Landscape as Sacred Space Steven Lewis, 2005-07-15 Steven Lewis's Landscape as Sacred Space Metaphors for the Spiritual Journey invites new discussions about our spiritual journeys and allows seekers to rethink approaches to Christian spirituality and theology in light of postmodernity Landscape metaphors provide a common and accessible language to articulate one's spiritual journey Spiritual mountains deserts and valleys are dominant landscapes on our journey through life Most people have experienced the joy of a mountaintop spiritual experience the pain of spiritual deserts or perhaps the dreariness too often associated with spiritual valleys There is a tendency however to highlight spiritual mountaintops while avoiding spiritual deserts and ignoring spiritual valleys This leaves many Christians ill equipped either to deal with crises or to integrate God into ordinary life Each landscape offers rich lessons that when combined together lead us toward a maturing faith and into a deeper relationship with God Landscape as Sacred Space is intended to aid those who search for more meaningful ways to articulate their faith journey The book grants permission to struggle with life s landscapes provides safe spaces to reflect on the journey and introduces language that enables exploration and discovery

Developing a Model for Culturally Responsive Experiential Education Elizabeth Laura Yomantas,2023-12-01 This book provides a new empirically informed framework designed to equip higher education faculty with the tools to help students engage in humanizing mutually beneficial and anti colonial experiential education alongside other students and communities around the world The author maps the conceptual development of culturally responsive experiential education CREE as a novel framework situated at the nexus of culturally responsive research methodologies the Indigenous research paradigm critical service learning and critical pedagogy in experiential education The chapters detail qualitative research findings from an undergraduate CREE program in rural Fiji to illustrate the implementation of the novel CREE framework and discuss post program possibilities based on the research study findings Situated in narrative inquiry the book also includes interspersed participant vignettes in order to center student voices and illuminate the research study findings With attention to themes including emergent critical consciousness critical allyship and personal journeys of decolonization as experienced through the CREE framework it will be of benefit to both education scholars and higher education faculty interested in experiential education and culturally responsive pedagogies

Apocalypse of the Alien God Dylan M. Burns, 2014-01-06 In the second century Platonist and Judeo Christian thought were sufficiently friendly that a Greek philosopher could declare What is Plato but Moses speaking Greek Four hundred years later a Christian emperor had ended the public teaching of subversive Platonic thought When and how did this philosophical rupture occur Dylan M Burns argues that the fundamental break occurred in Rome ca 263 in the circle of the great mystic Plotinus author of the Enneads Groups of controversial Christian metaphysicians called Gnostics knowers frequented his seminars disputed his views and then disappeared from the history of philosophy until the 1945 discovery at Nag Hammadi Egypt of codices containing Gnostic literature including versions of the books circulated by Plotinus's Christian opponents Blending state of the art Greek metaphysics and ecstatic Jewish mysticism these texts describe techniques for entering celestial realms participating in the angelic liturgy confronting the transcendent God and even becoming a divine being oneself They also describe the revelation of an alien God to his elect a race of foreigners under the protection of the patriarch Seth whose interventions will ultimately culminate in the end of the world Apocalypse of the Alien God proposes a radical interpretation of these long lost apocalypses placing them firmly in the context of Judeo Christian authorship rather than ascribing them to a pagan offshoot of Gnosticism According to Burns this Sethian literature emerged along the fault lines between Judaism and Christianity drew on traditions known to scholars from the Dead Sea Scrolls and Enochic texts and ultimately catalyzed the rivalry of Platonism with Christianity Plunging the reader into the culture wars and classrooms of the high Empire Apocalypse of the Alien God offers the most concrete social and historical description available of any group of Gnostic Christians as it explores the intersections of ancient Judaism
