Wright Morris Territory Wright Morris,2021-01-05 Best known for his novels including the National Book Award winners

The Field of Vision and Plains Song Nebraska born author Wright Morris has long been regarded as one of America s most gifted writers This volume culling work from the photo text books criticism and numerous short stories frequently overlooked among his oeuvre reflects the true breadth of this quintessentially American artist s talents As such it offers a fascinating overview of Morris s inspiring accomplishments in multiple genres While embracing the prose for which Morris is justly famous this treasury of work also highlights his photography and other literary genres including hard to find stories first published in magazines some of which were early drafts of future novels Edited by Morris s long time friend David Madden this one of a kind collection captures a man of multifarious genius Replete with interviews photography a biographical sketch suggestions for further reading and Morris s inimitable writing this compendium is an indispensable resource for those who wish to understand and appreciate the brilliance and virtuosity of one of America s true talents The Man Who Was There

Wright Morris,2022-08-05 When it first appeared in 1945 this novel disconcerted a good many critics Agee Ward the man who was there of the title ostensibly is the man who is not there a member of the armed forces in World War II he has been reported missing in action Yet as we are shown various views of Agee and how he continues to affect the lives of others among them Grandma Herkimer and Private Reagan who knew him in boyhood Peter Spavic and Mrs Krickbaum who refuse to believe that he is missing Miss Gussie Newcomb his landlady and to her surprise his heir we come to perceive what Agee had in mind when he said that anything really alive just went on and on Light Writing & Life Writing Timothy Dow

Adams,2000 On the surface the use of photography in autobiography appears to have a straightforward purpose to illustrate and corroborate the text But in the wake of poststructuralism the role of photography in autobiography is far from simple or one dimensional Fifty Key Writers on Photography Mark Durden,2013-02-15 A clear and concise survey of some of the most significant writers on photography who have played a major part in defining and influencing our understanding of the medium It provides a succinct overview of writing on photography from a diverse range of disciplines and perspectives and examines the shifting perception of the medium over the course of its 170 year history Key writers discussed include Roland Barthes Susan Sontag Jacques Derrida Henri Cartier Bresson Geoffrey Batchen Fully cross referenced and in an A Z format this is an accessible and engaging introductory guide Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag,2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition

A Companion to American Art John Davis,Jennifer A. Greenhill,Jason D. LaFountain,2015-01-23 A Companion to American Art presents 35 newly commissioned essays by leading scholars that explore the methodology historiography and current state of the field of American art history Features contributions from a balance of established and emerging scholars art and architectural historians and other specialists Includes several paired essays to emphasize dialogue and debate between scholars on important contemporary issues in American art history Examines topics such as the methodological stakes in the writing of American art history changing ideas about what constitutes Americanness and the relationship of art to public culture Offers a fascinating portrait of the evolution and current state of the field of American art history and suggests future directions of scholarship Walker Evans Svetlana Alpers,2023-11-07 A magisterial study of celebrated photographer Walker Evans Walker Evans 1903 75 was a great American artist photographing people and places in the United States in unforgettable ways He is known for his work for the Farm Security Administration addressing the Great Depression but what he actually saw was the diversity of people and the damage of the long Civil War In Walker Evans renowned art historian Svetlana Alpers explores how Evans made his distinctive photographs Delving into a lavish selection of Evans s work Alpers uncovers rich parallels between his creative approach and those of numerous literary and cultural figures locating Evans within the wide context of a truly international circle Alpers demonstrates that Evans s practice relied on his camera choices and willingness to edit multiple versions of a shot as well as his keen eye and his distant straight on view of visual objects Illustrating the vital role of Evans s dual love of text and images Alpers places his writings in conversation with his photographs She brings his techniques into dialogue with the work of a global cast of important artists from Flaubert and Baudelaire to Elizabeth Bishop and William Faulkner underscoring how Evans s travels abroad in such places as France and Cuba along with his expansive literary and artistic tastes informed his quintessentially American photographic style A magisterial account of a great twentieth century artist Walker Evans urges us to look anew at the act of seeing the world to reconsider how Evans saw his subjects how he saw his photographs and how we can see his images as if for the first time Conversations with Wright Morris Robert E. Knoll, 1977-01-01 This book is an attempt to approach the work of a leading American novelist from both sides of the looking glass from the opposite but not necessarily opposing points of view of the writer creator and the reader critic In 1975 while the author was visiting professor of English at the University of Nebraska Lincoln several scholar critics among them John W Aldridge Wayne C Booth and David Madden were invited to speak about his craft and artistic aims and principles and to record conversations with him about issues growing from their addresses Since Morris is also an important photographer facets of his achievement in this field were considered by Peter C Bunnell In addition to four conversations three lectures and a portfolio of twelve photographs this volume includes an essay by Wright Morris and a bibliography compiled by Robert L Boyce
