Steel Rails and Iron Men Barrie Sanford,1990      Carving the Western Path Robert Gourlay Harvey,1998 A century of dealmaking and government misdeeds forms the backdrop of this entertaining account of sternwheelers iron horses and mountain roads Battling factions of rail builders crossed many a line in the sand as they carved up both the land and the spoils of industry Did both federal and provincial politicians wittingly sabotage road construction programs to the benefit of the rail barons Were Cornelius Van Horne Major A B Rogers and Andrew McCulloch fully deserving of the accolades bestowed on them Was railway man J J Hill a genius or an opportunist R G Harvey has applied a keen mind and deft pen to uncover skulduggery in politics and critical routing errors by the early surveyors and engineers who carved their western paths In turn he has exposed new scars and wrinkles to add to historic portraits otherwise untainted      The Frontier World of Edgar Dewdney Brian Titley,2011-11-01 The Frontier World of Edgar Dewdney is a biographical study of a man who played a key role in the cataclysmic events which marked the political social and economic transformation of western Canada in the latter half of the nineteenth century An immigrant adventurer seeking his fortune in the colonies Dewdney was embroiled in the gold rushes of the 1860s the B C debates on Confederation the Riel Rebellion of 1885 political evolution in the North West Territories and the Klondike gold rush For several years Dewdney held important public offices such as Indian commissioner of the North West Territories and Minister of the Interior positions which allowed him to shape the course of events In many ways Dewdney s career is a metaphor for the maturing western frontier In following his exploits we follow the story of a region experiencing breathtaking change Brian Titley s purpose in this book is not to praise but to offer a critical appraisal of Dewdney as a type a representative of that class of adventurer who saw in the new land an unprecedented opportunity for self aggrandisement      Premodern Ecologies in the Modern Literary Imagination Vin Nardizzi,Tiffany Jo Werth,2019-04-18 Premodern Ecologies in the Modern Literary Imagination explores how the cognitive and physical landscapes in which scholars conduct research write and teach have shaped their understandings of medieval and Renaissance English literary oecologies The collection strives to practice what Ursula K Heise calls eco cosmopolitanism a method that imagines forms of local environmentalism as a defense against the interventions of open market global networks It also expands the idea s possibilities and identifies its limitations through critical studies of premodern texts artefacts and environmental history The essays connect real environments and their imaginative re creations and affirm the urgency of reorienting humanity s responsiveness to and responsibility for the historical links between human and non human existence The discussion of ways in which meditation on scholarly place and time can deepen ecocritical work offers an innovative and engaging approach that will appeal to both ecocritics generally and to medieval and early modern scholars      Canadian Book Review Annual ,1990      National Railway Bulletin ,2004      Canadian Books in Print ,2001      International Books in Print ,1995 Barbara Hopkinson,[Anonymus AC01401231],1995      Quill & Quire ,2003 abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada      Lost Railway Journeys from Around the World Anthony Lambert,2018-11-15 Lost Railway Journeys from Around the World revisits our forgotten railway heritage in a beautiful visual and textual exploration of historic lines that can no longer be travelled From the great cathedral like railways stations of the steam age to obscure lines built through spectacular landscapes to open up countries before the advent of motorised road transport this book is a celebration of our forgotten railway heritage the routes that have been lost to the sands of time Through stunning images this book evokes the romance and drama of these journeys taking the reader as close as they can possibly get to this lost world of dining cars sleeping cars station porters and international rail travel Organised by continent all of these routes have stories to tell and the lost journeys are captured in the old postcards and posters that accompany photographs drawn from collections and archives across the world      Waiting for the Light Brock Silversides,1995      BC Studies ,1990      Railfan & Railroad ,2005      A Bibliography of the History of Canadian Science and Technology Arnold E. Roos,Canadian Science and Technology Historical Association,1995      Rails Across Canada Tom Murray,2011-03-07 Few stories in the annals of railroading are as compelling as the construction evolution and astounding successes of the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National railways This sprawling volume combines two of Voyageur Press most successful Railroad Color History titles into one volume taking in the grand scope of both railroads Author Tom Murray presents fastidiously researched and concisely presented histories of each railroad along with more than
