THE UNHEARD CRY OF THE IGBO PEOPLE KENNETH

CHIGBO, 2011-03-21 In this book which itself is the outcome of an Award winning research work Fr Chigbo utilized the resources in Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel's Meta psychology of the Meaning of Human Life to study the Phenomena of the proliferation of prayer and healing ministries in Igboland. He states The religious and spiritual world outlooks of Ndi Igbo predisposed them to seek for meaning of life in a religious spiritual setting. The double assaults of the invasive colonialism and Christian Missionary exploits as well as these catastrophes slavery and slave trade the Nigerian Biafran war Neo Colonialism the exploitation marginalization and oppression of the Igbo people motivated them to raise questions about the fundamental quality of being human who am I and what is the meaning of my life. The economic hardship political instability and the attack on fundamental Igbo cultural heritage also joined forces with the other factors mentioned above to cause existential frustration and existential vacuum within the Igbo population. The author developed and explored what he calls Heschelian Diagnostic Tool as well as the ten psycho pastoral phases in the search for the meaning in Human life. He proposed a new vision for prayer and healing ministry which is centered on the empowerment of each individual person to respond responsibly to the demand quality of life to engage in actions that are responses to the questions life poses before each unique individual. This is an invaluable resource for all those involved or interested in the diverse field of pastoral care.

I Am Who Loves the Prophets Marc H. Ellis, 2022-08-11 I Am Who Loves the Prophets is a beautiful and haunting meditation on exile a central experience in the history of the Jewish people but now experienced by diverse peoples and faiths around the world. For Jewish theologian Marc H. Ellis exile began when he found his voice of dissent after the Holocaust and after what Israel has done and is doing to the Palestinian people. In these meditations Ellis brings us to an intimate encounter with God as his exile deepens and he finds meaning in the everyday joys and anxieties of life. Ellis's meditations are also conversations with exiles of all stripes an eclectic group of writers Franz Kafka Albert Camus Samuel Beckett Adrienne Rich and spiritual guides Thomas Merton Dietrich Bonhoeffer Simone Weil Shunryu Suzuki. Shall we join the conversation?

The End of Divine Truthiness: Love, Power, and God Paul Joseph

Greene, 2017-08-01 In The End of Divine Truthiness Paul Joseph Greene confronts stark realities of terrifying theologies that make a mockery out of divine love. With urgent resolve Greene answers Martin Luther King Jr's pointed challenge to overcome reckless and abusive power without love and sentimental and anemic love without power. Too many theologies cast God either as the tyrant whose loveless power lifts up the mighty or the victim whose powerless love sends the poor away empty. Wielding Stephen Colbert's word truthiness as a scalpel Greene slices out one perilous theology after another to restore the wholesome truth that God is love Supported by three world religions Buddhism Christianity and Taoism he discovers a remarkably harmonious and revolutionary divine power that is fully aligned with divine love To reunify love and power here in the world as King challenges it is time to abandon ideologies of divine power that devastate divine love and promote atrocities Greene s call for the end of divine truthiness heralds a new day for the God whose love is power and whose power is love

Practicing Exile Marc H. Ellis, Faith and struggle pain and promise As a post Holocaust Jewish thinker Marc Ellis inhabits the land between homes that we call exile In this intensely personal work he explores how the religious landscape looks from the perspective of an exile and how religious searching continually leads away from the domestic comforts of received Jewish and Christian platitudes and into new struggles for religious authenticity At once a memoir and an examination of conscience Ellis s autobiographical starting points spark reflections on Jewish Christian relations liberation theology religion and politics and issues of justice in Israel and Palestine His experiences also occasion meditations on solitude and solidarity gratitude and alienation memory and responsibility They exemplify how religiously committed persons though exiled forever from yesterday s certitudes can yet practice covenantal fidelity In the end for Ellis and for the reader there is no going back Exile is not simply a fact it is a religious imperative At stake is the integrity of the religious search as a truly ecumenical adventure Rhetoric of Transformation International Society for the History of Rhetoric.
