Technology And Change In East-west Relations F. Stephen Larrabee,F Stephen Larrabee,2019-07-11 This volume is based on a series of papers delivered at the conference by specialists from the United States and both Eastern and Western Europe It argues that arms control must shift its focus from quantities to qualities of weapons and attempt to constrain military technology Technology and Change in East-West Relations ,1988 Innovation and Technological Change in Eastern Europe Michael Fritsch,Horst Brezinski,Horst Dieter Brezinski,1999-11-25 Reserach suggests that innovation and technical change are crucial for the econimic recovery of the former centrally planned countries in Central and Eastern Europe This text analyzes the development of innovation systems and technology in this region from various perspectives

East-West Relations and the Future of Eastern Europe Morris Bornstein,Zvi Gitelman,William Zimmerman,2024-11-18 Both domestic and foreign policy considerations led Eastern European nations in the 1970s to involve their economies more deeply with the West This increased economic interdependence encompassed trade technology transfer through industrial cooperation and international credit These growing links came as a mixed blessing as Western economic problems inflation recession unemployment energy began to affect the economic development and political stability in Eastern Europe First published in 1981 East West Relations and the Future of Eastern Europe examines the implications of these problems for East West relations and the domestic scene in Eastern Europe The authors analyze the interaction of economic and political forces at three interlocking levels international regional and national The first part deals with the evolution of East West political and economic relations in the 1970s and the prospects for the 1980s and considers the implications of developments in East West relations for Soviet and East European regional economic political and military ties Thereafter experts from East and West offer their perspectives on political economic strategies for individual East European countries in the context of their regional and international relations This book will be of interest to students of comparative economics international trade and international relations After the Cold War Alpo M. Rusi,1991-05-31 This book provides new and exceptional interpretations in regard to the post World War 2 history of the East West conflict and calls for interdisciplinary approaches in analyzing international relations The systematic and political processes are undoing the division of Europe and restoring an organically interdependent continent The events of 1989 in Eastern Europe are but a harbinger of a new security order in Europe and for the first time since the Treaty of Westphalia of 1648 Europe tries to look beyond state centered concepts of security Soviet Economy in a Time of Change United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee,1979 The Comparative Economics of Research Development and Innovation in East and West Professor Philip Hanson,P. Hanson,K. Pavitt,2013-07-04 A systematic comparison of the institutions and incentive systems governing the processes of technological invention innovation and diffusion in advanced market and centrally planned economies Alternative Conventional Defense Postures In The European Theater Hans G. Brauch,Robert F. Jr. Kennedy,2018-10-24 First published in 1993

This volume edited jointly by the American strategic expert Robert Kennedy and the German peace researcher Hans Giinter Brauch takes up conceptual ideas developed by Horst Afheldt and Carl Friedrich von Weizsacker as well as others on both sides of the Atlantic since the 1960s Our aim has been to contribute to the development of concepts that would reduce the danger of a third world war by the creation of more stable structures in the context of a defensively oriented conventional defense posture In this volume a variety of alternative approaches to European conventional defense driven for the most part by similar strategic considerations are presented by German and American experts to a larger international audience

Trade and Technology: East-West trade and technology transfer United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs.
