Speedway Walkabout:

Speedway Walkabout Johnnie Hoskins, 1977 Walkabout, 1974 Travelling Home, 'Walkabout Magazine' and Mid-Twentieth-Century Australia Mitchell Rolls, Anna Johnston, 2016-07-06 Travelling Home provides a detailed analysis of the contribution that the mid twentieth century Walkabout magazine made to Australia's cultural history. Spanning five central decades of the twentieth century 1934-1974 Walkabout was integral to Australia's sense of itself as a nation. By advocating travel both vicarious and actual Walkabout encouraged settler Australians to broaden their image of the nation and its place in the Pacific region. In this way Walkabout explicitly aimed to make its readers feel at home in their country as well as including a diverse picture of Aboriginal and Pacific cultures. Given its wide availability and distribution together with its accessible and entertaining content Walkabout changed how Australia was perceived and the magazine is recalled with nostalgic fondness by most if not all of its former readers. Drawing on interdisciplinary scholarship Travelling Home engages with key questions in literary, cultural and Australian studies about national identity and modernity. The book's diverse topics demonstrate how Walkabout canvassed subtle and shifting fields of representation as a result this analysis produces complex and nuanced readings of Australian literary and cultural history.

Raw Speed - The Autobiography of the Three-Times World Speedway Champion Tai Woffinden, 2019-09-19 Following in his late father's footsteps Tai Woffinden made his name as Britain's most successful speedway rider ever. Known for his speed on the tracks and his quirky tattoos he is a popular figure within the sport and beyond it. With a vast array of titles to his name including youngest ever Grand Prix World Champion achieved at the age of twenty three Tai has come a long way from his Scunthorpe roots. His love affair with speedway began when his family emigrated to Australia while he was a child where he became a local champion while still at school. He has not been without his share of struggles however. In 2010 he lost his father the popular speedway rider Rob Woffinden to cancer which combined with issues within his team resulted in a difficult season. Then in 2019 during his defence of his World Championship he crashed heavily during a race in Poland and was badly injured breaking his back. Such setbacks do not keep true champions down for long however. Tai will be back to dazzle his thousands of fans with his unique combination of flamboyant skill and raw courage. Told with his trademark honesty and directness his autobiography provides an eye opening insight into the life of one of speedway's greatest talents and most beloved stars.
