The Highlights Frank Keating, 2014-05-13 Frank Keating's work adorned the Guardian for four decades from 1973 until shortly before his death in early 2013. In his heyday, Keating's fizzing wordplay and sheer joie de vivre thrilled readers. They saw him not just as a journalist but as a fan who shared their own delight in sport for its own sake and in the stars who made it watchable. He also had a special rapport with many of the greats such as Barry John and Ian Botham. From the 1970s to the 1990s he attended nearly all the great sporting events. Later he became a nostalgist with a matchless gift for bringing the past to life. But his happy rosy sunlit view of sport was always subject to magnificent outbreaks of literary bad temper especially when confronted by committee room idiots and officious gatemens. The Highlights includes much of his best writing in the Guardian on a huge range of sport plus extracts from his work elsewhere including The Observer, The Oldie and The Spectator and from his books including the autobiography Half Time Whistle and his classic account of the 1980-81 England tour of the Caribbean Another Bloody Day in Paradise. Edited by his friend and colleague Matthew Engel, The Highlights is a lasting record of the work of a very special writer.

The Manager Barney Ronay, 2010-08-05 THE ABSURD ASCENT OF THE MOST IMPORTANT MAN IN FOOTBALL THE MANAGER Rich in detail and colour a great read Observer This book traces the remarkable journey of the football gaffer from his humble beginnings as club secretary to his modern incarnation the man we all recognise venting his spleen at the ref or having a huff at a post match press conference THE MANAGER takes the reader beyond the well worn anecdotes deeper into the stories of football's top men and the world they inhabit. Barney Ronay asks the important questions about these compelling characters: Where did they come from? Why are they so miserable? Where do they get their suits? Hilarious and absorbing this book contains enough revelations to provide the most avid fan with a library of fresh tales. You'll never look at the man on the touchline in the same way again.

Unsilencing Lilia Topouzova, 2025-07-15 Unsilencing provides the first comprehensive study of Bulgaria's forced labor camps a network of repression that operated throughout the communist era from 1945 to 1989. Lilia Topouzova uncovers the hidden histories of these camps often referred to as Bulgaria's Little Siberia where thousands were interned without trial subjected to inhumane conditions and silenced for decades. Drawing on two decades of archival research oral history interviews with survivors and perpetrators and an array of primary sources Topouzova reconstructs the harrowing reality of life behind barbed wire. She explores how the communist regime systematically used these camps to suppress dissent target minority groups and instill fear across the population. Unsilencing presents detailed accounts of key sites like the Belene and Lovech camps revealing the brutalities endured by prisoners and the lasting scars these places left on Bulgarian society. More than a historical recounting Unsilencing examines the post 1989 period and how Bulgaria has grappled or often failed to grapple with its recent past Topouzova assesses the country's efforts at transitional justice including the short lived truth commission and trials that sought to hold perpetrators accountable She argues that the legacy of the gulag has been largely forgotten and deliberately obscured leaving a vacuum in Bulgaria's collective memory that continues to affect its society and politics today
