The New Multinationals Mauro F. Guillén, Esteban García-Canal, 2010-09-23 A new breed of multinational companies is reshaping competition in global industries For most of the 19th and 20th centuries multinational firms came from the most technologically advanced countries in the world Over the last two decades however new multinational firms from upper middle income economies e g Spain Ireland Portugal South Korea and Taiwan developing countries e g Egypt Indonesia and Thailand and oil rich countries e g United Arab Emirates Nigeria Russia and Venezuela have become formidable global competitors These firms do not necessarily possess technological or marketing skills In contrast to the classic multinationals they found strength in their ability to organize manage execute and network They pursued a variety of strategies including vertical integration product diversification learning by doing exploration of new capabilities and collaboration with other firms This book documents this phenomenon identifies key capabilities of the new multinationals and provides a new conceptual framework to understand its causes and implications

The Multinational Subsidiary N. Hood, 2003-11-03 This book highlights the evolution of the thinking on the multinational subsidiary over a quarter of a century from the early concerns about the branch plant syndrome to very current topics relating to the Multinational Enterprise as a differentiated corporate network and its role in innovation and entrepreneurship It summarises and evaluates the state of the art in research on the multinational subsidiary with particular reference to managerial and economic development dimensions The volume presents the articles of Neil Hood written in conjunction with other leading scholars particularly Julian Birkinshaw and Stephen Young along with new contributions The book will be of major interest to students researchers and policy makers

Southeast Asia's Chinese Businesses in an Era of Globalization Leo Suryadinata, 2003-08-01 This book addresses the rise of China and its impact on Southeast Asia s economies and businesses especially on those of ethnic Chinese It also discusses Southeast Asian government policies particularly their economic and business policies towards local Chinese and Southeast Asian Chinese businesses both conglomerates and SMEs in an era of globalization Leading experts from the Southeast Asian region were invited to write the papers presenting the most up to date analyses on the subject

Technological Innovations, Multinational Corporations and the New International Competitiveness Jos Molero, 2013-12-19 The aim of this book is to contribute to a better understanding of those intermediate countries with specific reference to two relevant international areas those countries of southern Europe whose dynamic is very much influenced by the phases of European construction and in countries of Latin America where the opening up process has changed the traditional role played by multinational corporations

The Role of Multinational Companies in the Middle East Mamarinta P. Mababaya, 2002 This study investigated whether known economic and international business theories available in the literature are meaningful enough to explain the nature existence and role of multinational companies MNCs in the Middle East particularly Saudi Arabia Two sets of questionnaires were distributed in major cities of Saudi Arabia one set for 100 multinational managers and another for 280 multinational customers 234 questionnaires were collected 45 from multinational managers and 189 from customers This represents a total response rate of 62 percent which is adequate for this study The empirical results supported with comprehensive secondary data confirmed virtually all of the research hypotheses The study found that joint ventures are the dominant form of multinational business in Saudi Arabia both in manufacturing and service industries The core roles of MNCs in the Saudi foreign ventures are evident in the cross border value adding activities of marketing trading manufacturing consulting contracting project management insurance hotel operation and banking Likewise MNCs provide licensing franchising financing services and various auxiliary roles in the Kingdom Therefore the multinationality of a firm or a group of firms operating across national boundaries is not necessarily synonymous with international production the main subject of contemporary multinational theories The respondents generally perceived the competitiveness of MNCs operating in Saudi Arabia as a function of a number of economic management marketing technological and other variables They also perceived the contributions of MNCs to the Kingdom s socio economic developments as significant and positive The study also found that understanding Islamic values and ethics is important for MNCs In this regard the researcher looked at some objective indicators of business success and related them to selected measures of MNCs local cultural awareness and responsiveness The results indicate that the business success of multinationals operating in Saudi Arabia is positively related to their local cultural awareness and responsiveness Along this line this study covers some vital elements of Islamic culture which will help MNCs understand further the cultural needs values and sensitivities of the Saudi people and Muslims in general
