Tales from the 2004-05 Fighting Illini Brett Dawson,2005-10 The word team is often overused in sports writing It s used casually to refer to a collection of players that represent any old franchise or college It s used passionately to describe a rooting interest that s our team And occasionally it s used to discuss what has come to be a cliché the idea of a group of individuals coming together for the common good sacrificing all personal gain for the greater goal of winning a championship Serious scribes don t toss around that meaning of the word team lightly or very often And with good reason In sports there s rarely a cause to use it But there is no wiser usage of the word team a unified core of players all working toward the same goal than when applying it to the 2004 05 Fighting Illini squad that we ve all come to cherish They were a team like no other Tales from the 2004 05 Fighting Illini captures the team step by step on its March to the Arch News Gazette reporter Brett Dawson shadowed Bruce Weber s boys the entire season and shares his insights into what made this team so special The entire season was a rollercoaster ride of emotion from the thrilling peaks victories over Wake Forest Wisconsin Michigan State and Arizona and unfortunate lows the loss to Ohio State and the death of coach Weber s mother Dawson adds a new perspective to those moments plus goes behind the scenes to discover what made this team tick He examines their funny bone as well as their fierce will to win It s all here from Midnight Madness to the first Dee for Threeeeeee to the hoisting of two Big Ten trophies and finally a date with North Carolina in the NCAA finals Dee Deron Luther Roger and James led by the nationalcoach of the year have a story to tell Until today only half of it has been told
