Fortunately, the easy slope here had so checked my speed that I was able to dodge safely through, but the heavy slide swept across the meadow after me with undiminished speed and came crashing into the dead trees so close to me that broken limbs were flung flying past as I shot down off a steep moraine less than one hundred feet ahead. He grows up with the many-sided wild, playing amid the enameled flowers, the great boulders, the Ice King's marbles, and the fallen logs in the edge of the mysterious forest, learning to swim and slide, listening to the strong, harmonious stir of wind and water, living with the stars in the sky and the stars in the pond, beginningPg 38 serious life when brilliant clouds of color enrich the hills, helping to harvest the trees that wear the robes of gold while the birds go by for the southland in the reflective autumn days.

The Spell of the Rockies Enos Abijah Mills, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1912 edition. Excerpt: when he imagined I was in danger, then he was instantly alert for my defense. When the stage overtook us and stopped to let me in, he leaped in also and squatted by the driver with such an air of importance that I half expected to see him take the lines and drive. I lost him in my rush to make the train at the station. He could, of course, have kept with me had he been without fear, or if he had really so desired. As the train pulled out, I saw him start down street with an air of unconscious confidence that told of wide experience. He was a tramp dog. The next time I saw him was several months later in Leadville, some two hundred miles from where he left me Where in the mean time he may have rambled what towns he may have visited or what good days or troubles he may have had I have no means of knowing I came walking into Leadville with snowshoes under my arm from two weeks snowshoeing and camping on the upper slopes of the Rockies The ends of broken tree limbs had torn numerous right angled triangles in my clothes my go6 of tfy goc6ie soft hat was unduly slouchy and fourteen nights intimate association with a camp fire along with only an infrequent indifferent contact with water had made me a sight to behold for dogs anyway On the outskirts one snarly cur noticed me and barked in a few minutes at least a dozen dogs were closely following and making me unwelcome to their haunts They grew bold with time numbers and closer inspection of me They crowded unpleasantly close Realizing that if one of them became courageous enough to make a snap at my legs all might follow his example I began to sidle out of the middle of the street intending to leap a fence close by and take refuge in a house Before I
