

A dark, atmospheric landscape photograph of a mountain valley. A winding road or path leads through the valley, flanked by steep, forested hills. In the foreground, there are small, dark houses or barns. The overall tone is somber and quiet, with a focus on the natural beauty and tranquility of the scene.

Stillness and tranquility set things in order in the universe.

political theory written in the second century BCE synthesizes the entire corpus of military literature inherited from the Chinese classical era Drawing on all major existing military writings as well as other lost sources it assesses tactics and strategy logistics organization and political economy as well as cosmology and the fundamental morality of warfare This powerful work set out to become the last word on military matters subsuming and replacing all preceding literature Written under the sponsorship of Liu An king of Huainan the Huainanzi's military methods emphasize the preservation of peace as the ultimate value to be served by the military insisting that the army can be effectively and rightly used only when defending the sacred hereditary position of the emperor and his vassals This position stands in stark contrast to that of The Art of War which prioritizes the enrichment and empowerment of the state Liu An's philosophy also argues that military success depends on the personal cultivation of the commander and that deception is not enough to secure victory Only a commander with the exceptional qualities of insight and cognition developed through a program of meditative practice and yogic refinement can effectively control and interpret the strategic situation Andrew Seth Meyer offers both a full translation of this text and an extensive analysis of its historical context His thorough treatment relates Liu An's teachings to issues in Chinese philosophy culture religion and history helping to interpret their uncommon message The Essential Analects Confucius, 2006-03-15 The Essential Analects offers a representative selection from Edward Slingerland's acclaimed translation of the full work including passages covering all major themes An appendix of selected traditional commentaries keyed to each passage provides access to the text and to its reception and interpretation Also included are a glossary of terms and short biographies of the disciples of Confucius and the traditional commentators cited Unearthing the Changes Edward L. Shaughnessy, 2014-02-25 In recent years three ancient manuscripts relating to the Yi jing I Ching or Classic of Changes have been discovered The earliest the Shanghai Museum Zhou Yi dates to about 300 B C E and shows evidence of the text's original circulation The Gui cang or Returning to Be Treasured reflects another ancient Chinese divination tradition based on hexagrams similar to those of the Yi jing In 1993 two manuscripts found in a third century B C E tomb at Wangjiatai contained almost exact parallels to the Gui cang's early quotations supplying new information on the performance of early Chinese divination Finally the Fuyang Zhou Yi was excavated from the tomb of Xia Hou Zao lord of Ruyin who died in 165 B C E Each line of this classic is followed by one or more generic prognostications similar to phrases found in the Yi jing indicating exciting new ways in which the text was produced and used in the interpretation of divinations This book details the discovery and significance of the Shanghai Museum Zhou Yi the Wangjiatai Gui cang and the Fuyang Zhou Yi including full translations of the texts and additional evidence that constructs a new narrative of the Yi jing's writing and transmission in the first millennium B C E Grass for My Pillow 草枕, 2002 First published in Japanese in 1966 this debut novel by the critically acclaimed author of Singular Rebellion creates an unparalleled portrait of a man at odds with his society and with himself BOOK JACKET Plum Shadows and Plank Bridge Mao Xiang, Yu Huai, 2020-01-21 Amid the turmoil of the Ming

Qing dynastic transition in seventeenth century China some intellectuals sought refuge in romantic memories from what they perceived as cataclysmic events This volume presents two memoirs by famous men of letters Reminiscences of the Plum Shadows Convent by Mao Xiang 1611-93 and Miscellaneous Records of Plank Bridge by Yu Huai 1616-96 that recall times spent with courtesans They evoke the courtesan world in the final decades of the Ming dynasty and the aftermath of its collapse Mao Xiang chronicles his relationship with the courtesan Dong Bai who became his concubine two years before the Ming dynasty fell His mournful remembrance of their life together written shortly after her early death includes harrowing descriptions of their wartime sufferings as well as idyllic depictions of romantic bliss Yu Huai offers a group portrait of Nanjing courtesans mixing personal memories with reported anecdotes Writing fifty years after the fall of the Ming he expresses a deep nostalgia for courtesan culture that bears the toll of individual loss and national calamity Together they shed light on the sensibilities of late Ming intellectuals their recollections of refined pleasures and ruminations on the vagaries of memory coexist with political engagement and a belief in bearing witness With an introduction and extensive annotations Plum Shadows and Plank Bridge is a valuable source for the literature of remembrance the representation of women and the social role of intellectuals during a tumultuous period in Chinese history
