The Oriental Adventure Explorers Of The East:

The Oriental Adventure Timothy Severin,1976 Gives A Fascinating Account Of Towncities Travellers From Europe Who Penetrated Into Asia Between The 13Th And Early 20Th Century To Investigate Into Trade Routes The Explorer's Roadmap to National-Socialism Sarah K. Danielsson,2016-03-16 Whilst terms such as Lebensraum are commonly associated with National Socialist ideology of the 1930s and 40s ideas of racial living space were in fact generated in the previous decades by an international geographic community of explorers and academics Focusing on one of the most influential figures within this group Sven Hedin this is the first study that systematically connects the geographic community to the intellectual history of the development of National Socialist ideology and genocidal practices The book demonstrates how colonial racial and nationalistic policies were often spearheaded by explorers and geographers such as Hedin In Germany Britain France and Russia their positions as publicly recognized authors and reputable academics made them highly influential with politicians Whilst this influence was to become most visible within Hitler s Germany the debates were not by any means restricted to or even originated in Germany Germany was the home of some of the most prominent geographers but this scientific community had a tradition of international debate and exchange with especially British French and Russian geographic societies and institutions Many issues that were later discussed and championed by National Socialist ideology were aired and debated in this international setting raising important questions about the international character and impact of National Socialism Tracing the intellectual history of the international geographic community and its relationship to National Socialism this study provides an assessment of Hedin s close involvement with the Nazi elite as a culmination of decades of political and scientific work In so doing the book uncovers a long ignored or overlooked important connection between exploration geographers and genocide Pre-Columbian Trans-Oceanic Contact Jerald Fritzinger,2016-03-14 Pre Columbian Trans Oceanic Contact examines the discovery and settlement of The New World hundreds and even thousands of years before Christopher Columbus was born Tibet in the Western Imagination T. Neuhaus,2012-08-07 Neuhaus explores the roots of the long standing European fascination with Tibet from the Dalai Lama to the Abominable Snowman Surveying a wide range of travel accounts official documents correspondence and fiction he examines how different people thought about both Tibet and their home cultures Oracle Bones, Stars, and Wheelbarrows Frank Ross,1982 Discusses the achievements of the ancient Chinese in astronomy medicine science and engineering as well as such influential Chinese inventions as paper printing gunpowder and the compass Charting an Empire Lesley B. Cormack,1997-12-22 Cormack demonstrates that geography was part of the Arts curriculum between 1580 and 1620 read at university by a broad range of soon to be political economic and religious leaders By teaching these young Englishmen to view their country in a global context and to see England playing a major role on that stage geography helped develop a set of shared assumptions about the feasibility and desirability of an English empire MotorBoating ,1976-08 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
