Famous Discoveries and their discoverers Ian Taylor,2015-08-10 Did you know that

Christopher Columbus did not discover America or that after a Greek scholar found a way of measuring the Earth it was 1300 years before the rest of the world would believe him Or that nitrocellulose explosive was discovered when an inventor spilt some chemicals in the kitchen and blew up his wife s apron This book by a former career scientist deals with a fascinating range of discoveries over the centuries related to everything from geology and astronomy to atomic theory zoology and men who discovered continents It also gives revealing information about the colourful lives of some of the people whose findings changed the world and often their own lives for ever Books ,1991 Explorer Travellers and Adventure Tourism

Jennifer Laing,Warwick Frost,2014-08-04 This book examines the nexus between exploring and tourism and argues that exploration travel based heavily on explorer narratives and the promises of personal challenges and change is a major trend in future tourism In particular it analyses how romanticised myths of explorers form a foundation for how modern day tourists view travel and themselves Its scope ranges from the Golden Age of imperial explorers in the 19th and early 20th centuries through the growth of adventure and extreme tourism to possible future trends including space travel The volume should appeal to researchers and students across a variety of disciplines including tourism studies sociology geography and history Historical Dictionary of the Discovery and Exploration of the Pacific Islands Max Quanchi,John Robson,2005-10-18

The long voyages of discovery and exploration of the vast Pacific Ocean were an exercise in logistics navigation hard grit shipwreck and pure luck The motivations were scientific and geographic but at the same time nationalistic and materialistic This ambitious and informative reference includes the familiar names of Laperouse Bougainville Cook and Dampier as well as the intriguing stories of the Bounty Mutiny scurvy and the mysterious Northwest Passage Terra Australis Ignatia and Davis Land There are cross referenced entries on first contacts ships navigational instruments mapping and botany The scene is carefully set in the introduction the chronology spans several centuries and the extensive bibliography offers a guide to further reading New Spaces of Exploration Simon Naylor,James R. Ryan,2009-12-18 For many the dawn of the twentieth century ushered in an era where the world map had few if any blank spaces left to discover The age of exploration was supposedly dead New Spaces of Exploration challenges this assumption Focusing specifically on exploration in the twentieth century the authors demonstrate how new technologies and changing geopolitical configurations have ensured that exploration has remained a key feature of our rapidly globalizing world Ranging widely in their geographical focus from the Europe and Asia to Australia and from the polar regions to outer space they demonstrate the increasing diversity of modern exploration and reveal the continuing political military industrial and cultural motivations at play The result is a major contribution to our understanding of the significance of exploration in the twentieth century Contributors include E Baigent C Collis K Dodds F Driver M Godwin J Hill F Korsmo F MacDonald S Naylor J Ryan N Thomas and K Yusoff Books
