The Birth Of Australia The Nations Historic Heritage:

Fuss That Never Ended Deborah Gare, Geoffrey Bolton, Stuart Macintyre, Tom Stannage, 2013-04-18 It is time to reassess the work of Geoffrey Blainey and consider his role in Australian history politics and public life Geoffrey Blainey has steered Australian history into the nation's conversation No one would dispute that he is a courageous public intellectual a writer of rare grace and a master storyteller And he has indeed provoked a rare fuss both public and professional with some of his comments on Asian immigration and Aboriginal land rights Blainey has challenged the academic history profession not only with his ideas but also by his practice A brilliant student he looked set for Oxford but chose instead the austere west coast of Tasmania for his postgraduate research For the next decade he earned a living with his pen And instead of political history in the traditional academic mould he wrote corporate histories that dispensed with footnotes Always probing and speculative Blainey has dislodged many of the keystones in our understandings of Australia's past He was one of the first to write about the expansive social history of this land before 1788 he questioned whether Botany Bay was founded primarily as a convict colony he argued that the Eureka uprising had economic rather than political causes and he identified sport as a neglected key to the Australian character His controversial views earned such newspaper headlines as Brave Man Set Upon by Thugs for Telling Truth In The Fuss That Never Ended a lively and distinguished assembly of fellow historians of various ages interests and political stances take a fresh look at Blainey's remarkable and sometimes controversial career THE BIRTH OF A NATION ROBIN. SMITH., 1987 Australian Books in Print, 1985 Managing Protected Areas Michael Lockwood, Graeme Worboys, Ashish Kothari, 2012-05-04 This handbook produced by world renowned experts from the World Conservation Union IUCN spans the full terrain of protected area management and is the international benchmark for the field The book employs dozens of detailed international cases studies hundreds of concise topical snapshots maps tables illustrations and a colour plate section as well as evaluation tools checklists and numerous appendices to cover all aspects of park management from biodiversity to natural heritage to financial management The book establishes a conceptual underpinning for protected area management presents guiding principles for the 21st century reflects recent work on international best practice and provides an assessment of skills required by professionals As the most authoritative guide ever compiled to the principles and practice of protected area management this volume is essential for all professionals and students in all countries and contexts History, heritage, and colonialism Kynan Gentry, 2015-04-01 History heritage and colonialism explores the politics of history making and interest in preserving the material remnants of the past in late nineteenth and early twentieth century colonial society looking at both indigenous pasts and those of European origin Focusing on New Zealand but also covering the Australian and Canadian experiences it explores how different groups and political interests have sought to harness historical narrative in support of competing visions of identity and memory Considering this within the frames of the local and national as well as of empire the book offers a valuable critique of the study of colonial identity making and cultures of colonisation This book offers important insights for societies negotiating the legacy of a colonial past in a global present and will be of particular value to all those concerned with museum heritage and tourism studies as well as imperial history Australian Books ,1989 National Approaches to the Governance of Historical Heritage Over Time Stefan Fisch,2008 The five elements governmental authorities public discourse corporate and market interests citizens associations and international agencies may help in figuring out the complex and challenging purpose of the research work presented in this volume which is nothing less than the history of the governance of cultural and natural heritage in eleven countries from its outset to the present Speaking about governance is challenging The term has been vastly used and misused But today when the feverish popularity of the concept is probably in decline we rest with one solid conviction at least that social economic cultural and institutional processes are governed not only through government be it national or local with its legislative administrative and jurisdictional mechanisms but through a larger array of different actors and factors These include schools and universities citizens associations public opinion economic corporations non governmental organizations learned societies unions media international agencies clubs consultants etc In fact the reader is going to meet quite a few of these actors in this publication they are the unavoidable characters involved in the story the authors have set out to tell Index to Historic Preservation Periodicals ,1992 Patna, a Monumental History ,2008 Australian National Bibliography ,1995 Australia's Historic Heritage Robin Vaughan Francis Smith,Geoffrey Blainey,1981 History of the City of Spokane and Spokane Country, Washington Nelson Wayne Durham,1912 Year Book, Australia ,2009 Current History ,1921 Urban Nation Robert Freestone,2010 Provides the first national account of the historical impact of urban planning and design on the Australian landscape It defines and documents hundreds of places parks public spaces redeveloped precincts neighbourhoods suburbs up to whole towns that contribute to the character of urban and suburban Australia The Historians' History of the World Henry Smith Williams,1926 Against the Grain ,2006 The Nation and Athenæum ,1916 Journal of the British Archaeological Association British Archaeological Association,1898 The Historians' History of the World: These eventful years (part II) Henry Smith Williams,1926
