universalism vs particularism globalism vs localism and collective vs individual rights This cutting edge text will appeal to students of sociology political science law development and social movements and all interested in the nature scope and applicability of human rights in the twenty first century W. E. B. Du Bois Robert A. Wortham, 2022-10-25 W E B Du Bois Pioneer American Sociologist highlights the contributions of W E B Du Bois on the field of sociology Robert A Wortham shines a light on Du Bois s role in shaping the scientific scope of the sociological perspective through his pioneering contributions in the areas of demography urban and rural sociology Southern Black Belt studies and religion and society This book provides a journey through the extensive sociological investigations of one of the key figures in the development of sociology in the United States and globally Democracy and Beauty Robert Gooding-Williams, 2025-06-03 What is beauty and what is its political function In what ways might it help undermine white supremacy and cultivate a more democratic political culture Democracy and Beauty shines a light on W E B Du Bois s attempts to answer these questions during the decade surrounding the First World War and in so doing offers a groundbreaking account of the philosopher s aesthetics Robert Gooding Williams reconstructs Du Bois s defense of the political potential of beauty to challenge oppressive systems and foster an inclusive democracy White supremacy is a powerful force that defies rational revision Du Bois argued because it is rooted in the entrenched routines of its adherents Beauty however has a distinctive role to play in the struggle against white supremacy It can strengthen resolve and ward off despair by showing the oppressed that they can alter their social world and it can unsettle and even transform the pernicious habits that perpetuate white supremacy Gooding Williams also explores Du Bois s account of the interplay among white supremacy Christianity capitalism and imperialism as well as key tensions in his work A rich engagement with Du Bois s philosophy of beauty this book demonstrates the relevance of his social thought and aesthetics to present day arguments about Black pessimism Black optimism and the aesthetic turn in Black studies None Like Us Stephen Best, 2019-01-10 It passes for an unassailable truth that the slave past provides an explanatory prism for understanding the black political present In None Like Us Stephen Best reappraises what he calls melancholy historicism a kind of crime scene investigation in which the forensic imagination is directed toward the recovery of a we at the point of our violent origin Best argues that there is and can be no we following from such a time and place that black identity is constituted in and through negation taking inspiration from David Walker s prayer that none like us may ever live again until time shall be no more Best draws out the connections between a sense of impossible black sociality and strains of negativity that have operated under the sign of queer In None Like Us the art of El Anatsui and Mark Bradford the literature of Toni Morrison and Gwendolyn Brooks even rumors in the archive evidence an apocalyptic aesthetics or self eclipse which opens the circuits between past and present and thus charts a queer future for black study Photography on the Color Line Shawn Michelle Smith,2004-06-07 An exploration of the visual meaning of the color line and racial politics through the analysis of archival photographs collected by W E B Du Bois and exhibited at the Paris Exposition of 1900
