Talkin And Testifyin:

Talkin and Testifyin Geneva Smitherman, 1986 In this book Smitherman makes a substantial contribution to an understanding of Black English by setting it in the larger context of Black culture and life style In her book Geneva Smitherman makes a substantial contribution to an understanding of Black English by setting it in the larger context of Black culture and life style In addition to defining Black English by its distinctive structure and special lexicon Smitherman argues that the Black dialect is set apart from traditional English by a rhetorical style which reflects its African origins Smitherman also tackles the issue of Black and White attitudes toward Black English particularly as they affect educational policy Documenting her insights with quotes from notable Black historical literary and popular figures Smitherman makes clear that Black English is as legitimate a form of speech as British American or Australian English Talkin and Testifyin Geneva Smitherman, 1985

Reframing the Practice of Philosophy George Yancy, 2012-01-01 This daring and bold book is the first to create a textual space where African American and Latin American philosophers voice the complex range of their philosophical and meta philosophical concerns approaches and visions The voices within this book protest and theorize from their own standpoints delineating the specific existential philosophical and professional problems they face as minority philosophical voices

African American English Lisa J. Green, 2002-08-08 This authoritative introduction to African American English AAE is the first textbook to look at the grammar as a whole Clearly organised it describes patterns in the sentence structure sound system word formation and word use in AAE The textbook examines topics such as education speech events in the secular and religious world and the use of language in literature and the media to create black images It includes exercises to accompany each chapter and will be essential reading for students in linguistics education anthropology African American studies and literature

Talking College Anne H. Charity Hudley, Christine Mallinson, Mary Bucholtz, 2022 Talking College shows that language is fundamental to Black and African American culture and that linguistic justice is crucial to advancing racial justice both on college campuses and throughout society Writing from a linguistics informed Black centered educational framework the authors draw extensively on Black college students lived experiences to present key ideas about African American English and Black language practices The text presents a model of how Black students navigate the linguistic expectations of college Grounded in real world examples of Black undergraduates attending colleges and universities across the United States the model illustrates the linguistic and cultural balancing acts that arise as Black students work to develop their full linguistic selves Talking College provides Black students with the knowledge they need to make sense of anti Black linguistic racism and to make decisions about their linguistic experiences in college It also offers key insights to help college faculty and staff create the liberating and linguistically just educational community that Black students deserve Book Features Weaves together information and approaches drawn from the authors extensive experience working with Black and other students of color in higher education Provides an up to date discussion of Black language practices and their role in Black students college experiences Discusses the racial politics of language including anti Black linguistic racism and the struggle for linguistic justice as part of racial justice Offers a detailed model of Black college students diverse linguistic and racial identities Outlines concrete steps toward racial and linguistic justice that students and faculty can take today Accessible to students and faculty without a background in linguistics while also engaging and informative for linguistics scholars

Rhetorics for Community Action Phyllis Mentzell Ryder, 2012-07-10

Rhetorics for Community Action Public Writing and Writing Publics by Phyllis Mentzell Ryder offers theory and pedagogy to introduce public writing as a complex political and creative action To write public texts we have to invent the public we wish to address Such invention is a complex task with many components to consider exigency that brings people together a sense of agency and capacity a sense of how the world is and what it can become All these components constantly compete against texts that put forward other public ideals opposing ideas about who really has power and who really can create change Teachers of public writing must adopt a generous response to those who venture into this arena Some scholars believe that to prepare students for public life university classes should partner with grassroots community organizations rather than nonprofits that serve food or tutor students They worry that a service related focus will create more passive citizens who do not rally and resist or grab the attention of government leaders or corporations With carefully contextualized study of an after school arts program an area soup kitchen and parks organizations among others Ryder shows that many so called service organizations are not passive places at all and she argues that the main challenge of public work is precisely that it has to take place among all of these compelling definitions of democracy Ryder proposes teaching public writing by partnering with multiple community nonprofits She develops a framework to help students analyze how their community partners inspire people to action and offers a course design that support them as they convey those public ideals in community texts But composing public texts is only part of the challenge Traditional newspapers and magazines through their business models and writing styles reinforce a dominant role for citizens as thinking and reading but not necessarily acting This civic role is also professed

True to the Language Game Keith Gilyard, 2013-08-15 This book presents Keith Gilyard s most seminal work in one volume with new and previously published essays on linguistic diversity cultural identity critical literacy writing instruction literary texts and popular culture Essential reading for students and scholars in rhetorical studies composition studies applied linguistics and education

Wallace's Dialects Mary Shapiro, 2020-05-14 Mary Shapiro explores the use of regional and ethnic dialects in the works of David Foster Wallace not just as a device used to add realism to dialogue but as a vehicle for important social commentary about the role language plays in our daily lives how we express personal identity and how we navigate social relationships Wallace s Dialects straddles the fields of linguistic criticism and folk linguistics considering which linguistic variables of Jewish American English African American English Midwestern Southern and Boston regional dialects were salient enough for Wallace to represent and how he showed the intersectionality of these with gender and social class Wallace's own use of language is examined with respect to how it encodes his identity as a white male economically privileged Midwesterner while also foregrounding characteristic and distinctive idiolect features that allowed him to connect to readers across implied social boundaries

Breaking Broken English Michelle Hartman, 2019-03-26 Black Arab political and cultural solidarity has had a long and rich history in the United States That alliance is once again exerting a powerful influence on American society as Black American and Arab American activists and cultural workers are joining forces in formations like the Movement for Black Lives and Black for Palestine to address social justice issues In Breaking Broken English Hartman explores the historical and current manifestations of this relationship through language and literature with a specific focus on Arab American literary works that use the English language creatively to put into practice many of the theories and ideas advanced by Black American thinkers Breaking Broken English shows how language is the location where literary and poetic beauty meet the political in creative work Hartman draws out thematic connections between Arabs Arab Americans and Black Americans around politics and culture and also highlights the many artistic ways these links are built She shows how political and cultural ideas of solidarity are written in creative texts and emphasizes their potential to mobilize social justice activists in the United States and abroad in the ongoing struggle for the liberation of Palestine

Remixing Composition Jason Palmeri, 2012-03-19 In Remixing Composition Jason Palmeri challenges the notion that composition has historically been focused on words alone Looking closely at how past compositionists responded to new media Palmeri shows a substantial history of teachers engaging analog technologies in the teaching of composition long before the rise of personal computers or the graphical web

Black or Right Louis M. Maraj, 2020-12-01 Black or Right: Anti-Racist Campus Rhetorics explores notions of Blackness in white institutional particularly educational spaces In it Louis M Maraj theorizes how Black identity operates with against ideas of difference in the age of BlackLivesMatter Centering Blackness in frameworks for antiracist agency through interdisciplinary Black feminist lenses Black or Right asks how those racially signifying diversity in US higher education and beyond make meaning in the everyday Offering four Black rhetorics as antiracist means for rhetorical reclamation autoethnography hashtagging inter-con-textual reading and reconceptualized disruption the book uses Black feminist relationality via an African indigenous approach Maraj examines fluid quotidian ways Black folk engage anti-racism at historically white institutions in the United States in response to violent campus spaces educational structures protest movements and policy practice Black or Right's experimental creative style strives to undiscipline knowledge from academic confinement Exercising different vantage points in each chapter autoethnographer digital media scholar pedagogue cultural rhetorician and critical discourse analyst Maraj challenges readers to ecologically understand shifting multiple meanings of Blackness in knowledge making Black or Right's expressive form organization narratives and poetics intimately interweave with its argument that Black folk must continuously invent otherwise in reiterative escape from oppressive white spaces In centering

Black experiences Black theory and diasporic Blackness Black or Right mobilizes generative approaches to destabilizing institutional whiteness as opposed to reparative attempts to fix racism which often paradoxically center whiteness It will be of interest to both academic and general readers and significant for specialists in cultural rhetorics Black studies and critical theory

Black Communications and Learning to Read Terry Meier, 2020-08-19 This book is about effective literacy instruction for students in grades K 4 who use the language variety that many linguists call African American English but which as explained in the Introduction the author calls Black Communications BC Throughout considerable attention is given to discussing the integral and complex interconnections among African American language culture and history drawing significantly on examples from African American historical and literary sources Although it is theoretical in its description of the BC system and its discussion of research on language socialization in African American communities the major focus of this book is pedagogy Many concrete examples of successful classroom practices are included so that teachers can readily visualize and use the strategies and principles presented Part I What is Black Communications presents an overview of the BC system providing a basic introduction to the major components of the language phonology grammar lexicon and pragmatics and illustrating how these components work in synchrony to create a coherent whole Part II Language Socialization in the African American Discourse Community examines existing research on African American children s language socialization Part III Using African American Children s Literature draws connections between strategy instruction and the linguistic and rhetorical abilities discussed in Part II Each chapter ends with suggestions for using African American literature to help children develop their speaking and writing abilities Part IV Children Using Language moves from a focus on teaching comprehension strategies to helping BC speakers learn to decode text This volume is directed to researchers faculty and graduate students in the fields of language and literacy education and linguistics and is well suited as a text for graduate level courses in these areas

Revolutionary Poetics Sarah RudeWalker, 2023-04-15 In Revolutionary Poetics Sarah RudeWalker details the specific ways that the Black Arts Movement BAM achieved its revolutionary goals through rhetorical poetics in what forms to what audiences and to what effect BAM has had far reaching influence particularly in developments in positive conceptions of Blackness in the valorization of Black language practices and its subsequent effects on educational policy in establishing a legacy of populist dissemination of African American vernacular culture and in setting the groundwork for important considerations of the aesthetic intersections of race with gender and sexuality These legacies stand as the movement s primary and largely unacknowledged successes and they provide significant lessons for navigating our current political moment RudeWalker presents rhetorical readings of the work of BAM poets including among others Amiri Baraka Gwendolyn Brooks Margaret Burroughs Sarah Webster Fabio Nikki Giovanni Etheridge Knight Audre Lorde Haki Madhubuti Carolyn Rodgers Sonia Sanchez and the Last Poets in order to demonstrate the various strands of rhetorical influence that contributed to the Black Arts project and the significant legacies these writers left behind Her investigation of the rhetorical impact of Black Arts poetry allows her to deal realistically with the movement's problematic aspects while still devoting thoughtful scholarly attention to the successful legacy of BAM writers and the ways their work can continue to shape contemporary rhetorical activism

Bad Boys Ann Arnett Ferguson, 2020-07-21 Black males are disproportionately in trouble and suspended from the nation's school systems This is as true now as it was when Ann Arnett Ferguson's now classic Bad Boys was first published Bad Boys offers a richly textured account of daily interactions between teachers and students in order to demonstrate how a group of eleven and twelve year old males construct a sense of self under adverse circumstances This new edition includes a foreword by Pedro A Noguera and an afterword and bibliographic essay by the author all of which reflect on the continuing relevance of this work nearly two decades after its initial publication

American Rap Scenes Lavar Pope, 2025-05-01 American Rap Scenes examines the history and legacy of rap music in 25 American cities through factors of geography migration movements music and technology Providing area centered analysis of a culture many see as monolithic Lavar Pope highlights the unique histories of rap music and Hip Hop culture how and why these scenes developed in 25 mid size and major cities across the country More so than other genres of music rap offers historical record of a multigenerational Black music that is region and locale specific and opens a window into the Black experience in America Highlighting global stars and key local artists alike American Rap Scenes features artists contextualized within their city of origin from Andre 3000 Atlanta Kendrick Lamar Compton and Common Chicago to Too Short Oakland Freddie Gibbs Gary and Akon Jersey City The 25 scenes covered in this book are South Bronx Manhattan and Harlem Queens Brooklyn Staten Island Hempstead Philadelphia Newark and Jersey City Boston Los Angeles and Compton Oakland and the San Francisco Bay Area Seattle and Portland Chicago and Gary Indiana St Louis Minneapolis Detroit Houston New Orleans Memphis Atlanta Miami Hampton Virginia Washington D C and Baltimore Honolulu San Juan Puerto Rico and Saint Thomas USVI These scenes have been chosen for the documented and longstanding histories of their local music making communities as well as similarities in the evolution of the local environment and geography the proximity and timeline of Black Latinx and Caribbean migrations and the impact of the Civil Rights Racial Justice and Women's Movements

The Henry Louis Gates, Jr. Reader Henry Louis Gates Jr, 2012-05-01 Educator writer critic intellectual film maker Henry Louis Gates Jr has been widely praised as being one of America's most prominent and prolific scholars In what will be an essential volume The Henry Louis Gates Jr Reader collects three decades of writings from his many fields of interest and expertise From his earliest work of literary historical excavation in 1982 through his current writings on the history and science of African American genealogy the essays collected here follow his path as historian theorist canon builder and cultural critic revealing a thinker of uncommon breadth whose work is uniformly guided by the drive to uncover and restore a history that has for too long been buried and denied An invaluable reference The Henry Louis Gates Jr Reader will be a singular reflection of one of our most gifted minds      Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God Cheryl A. Wall, 2000 The rediscovery of Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God first published in 1937 but subsequently out of print for decades marks one of the most dramatic chapters in African American literature and Women's Studies Its popularity owes much to the lyricism of the prose the pitch perfect rendition of black vernacular English and the memorable characters most notably Janie Crawford Collecting the most widely cited and influential essays published on Hurston's classic novel over the last quarter century this Casebook presents contesting viewpoints by Hazel Carby Henry Louis Gates Jr Barbara Johnson Carla Kaplan Daphne Lamothe Mary Helen Washington and Sherley Anne Williams The volume also includes a statement Hurston submitted to a reference book on twentieth century authors in 1942 As it records the major debates the novel has sparked on issues of language and identity feminism and racial politics A Casebook affirms the classic status of the novel and charts new directions for future critics      Legacies of Christian Language and Literacies in American Education Mary M. Juzwik, Jennifer C. Stone, Kevin J. Burke, Denise Dávila, 2019-10-23 Because spiritual life and religious participation are widespread human and cultural phenomena these experiences unsurprisingly find their way into English language arts curriculum learning teaching and teacher education work Yet many public school literacy teachers and secondary teacher educators feel unsure how to engage religious and spiritual topics and responses in their classrooms This volume responds to this challenge with an in depth exploration of diverse experiences and perspectives on Christianity within American education Authors not only examine how Christianity the historically dominant religion in American society shapes language and literacies in schooling and other educational spaces but they also imagine how these relations might be reconfigured From curricula to classroom practice from narratives of teacher education to youth coming to faith chapters vivify how spiritual lives beliefs practices communities and religious traditions interact with linguistic and literate practices and pedagogies In relating legacies of Christian language and literacies to urgent issues including White supremacy sexism and homophobia and the politics of exclusion the volume enacts and invites inclusive relational configurations within and across the myriad American Christian sub cultures coming to bear on English language arts curriculum teaching and learning This courageous collection contributes to an emerging scholarly literature at the intersection of language and literacy teaching and learning religious literacy curriculum studies teacher education and youth studies It will speak to teacher educators scholars secondary school teachers and graduate and postgraduate students among others
