Collett, Steven Hitlin, 2024-07-02 The new tenth edition of Social Psychology is a fully revised and sweeping look into the social forces that make us who we are. Real life examples and the results from a wide range of empirical research contribute to the book's coverage of such subjects as the self, attitudes, socialization, communication, interpersonal attraction and relationships, and personality and social structure. It thoroughly addresses intrapsychic processes and comprehensively explores social interactions and group processes as well as larger scale phenomena such as intergroup conflict and the effects of COVID 19. Providing rare balanced coverage of both psychological and sociological perspectives as well as historical and contemporary works, the tenth edition of this classic textbook is an ideal companion for introductory social psychology courses.

Social Psychology John DeLamater, Jessica Collett, 2018-08-15 This fully revised and updated edition of Social Psychology is an engaging exploration of the question what makes us who we are presented in a new streamlined fashion. Grounded in the latest research, Social Psychology explains the methods by which social psychologists investigate human behavior in a social context and the theoretical perspectives that ground the discipline. Each chapter is designed to be a self-contained unit for ease of use in any classroom. This edition features new boxes providing research updates and test yourself opportunities, a focus on critical thinking skills, and an increased emphasis on diverse populations and their experiences.

Intergroup Relations Michael A. Hogg, Dominic Abrams, 2001 This anthology examines Love's Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials. Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context, dating and sources, character analysis, comic elements, and verbal conceits. Evidence of authorship, performance analysis, and feminist interpretations. Alongside theater reviews, production photographs, and critical commentary, the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play. An index by name, literary work, and concept rounds out this valuable resource.

Gender Stereotyping Rebecca Cook, Simone Cusack, 2011-07-19 Drawing on domestic and international law as well as on judgments given by courts and human rights treaty bodies, Gender Stereotyping offers perspectives on ways gender stereotypes might be eliminated through the transnational legal process in order to ensure women's equality and the full exercise of their human rights. A leading international framework for debates on the subject of stereotypes, the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women was adopted in 1979 by the UN General Assembly and defines what constitutes discrimination against women. It also establishes an agenda to eliminate discrimination in all its forms in order to ensure substantive equality for women. Applying the Convention as the primary framework for analysis, this book provides essential strategies for eradicating gender stereotyping. Its proposed methodology requires naming operative gender stereotypes, identifying how they violate the human rights of women, and articulating states' obligations to eliminate and remedy these violations. According to Rebecca J. Cook and Simone Cusack, in order to abolish all forms of discrimination against women, priority needs to be given to the elimination of gender stereotypes. While stereotypes affect both men and women they can have particularly egregious effects on women often devaluing them and assigning them to subservient roles in society As the legal perspectives offered in Gender Stereotyping demonstrate treating women according to restrictive generalizations instead of their individual needs abilities and circumstances denies women their human rights and fundamental freedoms

Framing China Ariane Knüsel, 2016-04-15 Framing China sheds new light on Western relations with and perceptions of China in the first half of the twentieth century In this ground breaking book Ariane Knüsel examines how China was portrayed in political debates and the media in Britain the USA and Switzerland between 1900 and 1950 By focusing on the political economic cultural and social context that led to the construction of the particular images of China in each country the author demonstrates that national interests anxieties and issues influenced the way China was framed and resulted in different portrayals of China in each country The author's meticulous analysis of a vast amount of newspaper and magazine articles commentaries editorials cartoons and newsreels that have previously not been studied before also focuses on the transnational circulation of images of China While previous publications have dealt with the occurrence of the Yellow Peril and Red Menace in particular countries Framing China reveals that these images were interpreted differently in every nation because they both reflected and contributed to the discursive construction of nationhood in each country and were influenced by domestic issues cultural values pre-existing stereotypes pressure groups and geopolitical aspirations

Social Psychology Graham M Vaughan, Michael A Hogg, 2013-10-16 The 7th edition of this best selling social psychology text by Graham Vaughan and Michael Hogg Social Psychology retains the structure and approach of the previous edition but has been revised to reflect the changes in the field with the material thoroughly updated throughout Social Psychology 7e continues to capture the scope and detail of contemporary social psychology as an international scientific enterprise and at the same time deals with the subject in a way that is relevant to university teaching and social psychology research in Australia and New Zealand

Let My People Go! Phoebe Chifungu, 2023-08-29 Let My people go and serve Me regardless of sex is the ultimate appeal from God Unfortunately some cultural practices and wrong interpretations of the Bible have excluded some especially women from attaining key leadership roles Culturally women are considered second class and men's property source of evil and weaker vessels A wrong interpretation of the scriptures has sidelined women from obtaining decision making positions This is the result of what may be called a One Dimensional Approach and a recommendation is made to re-read the biblical texts as well as Chewa culture and the history of the synod with a Multi Dimensional Approach in which the literary theological rhetorical and historical cultural aspects are all considered because this approach liberates the oppressed and the marginalized
