A Resurrection to Immortality William Robert West, 2011-04-14 Life is the most important possession we have Without it there is nothing Only by the resurrection at the second coming of Christ will anyone have life after death After the resurrection the fate of those who are in Christ 1 Eternal life Romans 6 23 2 Shall inherit eternal life Matthew 19 29 3 After the judgment they shall go away into eternal life Matthew 25 46 4 Will have eternal life John 3 5 5 Christ will raise them up on the last day John 6 40 6 Will be immortal after the resurrection 1 Corinthians 15 51 56 7 Will have incorruption 1 Corinthians 15 42 8 Will have glory 1 Corinthians 15 43 9 Will be like Christ We shall be like him for we shall see him even as he is 1 John 3 2 10 Are heirs according to the hope of eternal life Titus 3 7 11 Will have a spiritual body 1 Corinthians 15 44 12 And as we have borne the image of the earthly The earthly flesh and blood body of Adam was made to live on this earth but it cannot inherit the kingdom of God 1 Corinthians 15 50 we shall also bear the image of the heavenly Shall be like the spiritual body of Christ for life in Heaven 1 Corinthians 15 47 56 13 Will never perish John 10 28 14 Forever with the Lord 1 Thessalonians 4 17 15 Many mansions in my father s house In my Father s house Who is in Heaven Matthew 5 16 5 45 5 48 6 1 6 9 7 21 10 32 33 are many mansions I go to prepare a place for you , Cremation of the Dead William Eassie, 2020-08-03 Reproduction of the original Cremation of the Dead by William Eassie

Making and Remaking Horror in the 1970s and 2000s David Roche, 2014-02-06 In Making and Remaking Horror in the 1970s and 2000s author David Roche takes up the assumption shared by many fans and scholars that original horror movies are more disturbing and thus better than the remakes He assesses the qualities of movies old and recast according to criteria that include subtext originality and cohesion With a methodology that combines a formalist and cultural studies approach Roche sifts aspects of the American horror movie that have been widely addressed class the patriarchal family gender and the opposition between terror and horror and those that have been somewhat neglected race the Gothic style and verisimilitude Containing seventy eight black and white illustrations the book is grounded in a close comparative analysis of the politics and aesthetics of four of the most significant independent American horror movies of the 1970s The Texas Chain Saw Massacre The Hills Have Eyes Dawn of the Dead and Halloween and their twenty first century remakes To what extent can the politics of these films be described as disturbing inasmuch as they promote subversive subtexts that undermine essentialist perspectives Do the politics of the film lie on the surface or are they wedded to the film s aesthetics Early in the book Roche explores historical contexts aspects of identity race ethnicity and class and the structuring role played by the motif of the American nuclear family He then asks to what extent these films disrupt genre expectations and attempt to provoke emotions of dread terror and horror through their representations of the monstrous and the formal strategies employed In this inquiry he examines definitions of the genre and its metafictional nature Roche ends with a meditation on the extent to which the technical limitations of the horror films of the 1970s actually contribute to this disturbing quality Moving far beyond the genre itself Making and Remaking Horror studies the redux as a form of adaptation and enables a more complete discussion of the evolution of horror in contemporary American cinema     The Engineer Anonymous,2025-07-17 Reprint of the original first published in 1856 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage
