Spellbound National Edition Starting Out:

How Documentaries Went Mainstream Nora Stone, 2023 Since the 1960s documentary films have moved closer to the mainstream thanks to the popularity of rockumentaries association with the independent film movement support from public and cable television and the rise of streaming video services Documentary films have become reliable earners at the U S box office and ubiquitous on streaming platforms while historically they existed on the margins of mainstream media How do we explain the growing commercialization of documentary films and the conditions that fueled their transformation The growing commercialization of documentary film has not gone unnoticed but it has not been sufficiently explained Streaming and the growing interest in reality TV are usually offered as initial explanations whenever a documentary enters the cultural conversation or breaks a box office record but neither of those causes grapple with the overlapping causal mechanisms that commercialized documentary film How Documentaries Went Mainstream provides a more comprehensive and meaningful periodization of the commercialization of documentary film Although the commercial ascension of documentary films might seem meteoric it is the culmination of decades long efforts that have developed and fortified the audience for documentary features Author Nora Stone refines rough explanations of these efforts through a robust synoptic history of the market for documentary films using knowledge of film economics and the norms of industry discourse to tell a richer story This periodization will allow scholars to compare the commercialization of documentary film with other genres Drawing on archival documents industry trade journals and popular press and interviews with filmmakers and film distributors Stone illuminates how documentary features have become more plentiful popular and profitable than ever before Documentary Storytelling Sheila Curran Bernard, 2015-12-22 Documentary Storytelling has reached filmmakers and filmgoers worldwide with its unique focus on the key ingredient for success in the growing global documentary marketplace storytelling This practical guide reveals how today's top filmmakers bring the tools of narrative cinema to the world of nonfiction film and video without sacrificing the rigor and truthfulness that give documentaries their power The book offers practical advice for producers directors editors cinematographers writers and others seeking to make ethical and effective films that merge the strengths of visual and aural media with the power of narrative storytelling In this new updated edition Emmy Award winning author Sheila Curran Bernard offers New strategies for analyzing documentary work New conversations with filmmakers including Stanley Nelson The Black Panthers Kazuhiro Soda Mental Orlando von Einsiedel Virunga and Cara Mertes JustFilms Discussions previously held with Susan Kim Imaginary Witness Deborah Scranton The War Tapes Alex Gibney Taxi to the Dark Side and James Marsh Man on Wire Asserting Jurisdiction Patrick Capps, Malcolm Evans, Stratos V. Konstadinidis, 2003-09-02 This collection explores the ways in which key European and International legal institutions define the boundaries of jurisdictional competence Mea Culpa: a Way out of Hell Dennis Noel, 2017-07-07 From birth to death we pass the same milestones forks in the road and dead ends Each next step may lead us to disaster Dennis Noel a native of the dual island nation of Trinidad and Tobago shares lessons from his own journey in book one of his life story His prime directive is to show the interconnectivity of everything in the universe between universes and between beings His story is connected to others and their stories are all part of a much bigger story He reveals regrets many of us choose to ignore Some of these lie buried deep in the recesses of our minds to be forgotten or diluted with enough justifications to dissolve any real ownership but he seeks to move toward a more enlightened path He also looks back at the many times in his life that help was given sometimes in the form of angels disguised as strangers or via doors opened with whispers urging him closer to faith

Motion Picture Classic, 1924 Never Coming to a Theater Near You Kenneth Turan, 2005-11-01 It is in the nature of today's movie business that while Hollywood blockbusters invade every megaplex smaller quality films often don't get screen time Fans of finer films have to count on catching up with them on video and DVD but even the most hard core devotees have trouble remembering what sounded good when a film was originally released Never Coming to a Theater Near You will remedy that situation This selection of renowned film critic Kenneth Turan's absorbing and illuminating reviews now revised and updated to factor in the tests of time point viewers toward the films they can't quite remember but should not miss Moviegoers know they can trust Turan's impeccable taste His eclectic selection represents the kind of sophisticated adult and entertaining films intelligent viewers are hungry for More importantly Turan shows readers what makes these unusual films so great revealing how talented filmmakers and actors have managed to create the wonderful highs we experience in front of the silver screen

Photoplay, 1924 New Documentary Stella Bruzzi, 2006-09-27 Praise for New Documentary It's refreshing to find a book that cuts through the tired old debates that have surrounded documentary film and television It heralds a welcome new approach Sight and Sound Documentary practice changes so fast that books on the subject are often out of date before they are published Bruzzi's achievement is to have understood the genre as an activity based on performance rather than observation This is a fresh perspective which illuminates the fundamental shifts that will continue to take place in the genre as it enters its second century John Ellis Professor of Media Arts Royal Holloway University of London New Documentary provides a contemporary look at documentary and fresh and challenging ways of theorising the non-fiction film As engaging as the original this second edition features thorough updates to the existing chapters as well as a brand new chapter on contemporary cinema release documentaries This new edition includes Contemporary films such as Capturing the Friedmans tre et avoir Fahrenheit 9/11 The Fog of War and Touching the Void as well as more canonical texts such as Hoop Dreams and Shoah Additional interviews with influential practitioners such as director Michael Apted and producer Stephen Lambert A comprehensively revised discussion of modern observational documentary including docusoaps reality television and formatted documentaries The work of documentary filmmakers such as Nicholas Barker Errol Morris Nick Broomfield Molly Dineen and Michael Moore and the work of Avant Garde filmmakers such as Chris Marker and Patrick Keiller Gender identity queer theory performance race and spectatorship Bruzzi shows how theories of documentary filmmaking can be applied to contemporary texts and genres and discusses the relationship between recent innovative examples of the genre and the more established canon of documentary
