Taking Note A Year At Home With Strangers:

Notes and Oueries .1851 Stranger in the House Julie Summers, 2009-07-06 It is as if I have been waiting for someone to ask me these questions for almost the whole of my life From 1945 more than four million British servicemen were demobbed and sent home after the most destructive war in history Damaged by fighting imprisonment or simply separation from their loved ones these men returned to a Britain that had changed in their absence In Stranger in the House Julie Summers tells the women s story interviewing over a hundred women who were on the receiving end of demobilisation the mothers wives sisters who had to deal with an injured emotionally damaged relative those who assumed their fianc s had died only to find them reappearing after they had married another women who had illegitimate children following a wartime affair as well as those whose steadfast optimism was rewarded with a delightful reunion Many of the tales are moving some are desperately sad others are full of humour but all provide a fascinating account of how war altered ordinary women s lives Debates in the Houses of Legislature South Australia. Parliament, 1860 The House of Commons John Howard Bertram Masterman, 1908 Lectures delivered in the Royal gallery of the House of lords on the Saturday afternoons of June 1908 under the auspics of the University of London extension board before a large number of work people drawn by the Workers educational association and now presented by that body in book form from the verbatim reports of the lectures Standing Orders of the House of Commons Great Britain. Stranger in Lagos Sally Kenneth Dadzie, 2019-09-24 Halim Diobi is set to marry Eben Nosakhare the perfect picture of a dream husband Their wedding promises to be the talk of town and all their plans seem to fall in place Eniola Adeoye has plans of her own as well centered on Eben Nosakhare and finding a new beginning in Lagos Things don t go quite as intended for all three as unexpected curves ahead get in the way of their goals and leave them facing new realities in Lagos They become strangers to each other even though they are so close Stranger In Lagos is not your typical love story neither does it follow the path of the usual Lagos story Sally Kenneth Dadzie tells an enthralling and gripping tale of four young people living their best lives and struggling with ghosts from the past in the city of vermin and lost souls To Myself A Stranger Patricia Dunlavy Valenti, 1999-03-01 When she was forty four years old Rose Hawthorne Lathrop left her comfortable home in New London Connecticut and soon thereafter took an apartment on Manhattan's Lower East Side She ran a newspaper ad inviting indigents dying of cancer to come live with her to be cared for until their death The journey that led this daughter of one of America's most prominent literary figures to that Lower East Side tenement is the subject of this fascinating and far reaching biography by Patricia Dunlavy Valenti Rose was born in 1851 the youngest child of Nathaniel and Sophia Hawthorne As an adult she reflected upon a childhood that made me seem to myself a stranger who had come too late Indeed throughout much of her life Rose found her own sense of identity subsumed by the demands and needs of those closest to her She was overshadowed not only by her famous father but also by her brother Julian who achieved a modest degree of literary fame in his own right and by her sister Una whose fragile health was a constant source of concern to her family In 1871 Rose married George Parsons Lathrop who would become a writer and an editor of her father's works Rose herself had begun to write fiction and poetry at an early age and after the death of their only child in 1881 she saw the publication of much of her work Valenti reads these stories and poems with a biographer s eye and finds them filled with clues pointing to the remarkable transformation that would allow their author to transcend Victorian constraints and claim the kind of life that would realize her singular gifts Particularly illuminating are the works Rose completed during the years in which she was making a break from her husband whom she left in 1896 After her final separation from her husband Rose who had converted to Roman Catholicism in 1891 devoted the remainder of her life to the work carried on to this day by the order of nuns she founded the Servants of Relief for Incurable Cancer The account of her ministry begun when cancer was thought contagious should establish Rose Hawthorne Lathrop as a visionary in her belief that everyone has a right to die with dignity and as a pioneer in her advocacy of compassionate methods of caring for those near death Valenti s well written and thoroughly researched biography will interest a wide audience from those who would enjoy a lively glimpse of the Hawthorne household to those concerned with the documenting of women's contributions to society Sherlock Holmes - Tales from the Stranger's Room: Volume 3 David Ruffle, Danielle Gastineau, Soham Bagchi, Robert Perret, Mark Mower, David Marcum, Margaret Walsh, Anna Lord, Arthur Hall, Geri Schear, Jennifer Met, SF Bennett, Craig Janacek, 2017-07-25 Welcome back once more to the Stranger's Room The fire is blazing so help yourself to a brandy pull up a chair to the fire and enjoy these tales from established and new Holmesian writers Encompassing as they do tradition humour and guirkiness there is something for everyone Enjoy Featuring David Ruffle Danielle Gastineau Soham Bagchi Robert Perret Mark Mower David Marcum Margaret Walsh Anna Lord Arthur Hall Geri Schear Jennifer Met S F Bennett Craig Janacek Royalties from all the authors are being donated to Stepping Stones School at Undershaw Stranger S.J.
