connections to the music hall and the caf concert Conway uncovers an important tradition of female performance in the golden era of French film usually viewed as a cinema preoccupied with masculinity She shows how in films such as P p le Moko Le Crime de Monsieur Lange and Zouzou the realist chanteuse addresses female despair at the hopelessness of love Conway also sheds light on the larger cultural implications of the shift from the intimate caf concert to the spectacular music hall before the talkies displaced both kinds of live performance altogether
