Socorro Saved Me Robert Noyola,2000-07-01 If Jesus Could Not Save Himself, How Would He Save Me? Julián Segura Camacho,2012-09-11 As the country recognizes the 101st birthday of former President Ronald Reagan this memoir offers insight into a local Anglo Protestant community in Westchester California that was but one grain of sand in a sea of change that led to the Reagan Revolution In the early 1980s this cohort of Anglo Protestants reached out to neighborhood youngsters in a dedicated attempt to save them from hell Julian Segura Camacho a Mexican American teenager living in California at the time soon found himself attending an all white church primarily upper class but still sprinkled with less fortunate ones This Assembly of God church became a family and much like any relationship Camacho found pleasure and anguish as different personalities played themselves out As a member of this communal religious and racialized space Camacho was able to see firsthand how the Reagan Revolution attracted those who felt the US was becoming too secular Yet this book is not political it is simply a story of a Mexican American boy engaged in a seven year routine of bible study youth and boy scout activities and camping trips along with sermons about the coming of Christ and the evils of Darwinism

The Things We Didn't Know Elba Iris Pérez, 2025-01-07 NATIONAL BESTSELLER. The USA TODAY bestselling inaugural winner of Simon Schuster's Books Like Us contest. Elba Iris Pérez's lyrical and wonderfully compelling Judith Simon Prager author of What the Dolphin Said cross-cultural coming-of-age debut novel explores a young girl's childhood between 1950s Puerto Rico and a small Massachusetts factory town. Andrea Rodríguez is nine years old when her mother whisks her and her brother Pablo away from Woronoco, the tiny Massachusetts factory town that is the only home they've known. With no plan and no money, she leaves them with family in the mountainside villages of Puerto Rico and promises to return. Months later when Andrea and Pablo are brought back to Massachusetts, they find their hometown significantly changed. As they navigate the rifts between their family's values and all-American culture and face the harsh realities of growing up, they must embrace both the triumphs and heartache that mark the journey to adulthood. A heartfelt, evocative portrait that breathes with narrative magic. Harry Youtt, poet and author of I'm Never Not Thinking of You. The Things We Didn't Know establishes Elba Iris Pérez as a sensational new literary voice.

Best Debut Short Stories 2023 Sarah Lyn Rogers, Summer Farah, 2023-09-26 The essential annual guide to the newest voices in literature. Selected by Venita Blackburn, Richard Chiem, and Dantiel W. Moniz. Best Debut Short Stories is an annual celebration of the most promising short story writers today. Selected by a panel of distinguished judges, these twelve stories are the 2023 winners of the PEN Robert J. Dau Short Story Prize for Emerging Writers, which recognizes each writer's outstanding debut in a literary magazine. The stories in this anthology encompass fraught family gatherings, death, inheritance, reproduction, and birth, translation, secrets, and betrayals. They show us what we would rather not face: a grandmother's repeated resurrection, the loss of a child, a family's excuses for a predator. They direct our attention away from fluorescence and to the natural world: iguanas climbing into beds, a reflection in an orange sweat like rain drops, gossamer petals, a child named Ant They question how well we can ever know other people partners reconsidering each other on the brink of divorce an imaginary roommate They remind us that some questions have no perfect answer Why pretend not to understand someone in need What can anyone do with anxieties over becoming a parent This year s stories were selected by judges Venita Blackburn Richard Chiem and Dantiel W Moniz innovators of the short story form Each story is accompanied by an introduction from the journal editor who first published it providing insight about what s exciting in fiction right now and recognizing the vital work literary magazines do in nurturing new voices
