Astronomical Sketching: A Step-by-Step Introduction Richard Handy, David B. Moody, Jeremy Perez, Erika Rix, Sol Robbins, 2007-10-08 If you have ever gazed through the eyepiece of a telescope at the magnificent rings and banded globe of Saturn or found yourself breathless at the sight of long shadows jutting across crater floors on the terminator of the Moon then you will understand the power of those direct visual experiences You are present at a unique event a connection between a part of the cosmos your eye and brain Sketching preserves this tie with direct observation because it allows the observer to spend time at the eyepiece surveying the object intimately while drawing This personal experiential relationship to celestial objects differentiates astronomical sketching from photographic or CCD imaging Sketching is an excellent way to record personal encounters with the celestial wonders because as you are drawing you are training your eye to perceive ever greater detail taking the fullest advantage of your telescope's light grasp and resolution Moreover astronomical sketches can be artwork in themselves for display and decoration in the home or observatory Despite the fact that there are a wide variety of drawing media and techniques there exists no comprehensive treatment of the subject of astronomical sketching This book will present the amateur with fine examples of astronomical sketches and step by step tutorials in each medium including pencil pen and ink chalks and pastels painting and computer graphics programs This unique book can teach almost anyone to create beautiful sketches of celestial objects by following simple illustrated step by step instructions Readers can select a chapter related to their preferred class of object and rapidly learn techniques in several media Each chapter contains useful information regarding equipment types of telescope and eyepiece combinations techniques for preserving and archiving sketches and suggestions for accurate record keeping

The Village Children, an Introduction to the Art of Painting Children and Their Stories Marie Dubois, 2009 The book is both a children's story book and a craft book and is in two parts The story book section contains short and longer stories for young children to read printed in both English and French The craft section is an introduction to painting for the aspiring young artists Part One includes full colour illustrations of plates originally painted by hand on porcelain china and canvas by Marie Dubois On the opposite page the author has written stories both in English and French based on the theme of each plate The stories have been translated to French to familiarise young children to a foreign language especially now learning a second language has been added to the school curriculum Part Two is an introduction to the art of painting The book gives brief instructions as to the materials required basic techniques and painting principles that beginners will need to create some fine artistic tableau as well as definitions of various brush strokes for beginners to practice so that they can achieve their own fine art work The Book also includes line work for each plate design which can be traced on to any painting material It is hoped that the artwork contained in this volume will inspire other painters to produce similar pieces of work The designs require a great deal of careful creative attention All drawings and colours on the designs have a distinctive style particularly the characteristic figures old fashion costumes and hats The book is not only for children to read or parents to read to their children but is also for painters art teachers and others who might be interested in creating this fine art and will have reason to feel proud of their own achievements

Introduction to Contemporary Art in China Lao Zhu,2022-03-21 The book is a collection of fifteen introductory essays excerpted from the Annual of Contemporary Art in China covering the years from 2005 to 2019 showcasing the development and changing landscapes of contemporary art in China The Annual documents exhibitions events creative practices and critical literature concerning contemporary art in China since 2005 Based on archival documentation and statistics data from these annuals notable phenomena events and discourses from a given year as well as key works and artists are reviewed in each introduction with no ideological or market driven undertone The author unravels industrial and institutional factors while also broaching important issues of abstract art new media art and so on and probing the historical and socio cultural context as well In this regard the book offers a panorama of contemporary Chinese art and critically engages with the art scene in China including Hongkong Taiwan and among the Chinese diaspora The title will appeal to scholars students and general readers interested in contemporary art history art criticism contemporary Chinese art iconography and contemporary art theory

An Introduction to the History of Chinese Pictorial Art Herbert Allen Giles,1905

An Introduction to the Making of Western Art Susan L. Green,2024-03-29 This book is the first introduction to Western art that not only considers how choice of materials can impact form but also how objects in different media can alter in appearance over time and the role of conservators in the preservation of our cultural heritage The first four chapters cover wall and easel paintings sculpture drawings and prints from the late Middle Ages to the present day They examine with numerous examples how these works have been produced how they might have been transformed and how efforts regarding their preservation can sometimes be misleading or result in controversy The final two chapters look at how photography new techniques and modern materials prompted innovative ways of creating art in the twentieth century and how the rapid expansion of technology in the twenty first century has led to a revolution in how artworks are constructed and seen generating specific challenges for collectors curators and conservators alike This book is primarily directed at undergraduates interested in art history museum studies and conservation but will also be of interest to a more general non specialist audience
