of Tom Savini the relationship between horror and humor and most notably the tradition of EC horror comics of the 1950s from which the film draws both its thematic preoccupations and its visual style Ultimately the book argues that not only is Creepshow a major work in the canons of Romero and King but also that it represents a significant example of the portmanteau horror film of the blending of horror and comedy and finally decades before the career of Zack Snyder Watchmen Man of Steel of attempting to recreate a comic book aesthetic on the big screen

Death Investigation in America Jeffrey M. Jentzen,2009-10-30 A death occurs at home in a hospital on a street why As Jeffrey Jentzen reveals we often never know Why is the American system of death investigation so inconsistent and inadequate What can the events of the assassination of President Kennedy killing of Bobby Kennedy and Chappaquiddick reveal about the state of death investigation If communities in early America had a coroner at all he was politically appointed and poorly trained As medicine became more sophisticated and the medical profession more confident physicians struggled to establish a professionalized physician led system of death investigation The conflict between them and the coroners as well as politicians and law enforcement agencies led to the patchwork of local laws and practices that persist to this day In this unique political and cultural history Jentzen draws on archives interviews and his own career as a medical examiner to look at the way that a long standing professional and political rivalry controls public medical knowledge and public health
