Brickmaking David Johnson,2021-07-15 Highly illustrated throughout this is the story of brickmaking in the UK told by an expert in the field     The Economic and Technical Viability of Various Scales of Building Materials Production ,1989

Mastering The Machine Ian Smillie,2019-04-02 Mastering the Machine Revisited is about the connection between poverty aid and technology It is about a search that has been going on officially in the developing world for over forty years and less officially in most countries since the beginning of time It is a search driven today by more hard core poverty than has ever been known and by     The Archaeology of Harriet Tubman's Life in Freedom Douglas V. Armstrong,2022-09-09 Harriet Tubman s social activism as well as her efforts as a soldier nurse and spy have been retold in countless books and films and have justly elevated her to iconic status in American history Given her fame and contributions it is surprising how little is known of her later years and her continued efforts for social justice women s rights and care for the elderly Tubman housed and cared for her extended family parents brothers sisters nieces and nephews as well as many other African Americans seeking refuge Ultimately her house just outside of Auburn New York would become a focal point of Tubman s expanded efforts to provide care to those who came to her seeking shelter and support in the form of the Harriet Tubman Home for the Aged In this book Armstrong reconstructs and interprets Tubman s public and private life in freedom through integrating his archaeological findings with historical research The material record Tubman left behind sheds vital light on her life and the ways in which she interacted with local and national communities giving readers a fuller understanding of her impact on the lives of African Americans Armstrong s research is part of a wider effort to enhance public interpretation and engagement with the Harriet Tubman Home     A Compendium of Information on Selected Low-cost Building Materials United Nations Centre for Human Settlements,1988     The Role of Women in Small-scale Bread Making, Brick Making, and Beer Brewing Industries in Rural Zimbabwe Carmel Lue-Mbizvo,1991 This paper on the role of women in small scale bread making brick making and beer brewing industries in rural Zimbabwe is a summary of the paper presented at the ZERO workshop on energy technology and rural industrial development issues and prospects held in Harare from 16 17 July 1991 The findings are restricted to the rural areas of Khondoro Sanyati and Mutoko in the Mashonaland west and east provinces of Zimbabwe     Chapters of The Agrarian History of England and Wales: Volume 5, The Buildings of the Countryside, 1500-1750 M. W. Barley,Joan Thirsk,Maurice Willmore Barley,1990-03-22 Material from The Agrarian History of England and Wales in paperback with new introductions     Clay Brick Making Everett Sinclair,AI,2025-02-27 Clay Brick Making explores the profound link between hand crafted bricks and society examining traditional brickmaking as a cultural practice shaping family structures and architectural landscapes This book delves into how this foundational element of human civilization impacts skill transmission labor dynamics and community bonds Traditional brickmaking often overlooked represents a sophisticated vernacular technology supporting family units and offering insights into sustainable development

The book progresses logically beginning with the history and cultural significance of clay brick production It then analyzes the family as a unit of production investigates specific regional techniques and focuses on the socio economic impact on family livelihoods Supported by ethnographic studies and interviews the book offers a unique interdisciplinary approach combining anthropology architecture and economics to provide a holistic understanding beyond mere technical manuals

Development of National Technological Capacity for Production of Indigenous Building Materials ,1991      Brick ,1899
