Take Wing Interesting Things That Happened On My Way To School:

A Funny Thing Happened on My Way to a Career Bill Saylor, 2013-12-18 Bill Saylor provides an interesting well written trip through the last half of the Twentieth Century His insights are those honed by years of an observer who was bound to report the facts His disappointments and successes are detailed with his humor close at hand His experience covering the nudist convention is shall we say reveling and worth the price of admission J Richard Gray Mayor City of Lancaster PA The pleasure of reading Mr Saylor's biography and historical narrative comes from his wealth of anecdotes Enriched by the details of a life lived with passion spontaneity and frequently on the edge readers will be transported by boyhood adventures during the Great Depression coming of age near the mid 20th Century career struggles and successes as well as personal triumphs and disappointments For readers familiar with life and personalities in Lancaster PA in the 1960s 1990s this is a must read Sally Lyall Chair Lancaster County Democratic Committee

A Very Private Public Citizen Nancy Peterson Hill, 2014-11-18 Grenville Clark was born to wealth and privilege in Manhattan where his maternal grandfather LeGrand Bouton Cannon was an industry titan retired Civil War colonel and personal friend of Abraham Lincoln Clark grew up on a first name basis with both Presidents Roosevelt and his close friends included Supreme Court justices He was well known and respected in the inner circles of business government and education In A Very Private Public Citizen The Life of Grenville Clark Nancy Peterson Hill gives life to the unsung account of this great and largely anonymous American hero and reveals how the scope of Clark's life and career reflected his selfless passion for progress equality and peace As a member of the Corporation Harvard's elite governing board Clark wrote a still relevant treatise on academic freedom He fought a successful public battle with his good friend President Franklin Roosevelt over FDR's attempt to pack the Supreme Court in 1937 He refused pay while serving as a private advisor for the Secretary of War of the United States during the Second World War and he worked closely with the NAACP to uphold civil rights for African Americans during the tumultuous 1950s and 60s Clark devoted his last decades to a quest for world peace through limited but enforceable world law rewriting the charter of the United Nations and traveling the globe to lobby the world's leaders An enthusiastic husband father and friend Clark was a lawyer civil rights activist traveler advisor and world citizen at large Memories from Clark's family and friends weave through the book as do Clark's own inimitable observations on his life and the world in which he lived A Very Private Public Citizen brings Clark out of the shadows offering readers an inspiring example of a true patriot and humanitarian more concerned with the well being of his country and his fellow man than with his own fame

Funny Things Happened on My Way to the Cemetery Hugh Robert MacDonald, 2014-11-14 Ever been chased by a jealous husband swinging an axe Or had your shoelaces and socks chewed by a cheetah while you couldn't move What about having a doctor pass out beside you while he was delivering your child If your answers are no then you are lucky If you want to find out how someone survived these wild and crazy adventures read this book The light hearted autobiography of Hugh

MacDonald recounts the laughable and unusual adventures and misadventures of a budding concert pianist a minister of one of Canada's largest churches a college professor a radio talk show host a Paris tour guide and a civil marriage commissioner MacDonald tells of being carried down a main street in Montreal completely naked walking a marathon with raw eggs squishing in his boots being forced to eat beef stew well flavoured with cat hair inadvertently buying 3 125 condoms in preparation for his wedding being marooned and coming close to death in a Northern Ontario blizzard and so much more MacDonald winds these yarns into an interesting account of his long and varied life This book can be read in one sitting or you can savour it as bedtime reading enjoying one or two funny stories each night Either way you can't go wrong with this humorous telling of MacDonald's life

Serving the University of Missouri James C. Olson,1993 Nurses who are also creative writers have a powerful empathetic outlet for the joys and griefs of their everyday experiences In Between the Heartbeats an international diverse community of nurses write honestly and compassionately about their work By unsentimentally translating out suffering into prose and poetry the registered nurses in this brave graceful anthology perform another enduring act of loving care

Lost but Making Excellent Time Jody Seymour,2009-04-01 In Lost but Making Excellent Time Jody Seymour reminds readers that the ways and pace of our fast track world lead to a place where we discover that we are traveling at breakneck speed but that our spirits are being left behind Seymour uses prose and poetry to reclaim the ancient cycle of the Christian year as a new way to slow down and discover who we really are The Christian year becomes a kind of compass to be used so that travelers through our rat race existence can become aware that we are really fashioned by a Master Hand not to be tourists but pilgrims The words of this book can become a kind of pilgrim's guide to keep readers from being lost while making excellent time

I Rode on the Wings of an Angel Maxwell Bennett,2008-08-18 I Rode on the Wings of an Angel a humorous look at the life of a person that was victimized by its Government sent to prison and how he survived You'll see how Angels appeared how they always seem to be at his side during every major event warding off what would otherwise had been disaster situation After being sentenced and leaving the Federal courtroom preparing to go to prison instead of being condemned by the angels the angels comforted him See how when in the prison system threats from fellow inmates threats from the correctional officers the angels often stepped in to intervene In I Rode on the Wings of an Angel I try to show the funny often humorous innocent side of it all

A Gift of Wings Richard Bach,2012-09-05 From the bestselling author of Jonathan Livingston Seagull comes an inspiring collection of short stories of being a pilot With perfect insight Richard Bach captures the true essence of flying and the magic of being in the air Philosophical and adventurous each story will grab you and make you want to soar Once again Richard Bach has written a masterpiece to help you touch that part of your home that is the sky A gift for pilots aviation aficionados and anyone that loves to fly this book captures the magic of life in all its limitless horizons
