Slow Man:

Slow Man J. M. Coetzee, 2017-04-04 J M Coetzee's latest novel The Schooldays of Jesus is now available from Viking Late Essays 2006 2016 will be available January 2018 J M Coetzee one of the greatest living writers in the English language has crafted a deeply moving tale of love and mortality in his new book Slow Man When photographer Paul Rayment loses his leg in a bicycle accident he is forced to reexamine how he has lived his life Through Paul's story Coetzee addresses questions that define us all What does it mean to do good What in our lives is ultimately meaningful How do we define the place we call home In his clear and uncompromising voice Coetzee struggles with these issues and offers a story that will dazzle the reader Strong Opinions Chris Danta, Sue Kossew, Julian Murphet, 2011-07-14 This new collection of essays on Coetzee examines how his novels create and unsettle literary authority Its unique contribution is to show how Coetzee provokes us into reconsidering certain basic formal and existential guestions such as the nature of literary realism the authority of the author and the constitution of the human self in a posthumanist setting by consciously revealing the literary theoretical seams of his work Strong Opinions makes the innovative claim that Coetzee's work is driven not by a sense of scepticism or nihilism but rather by a form of controlled exposure that defines the literary The essays in the volume variously draw attention to three of Coetzee's most recent and significant experiments in controlled exposure The first is the exposure of place Coetzee's decision to set his novels in his newly adopted country of Australia The second is the exposure of form Coetzee's direct almost essayistic address of literary philosophical topics within his novels And the third is the exposure of limits Coetzee's explicit deconstruction of the traditional limits of human life J. M. Coetzee and the Ethics of Narrative Transgression Alexandra Effe, 2017-08-16 This book is about the metanarrative and metafictional elements of J M Coetzee s novels It draws together authorship readership ethics and formal analysis into one overarching argument about how narratives work the boundary between art and life On the basis of Coetzee's writing it reconsiders the concept of metalepsis challenges common understandings of self reflexive discourse and invites us to rethink our practice as critics and readers This study analyzes Coetzee's novels in three chapters organized thematically around the author's relation with character reader and self Author and character are discussed on the basis of Foe Slow Man and Coetzee's Nobel lecture He and His Man Stories featuring the character Elizabeth Costello or the figuration Elizabeth Curren serve to elaborate the relation of author and reader The study ends on a reading of Summertime Diary of a Bad Year and Dusklands as Coetzee's engagement with autobiographical writing analyzing the relation of author and self It will appeal to readers with an interest in literary and narrative theory as much as to Coetzee scholars and advanced students The Annual Register, 1832 Annual Register Edmund Burke, 1832 The Annual Register, Or, A View of the History, Politics, and Literature for the Year ... Edmund Burke, 1832 After 1815 the usual form became a number of chapters on Britain paying particular attention to the proceedings of Parliament followed by chapters covering other countries in turn no longer limited to Europe The expansion of the History came at the expense of the sketches reviews and other essays so that the nineteenth century publication ceased to have the miscellaneous character of its eighteenth century forebear although poems continued to be included until 1862 and a small number of official papers and other important texts continue to be reproduced to this day Includes a long historical essay on the History of the Present War the Seven Years War 1756 63 In his preface to the 1758 volume Burke noted the difficulties he had faced in writing the history section of the book Taking the broken and unconnected materials and creating from them one connected narrative had been he commented a work of more labour than may at first appear The 1758 volume is considered a unique contemporaneous account of the Seven Years War analyzing its origins and development with a perspective not readily available at the time in newspapers or magazines Bárbara Arizti, Silvia Martínez-Falguina, 2009-05-05 On the Turn The Ethics of Fiction in Contemporary Narrative in English is an attempt to listen to the various voices that participate in the current dialogue on the relationship between fiction and ethics The editors introduction investigates the current state of affairs on the return to ethics in critical and literary consideration and it opens up the way for the variety of approaches that follows Participants include internationally recognized scholars like Andrew Gibson Patricia Waugh or Native American fiction writer and poet Gordon Henry winner of the American Book Award in 1995 All in all contributors cover a significant geographical diversity and their approaches also vary from general theory to particular examples from traditional interpretations to post deconstruction ethics Authors analyze texts both mainstream and marginal colonial and postcolonial they examine the ethics of race gender and sexuality the ethics of self positioning and orientation the ethics of style the ethics of reception the ethics of mode and genre the ethics of extreme situations of evil disease and fascism In its search for a better understanding of the global nationalistic world of today On the Turn therefore moves beyond the scope of literary criticism into issues of wider more urgent relevance What should I ought I may I must I do if anything on the basis of reading when I have read a literary work What does reading a literary work authorize or even command me to do Writing an essay about the work would be one response On the Turn is a wonderfully diverse learned challenging provocative even sometimes controversial collection of essays on the ethical dimensions of literature This book is testimony to the continued lively interest in the ethical turn in literary studies The authors are for the most part concerned with ethical theory and with ethically charged situations in postmodern novels in English as they shape readers values and judgments Poetry and non print media are however also discussed J Hillis Miller UCI Distinguished Research Professor of Comparative Literature and English University of California at Irvine The Ethics of Fiction is an important and exciting volume that explores with energy and rigour the connections between ethics and literature Relating literature to philosophy neurobiology politics religion deconstruction and psychoanalysis the twenty two contributors richly advance the ethical turn recently embraced by many critics Works by authors such as Ian McEwan A S Byatt Charles Palliser Hanif Kureishi J M Coetzee David Malouf George Orwell E L Doctorow Flannery O Connor Toni

VI G. Campbell Morgan, 2012-02-06 G Campbell Morgan Reprint Series Foreword If it is true that the measure of a person s greatness is their influence not only on his own time but on future gen erations G Campbell Morgan must be regarded as a great person His greatness is seen not only in the wide impact of his ministry on both sides of the Atlantic but in the fact that his books are still read and studied sixty five years after his death Named one of the ten greatest preachers of the twentieth century by the contributing board of Preaching magazine Morgan made the Bible a new and living book not only to the congregations who listened to him but the vast multitude of persons who read his books Fox sixty seven years Morgan preached and taught the Scriptures and served churches in England and the United States What is remarkable is that his commentaries and expositions of the Bible still speak to persons of a new millennium There have been many changes in the world since he faithfully preached and taught the Scriptures but the wide appeal of his books testify to the timelessness of his message Although he held pastorates in the Congregational and Presbyterian denominations he had an ecumenical appeal to persons of all denominations and traditions. The mystic Thomas Kempis once wrote He to whom the eternal word speaks is delivered from many opinions In one of his sermons he referred to the words of Amos that there would be a famine for hearing the word of God Amos 8 11 The timeless work of G Campbell Morgan addresses that hun ger as his books enable his readers to get beyond opinions to the living Word Wipf and Stock Publishers have rendered a great gift to the religious world in reprinting dozens of Morgan's books This growing collection makes his books more available so that readers have an option other than searching the internet for used and often expensive copies Among this collection is the classic The Great Physician and commen taries on the Gospel of Matthew and John Persons seeking a living faith and a meaningful encounter with God would profit from reading any of these Morgan books Near the end of his ministry in a sermon entitled But One Thing Morgan commented on how Portugal changed the words of a coin after Christopher Columbus discovered America No longer did the inscription say Ne Plus Ultra nothing more beyond but Plus Ultra more beyond It is the hope of the G Campbell Morgan Trust that the reprint ing of these books will bring readers to the more beyond and an even deeper encounter with the Word in Scripture The Morgan Trust Richard L Morgan Howard C Morgan John C Morgan The Narrative Care: Biopolitics and the Novel Arne De Boever, 2013-03-28 If the September 11 Law Journal Reports ,1853 terror attacks opened up an era of crises and exceptions of which we are yet to see the end it is perhaps not surprising that care has emerged in the early twenty first century as a key political issue This book approaches contemporary narratives of care through the lens of a growing body of theoretical writings on biopolitics Through close readings of J M Coetzee s Slow Man Kazuo Ishiguro s Never Let Me Go Paul Auster s The Book of Illusions and Tom McCarthy s Remainder it seeks to reframe debates about realism in the novel ranging from Ian Watt to Zadie Smith as engagements with the novel s biopolitical origins its relation to pastoral care the camps and the welfare state Within such an understanding of the novel what possibilities for a critical aesthetics of existence does the contemporary novel include Comprising Reports of Cases in the Courts of Chancery, King's Bench, and Common Pleas, from 1822 to 1835, 1853 Transcript of Record United States. Neill,2016-05-06 Representing a wide range of critical and theoretical perspectives this volume examines J M Coetzee s novels from Dusklands to Diary of a Bad Year The choice of essays reflects three broad goals aligning the South African dimension of Coetzee s writing with his late modernist aesthetic exploring the relationship between Coetzee s novels and his essays on linguistics and paying particular attention to his more recent fictional experiments These objectives are realized in essays focusing on among other matters the function of names and etymology in Coetzee s fiction the vexed relationship between art and politics in apartheid South Africa the importance of film in Coetzee s literary sensibility Coetzee s reworkings of Defoe the paradoxes inherent in confessional narratives ethics and the controversial politics of reading Disgrace intertextuality and the fictional self consciousness of Slow Man Through its pronounced emphasis on the novelist s later work the collection points towards a narrato political and linguistic reassessment of the Coetzee canon Terrorism, Media, and the Ethics of Fiction Philipp Schweighauser, Peter Schneck, 2010-08-19
