Step to Writing Well: a Concise Guide to Composition. 6th Edited Jean Wyrick, Steps to Writing Well Jean Wyrick, 1984 Sourcebook on Rhetoric ,

Sourcebook on Rhetoric James Jasinski, 2001-07-19 This book is designed to introduce readers to the language of contemporary rhetorical studies The book format is an alphabetized glossary with appropriate cross listings of key terms and concepts in contemporary rhetorical studies An introductory chapter outlines the definitional ambiguities of the central concept of rhetoric itself The primary emphasis is on the contemporary tradition of rhetorical studies as it has emerged in the discipline of speech communication Each entry in the glossary ranges in length from a few paragraphs to a short essay of a few pages Where appropriate examples are provided to further illustrate the term or concept Each entry will be accompanied by a list of references and additional readings to direct the reader to other materials of possible interest

Research in Basic Writing Martin Jacobi, Michael G. Moran, 1990-02-15 This reference handbook surveys research on the central issue associated with the teaching of unprepared writers Though basic writing has only been recognized as a distinct area of teaching and research since 1975 the existing bibliographic texts already seem limited due to their age or lack of annotation This volume provides current and extensive bibliographic essays and will help to define this new field of study for teachers and researchers Following an introduction that summarizes the origins and significant texts in basic writing the book is divided into three sections Social Science Perspectives Linguistic Perspectives and Pedagogical Perspectives The first section which contains three essays views the field through the lens of social psychological and political issues The second section also containing three essays examines contributions made from studies of grammar dialects and second language acquisition The third section in its four essays focuses on the design development administration and evaluation of basic writing courses the use of computers in basic writing classrooms the role of the writing lab and the preparation of basic writing teachers An appendix that reviews current textbooks for basic writing courses is also included as well as an index This book will be a valuable resource for teachers of basic writing in education courses and workshops that train teachers and tutors and in fields such as linguistics technical writing and Teaching English as a Second Language It will also be an important addition
