Speed Racerrace For Life:

Bonneville's Women of Land Speed Racing "LandSpeed" Louise Ann Noeth,2021 At Bonneville record holders must first earn the right to present themselves on the starting line This requires passing rigorous safety and technical checks for driver rider and speed machine Gender is inconsequential Through the years more than 200 women have made the cut and donned fireproof clothing and helmets Dozens have set land speed records 35 in excess of 200 miles per hour six above 300 miles per hour and one deaf female racer who roared past 500 miles per hour Equally impressive are the women who helped propel the helmeted gals into glory Few know how many women are skilled fabricators mechanics crew chiefs and all round land speed racing experts all working out on a brutal merciless and barren sodium soaked playa And for decades dedicated volunteers have not only put down that all important starting line but erected a speed village that inspired tens of thousands to visit taunting the timing lights run after run Since 1949 women have played an integral part Without question land speed racing has more women actively participating and setting records than any other segment of motorsports in the world

Mad for Speed Elsa A. Nystrom,2013-06-06 This book covers Joan Newton Cuneo s life and her roles from 1905 to 1915 as the premier female racer in the United States and spokeswoman for women drivers and good roads Beginning with her family history and marriage to Andrew Cuneo it traces her life in New York society the birth of her children and Joan s growing interest in automobile touring and racing and partnership with Louis Disbrow her racing mechanic The book covers Joan s experiences in three Glidden Tours including her notes on the 1907 tour her first races and her rivals It also looks at the growth and change of automobile culture and the battles for control of racing among the American Automobile Association the Automobile Club of America and the American Automobile Manufacturers Association which ended in banishing women racers shortly after Joan s greatest racing victories at New Orleans in 1909 The book then follows Joan s attempts to continue racing the end of her marriage her move to the Upper Peninsula and her remarriage and death The book also includes a chapter on her female rivals in racing and touring

Soviet Life ,1982 Media, Practice and Theory: Tracking emergent thresholds of experience Nicole De Brabandere,2023-04-18 This volume gathers research at the intersection of art and the interdisciplinary humanities to develop an understanding of media assemblages that insist on the generativity of their situatedness within ecologies of practice These contributions propose media assemblages that enlarge the time and space for co compositions between media and bodies that reshape subjective perceptual and affective registers of experience Media assemblages include photography performance criticism curation installation animation collage video and VR as well as archival and somatic practices Research as a form of practice is a key orientation in this volume since it offers a means of engaging the world making proposition offered by Isabelle Stengers that practices are specified through irreducible entanglements that cause one to think feel and hesitate The generative linkages between different disciplinary approaches for engaging research practice across the arts and humanities are favoured over disciplinary and media based exclusivity When practice is not posed as an intervention or counterpoint to scholarly research or in opposition to the discursive differences emerge not based on convention but through the situatedness of emergent insight The goal is thus not to forward a reproducible formula for knowledge creation but to weave the conditions for utterances both within and in excess of discipline convention and establishment How can research engender the making of communities between across and in excess of institutional frameworks through the emergent affinities postures and formats of evolving and inclusive forms of research This volume is a valuable reference for researchers practitioners within the arts and humanities as it exemplifies both critical and situated methods for developing interdisciplinary research as a means of transforming the terms of research itself
