Charlotte Maria Mason, 2008      Formation of Character Charlotte Mason, 2013-04-30 Formation of Character is the fifth volume of Charlotte Mason's Homeschooling series. The chapters stand alone and are valuable to parents of children of all ages. Part I includes case studies of children and adults who cured themselves of bad habits. Part II is a series of reflections on subjects including both schooling and vacations or stay cations as we now call them. Part III covers various aspects of home schooling with a special section detailing the things that Charlotte Mason thought were important to teach to girls in particular. Part IV consists of examples of how education affected outcome of character in famous writers of her day. Charlotte Mason was a late nineteenth century British educator whose ideas were far ahead of her time. She believed that children are born persons worthy of respect rather than blank slates and that it was better to feed their growing minds with living literature and vital ideas and knowledge rather than dry facts and knowledge filtered and pre digested by the teacher. Her method of education still used by some private schools and many homeschooling families is gentle and flexible especially with younger children and includes first hand exposure to great and noble ideas through books in each school subject conveying wonder and arousing curiosity and through reflection upon great art music and poetry nature observation as the primary means of early science teaching use of manipulatives and real life application to understand mathematical concepts and learning to reason rather than rote memorization and working endless sums and an emphasis on character and on cultivating and maintaining good personal habits. Schooling is teacher directed not child led but school time should be short enough to allow students free time to play and to pursue their own worthy interests such as handicrafts.
