The Hemophiliac's Motorcycle Tom Andrews, 1994-04 In this second wise and passionate book Tom Andrews explores illness as a major theme avoiding sentimentality without being merely confessional He advances his considerable talent with great strength and forcefulness The poems are buoyant with humor and mindful of larger mysteries even as they investigate very personal issues There is an urgency that is compelling the work is immersed in the private grief of the speaker without excluding the reader There is real and hard won wisdom and intelligence in the poems offering genuine surprises and delight their attractive humility is not a pose      The Best American Poetry 2008 Charles Wright, David Lehman, 2008-09-16 An anthology of poetry selected as the best published in magazines and periodicals in 2007 by editor Charles Wright featuring seventy five poems by Carolyn Forché Jorie Graham Louise Glück Alex Lemon and others      Poetry Review Stephen Phillips, Galloway Kyle, 1994      Beauty is a Verb Jennifer Bartlett, Sheila Fiona Black, Michael Northen, 2011 Beauty is a Verb is the first of its kind a high quality anthology of poetry by American poets with physical disabilities Poems and essays alike consider how poetry coupled with the experience of disability speaks to the poetics of each poet included The collection explores first the precursors whose poems had a complex and sometimes absent relationship with disability such as Vassar Miller Larry Eigner and Josephine Miles It continues with poets who have generated the Crip Poetics Movement such as Petra Kuppers Kenny Fries and Jim Ferris Finally the collection explores the work of poets who don't necessarily subscribe to the identity of crip poetics and have never before been published in this exact context These poets include Bernadette Mayer Rusty Morrison Cynthia Hogue and C S Giscombe The book crosses poetry movements from narrative to language poetry and speaks to and about a number of disabilities including cerebral palsy deafness blindness multiple sclerosis and aphasia due to stroke among others Provided by publisher      The Gates of the Elect Kingdom John Wood, 1997 The four parts of this highly accomplished collection showcase the different facets and wide breadth of John Wood's poetic talent Displayed here are his ability to sustain a sequence his adeptness with lyricism and the short form and his sensuous feeling for this life and the life of the past In regard to the latter Wood begins the book with his poetic account of the amazing life and adventures of the vigorous American utopianist Wilhelm Johannes Hoade Wood's account reads like a novel as he weaves a fictional narrative out of lyric poetry a narrative that is finally convincing and true in spite of its obvious impossibility The second section Homage to Dafydd ap Gwilym is a free but artistically faithful translation after some of the medieval Welsh poet's major poems arranged in a way to suggest in a natural supernatural mode his remarkable character and biography The third part is a group of finely tuned mostly lyric poems dealing with family friends and intellectual concerns the fourth is a group of contemporary and historical revelations quite striking in scope and variety All combine to form a dazzling whole      Furious Cooking Maureen Seaton, 1996 By turns chic romantic sardonic droll seductive and in your face Maureen Seaton is a cornucopia of attitudes and styles a street smart deeply talented woman who wryly contemplates the charades that the self and the world assume and how hard it is to stay in focus the morning after It gets very very hot in Seaton s kitchen and in her poems As this inventive and imaginative poet states Furious Cooking is a stew of accidents and incidents roiling across universes Seaton creates curious and energetic juxtapositions she revisits violence and assesses its damages The poet woman in the thick of this caldron instigates polarities and assumes the roles of inquisitor and heretic perpetrator and child painter and artifact scientist and specimen She careens circularly through the hypocrisies and atrocities of church and partner established sanctioned realities the seeming senseless death of loved ones in this life and long ago Swamp Candles Ralph Burns,1996 In his convincing and highly accomplished fifth book Ralph Burns draws on his deep practice and experience His tones forms and subjects are various and striking the work of a poet mature and courageous enough to range through the full spectrum of his emotions Sometimes Burns is haunted by the strength and fallibility of the Christian tradition and in many of his poems he explores the conflicts between individuals and the larger world the mystery and responsibility of choice consequence and inconsequence the terror of being taken Isolato Larissa Szporluk,2010-09-13 The short lyric poems in Larissa Szporluk s new collection Isolato search for meaning and beauty for poetry in an unpredictable and incomprehensible world Publisher description Backcountry Irene McKinney,2002 This collection of contemporary short stories essays and poems addresses the powerful effect the Mountain State has had on its native sons and daughters With contributions by such noted West Virginia writers as Jayne Anne Phillips Maggie Anderson Mary Lee Settle Davis Grubb Henry Louis Gates Jr Louise McNeill Richard Currey and Irene McKinney West Virginia s Poet Laureate who also edited this anthology the selections in Backcountry paint a picture of the Mountain State that is at once haunting hilarious and magical Lo Melissa Crowe,2023-05-24 Lo maps the deprivation and richness of a rural girlhood and offers an intimate portrait of the woman tender hungry hopeful who manages to emerge In a series of lyric odes and elegies Lo explores the notion that we can be partially constituted by lack poverty neglect isolation The child in the book s early sections is beloved and lonely cherished and abused lucky and imperiled and by leaning into this complexity the poems render a tentative and shimmering space sometimes occluded the space occupied by a girl coming to find herself and the world beautiful even as that world harms her

Hotel Malabar Brendan Galvin,1998 A narrative poem on the adventures of a philosophical Yankee banana hand in Central America Men get older and die my dear but jungle s always young and full of piss and vinegar Something Has to Happen Next Andrew Michael Roberts,2009-03 The poems in something has to happen next if given the chance might peer down inquisitively from a great height they speak of quietness namelessness the reachlessness of love the fortune of animals and their silence apocalypse abandonment beginnings and endings Working with brevity and compression Andrew Michael Roberts first imagines how small he can go with a poem and still maintain some sort of emotional or imagistic center Then released from this limitation the rest of his playful unexpected poems expand to fill a world with imagery emotion and sound What Roberts calls simply a book of small poems grew out of his obsessions with time and catastrophe and love and abandonment what is always possible almost attained but lost at the last minute When something ends or when everything ends something else must always happen next what will it be and who will be there to name and love and destroy it Lug Your Careless Body Out of the Careful Dusk Joshua Marie Wilkinson, 2006-05 Drawing from the paintings of Susan Rothenberg Gwyneth Scally and Eric Fischl as well as from the photography of Allison Maletz Joshua Marie Wilkinson's Lug Your Careless Body out of the Careful Dusk is a book length poem written in small fragments Comprised of seven sections the poem is formed as much by the poet's travels through Turkey the Baltics and Eastern Europe as it is by the movies of Rainer Werner Fassbinder Krzysztof Kieslowski and Bill Morrison The painters Francis Bacon and Lucian Freud are here alongside whispers of Emily Dickinson and Wallace Stevens Lug Your Careless Body out of the Careful Dusk is a book of cinematic images and fragments of small stories overheard and quickly abandoned of hidden letters and phone booths and of ghosts who return with questions Born and raised in Seattle's Haller Lake neighborhood Joshua Marie Wilkinson is the author of one other book of poetry Suspension of a Secret in Abandoned Rooms and the chapbook A Ghost as King of the Rabbits He holds an MFA from the University of Arizona and an MA in film studies from University College Dublin Presently he lives in Denver Colorado where he is pursuing his doctorate in English and creative writing and completing his first film What Flies Want Emily Pérez, 2022-05-11 In What Flies Want disaster looms in domesticity a family grapples with its members mental health a marriage falters and a child experiments with self harm With its backdrop of school lockdown drills MeToo and increasing political polarization the collection asks how these private and public tensions are interconnected The Paris Review, 1995 Poetry Harriet Monroe, 1993 Staring Back Kenny Fries, 1997 The disability experience has until very recently been marginalized stereotyped and ignored in literature Now through the vehicles of nonfiction poetry fiction and drama Staring Back is the first anthology to open the landscape of the disabled experience for exploration and discussion The presence of such well known authors as Lucy Grealy John Hockenberry and Marilyn Hacker in this anthology gives immediate lie to the notion that disability is a limitation to insight and productivity But just as importantly Staring Back challenges us to look anew at the disabilities of FDR and Matisse the lives of Helen Keller and Frida Kahlo the work of Stephen Hawking It urges us to redefine what is meant by cure to understand hidden disabilities and even to find humor in ways that defy our expectations If there is one theme that binds this diverse body of work aside from its subject matter it is the theme of human connection a connection with the past with each other with our bodies and with ourselves As Kenny Fries writes in his introduction Throughout history those who live with disabilities have been silenced by those who did not want to hear what we have to say We have also been silenced by our own fear the fear that if we told our stories people would say See it isn't worth it You would be better off dead Staring Back emphatically demonstrates the power of these writers stories to overcome that fear and to break that silence The Publishers Weekly, 1994 Index of American Periodical Verse, 1997 Massacre of the Innocents Bin Ramke, 1995 Massacre of the Innocents is the work of a secular poet who admires the basic texts the angry qualities of fairytales equally along with the humorous virtues of sacred scriptures Speaking with the voice of mature accomplishment Ramke s poems do not struggle for their words but release them from a near inexhaustible source As Ramke has said Poems are like children and have minds and manners of their own luckily beyond the control of parents and poets These poems talk back and they talk to each other By stripping away the distractions of received meaning from the words he uses Ramke makes the necessary connection between reader and poem that can freshen meaning make it new as is often claimed for poetry but seldom achieved so well as in his work
