the Site C Dam in northeastern British Columbia s Peace River Valley has been touted by B C Hydro and successive governments as necessary to meet the province s increasing energy needs With its enormous 10 billion price tag the dam would be the largest public works project in BC history It would be the third dam on the Peace River and destroy traditional unceded territory belonging to Treaty 8 First Nations Following the last provincial election the newly appointed NDP government called for a review of the project but work on the dam continues This comes after protests by aboriginal groups and landowners several lawsuits against the government and federal government intervention to let the dam go ahead More recently there has been a call from a United Nations panel to review how the dam will affect Indigenous land This book presents the independent voices of citizen experts describing every important impact of the dam including Sustainable energy expert Guy Dauncey on future energy demand and whether there is likely to be a need for the dam s electricity An
