The New European Industrial Policy Franco Mosconi,2015-05-22 The years since the global financial crisis have seen something of a renaissance in the manufacturing industry The United States has launched its Advanced Manufacturing Partnership and China owes much of its spectacular economic boom in the last decades to its being the world s factory Is there room for the EU in this landscape This timely new book explores Europe s role in this evolving environment It argues that on the one hand in terms of sheer numbers the role of the manufacturing industry in the EU is on a par with other major global economies However the book also states that Europe falls short of its global competitors the USA in particular in terms of its involvement in the most innovative manufacturing sectors The volume therefore argues that this creates the opportunity for a new European industrial policy Exploring the development of current EU policy the book puts forward suggestions as to how the EU can improve in terms of the competitiveness of its technology policy Placing the EU s position in the context of the industrial structures of the USA Japan and the BRICs the book blends theoretical models and practical examples in order to offer a the state of the art look at the current and future direction of Europe s industrial policy This book will be of relevance to all those with an interest in European economics industrial economics public policy European politics and European studies Bulletin of the Public Affairs Information Service Public Affairs Information

Service,1988 EU Cohesion Policy in Practice John Bachtler,Iain Begg,David Charles,Laura Polverari,2016-07-20 EU Cohesion policy along with support for agriculture and rural development is one of the main items of EU spending As such the performance of the policy has come under increasing scrutiny Perhaps surprisingly however past attempts to assess the effectiveness of the EU s have proved to be highly ambivalent This book examines the long term achievements of Cohesion policy from 1989 to 2012 and draws out the main policy implications Originally undertaken for the European Commission by the authors this major longitudinal study adopts an innovative approach to assessing the effectiveness and achievements of this policy building on case studies of 15 regions from different parts of Europe The rationale for the book is to present the findings of the research in a concise and digestible manner that will be of value to policy makers across the EU and to academics interested in the past effectiveness and future direction of the policy The research brings out messages for the conduct of Cohesion policy in the current programme period covering 2014 2020 It also has implications for the debates already launched on how Cohesion policy might evolve after 2020 PAIS Bulletin ,1988 Cities And Structural Adjustment Nigel Harris,Ida Fabricius,2005-08-04 This work addresses the challenge faced in the management of major cities throughout the world as they adjust to economic reform and in particular to becoming more open to the processes operating in worldwide markets Such processes have already had some dramatic effects on large cities in developed and developing countries the rapid decline in manufacturing in older industrial cities and the emergence of the servicing city are but two of the more striking outcomes Based on substantial case studies of cities in the developed and the developing world Sheffield Barcelona Lille Mexico City Monterrey Santiago de Chile Bogota Kingston Jamaica and Johannesburg themes are drawn out extending from structural economic change to policy reactions new city initiatives management planning and finance
