Strategies For Policy Making:

Strategy Formation and Policy Making in Government Jan-Erik Johanson, 2018-12-29 This book explores goal oriented action and describes the variety of options offered by strategic management in guiding public organisations The book is based on the idea that planning is only one option in orienting the functioning of public organisations and applies resource based and network studies to the public sector Whilst most of the existing literature on strategic management relates to local government this book examines developments within central governments and public agencies external to government hierarchies The book also addresses the strategic distinction between politics and administration often neglected by existing research and illustrates the connection between goal setting and actual performance of government organisations

Eco-Friendly and Agile Energy Strategies and Policy Development Danish, Mir Sayed Shah, Senjyu, Tomonobu, 2022-06-24 After the advent of the industrial revolution the world experienced a rapid change in technology and lifestyle which has led to a dramatic increase in energy demand Unfortunately many of the energy resources used in the past have negatively impacted the environment from greenhouse gases to the depletion of natural resources Society now faces the challenge of ensuring sustainable and clean energy production so that society may receive efficient energy without damaging the Earth's health In order to promote an environmentally healthy society strategic green policies must be developed Eco Friendly and Agile Energy Strategies and Policy Development establishes interdisciplinary coverage in sustainable energy development by strategic thinking and lifestyle changes by designing agile energy strategies and policies It offers research experiences and lessons learned that offer integrated conceptual and empirical contributions from different interrelated fields Covering topics such as energy security risks green economy and solar power plants this premier reference source is an indispensable resource for engineers government officials business leaders environmentalist organizations economists sociologists students and educators of higher education libraries researchers and academicians National security

research in policy making Alfaro d'Alençon, Paola, Boanada-Fuchs, Anthony, Greene, Margarita, Krishnamurthy, Sukanya, Michelutti, Enrico, Moretto, Luisa, Smit, Warren, 2023-01-27 Cities are considered engines of economic growth yet many cities in the global South struggle to increase productivity and provide significant economic opportunities for their growing populations. There is a need to deepen the knowledge on the links between public goods and services and equitable economic growth and how to support such processes in policy and strategic terms locally and globally. Against this background, this publication developed in the collaboration between Cities Alliance's Equitable Economic Growth Cities Campaign initiative and three international research networks: N AERUS, AURI, REDEUS, LAC. The research explores how the interface between urban research and policymaking can be redefined to ensure that public goods and services foster equitable growth. It reveals a richness of practices that provide a broad and lasting positive impact in terms of equitable economic growth in urban development. One of them shows that collaborative efforts between academia, policy makers, communities, and practitioners can play a crucial role in enriching these debates and processes. Städte gelten als Motoren des Wirtschaftswachstums. Im globalen Süden kämpfen viele Städte darum, die ansteigende Produktivität zu steigern, um der wachsenden Stadtbevölkerung bessere wirtschaftliche Möglichkeiten zu bieten. Deshalb ist es erforderlich, Wissen über die Verbindungen zwischen öffentlichen Gütern und Dienstleistungen und gerechtes Wirtschaftswachstum zu vertiefen, um Prozesse auf politischer und strategischer Hinsicht und lokaler und globaler Ebene zu unterstützen. Diese Publikation als Ergebnis der Zusammenarbeit zwischen Cities Alliance über das Equitable Economic Growth Cities Programm und der internationalen Forschungsnetzwerke N AERUS, AURI, REDEUS, LAC untersucht, wie die Schnittstelle zwischen Stadtforschung und Politikgestaltung neu definiert werden kann, so dass öffentliche Güter und Dienstleistungen gerechtes Wachstum fördern können. Die Forschung weist auf Praktiken, die einen breiten und dauerhaften positiven Einfluss auf ein gerechtes Wirtschaftswachstum in der Stadtentwicklung haben hin. Sie zeigt, wie gemeinsame Bemühungen zwischen Hochschulen, politische Akteure, Gemeinden und Praktikern eine entscheidende Rolle bei der Bereicherung dieser Debatten und den laufenden Prozessen spielen können.

Computer Aided Policy Making Ray Wyatt, 2005-08-12 This book will prove a unique source of information and instruction for anyone seeking to make better human oriented policy, whether urban planner, business strategist or manager in the field of education, health or welfare. Ingeniously, Wyatt has created two books: in one, the main text covers the types of software package available; mainstream software, peripheral software, innovative software, frontier software. The lessons generated from the software are outlined in lesson boxes. Readers can use the text alone to familiarize themselves with the computer packages or read the boxes only or they can do both.

Policy Making and the Digitalization of the Public Sector Marco Di Giulio, Giancarlo Vecchi, 2025-08-30 This book examines the evolving phenomenon of digital transformation in the public sector. First, it provides a theoretical understanding of public sector digitalization, considers policy dilemmas that may hinder it, and assesses strategies for successful digital transformation. It then provides an empirical analysis of public sector digitalization considered in the context of the EU digital strategy Drawing on national regional and local case studies the book then assesses digital transformation in Italy in order to examine policy strategies in real contexts It demonstrates that digitalization is not simply a process of replacing humans with machines but a complex and controversial process involving policy design and implementation The policy framework also provides a basis for evaluating the successes and failures of digital government projects which will be applicable in many other countries The book will appeal to all those interested in public policy public administration and public management as well as digitalization and technology studies

OECD Public Governance Reviews Building Capacity for Evidence-Informed Policy-Making Lessons from Country Experiences OECD,2020-09-08 This report analyses the skills and capacities governments need to strengthen evidence informed policy making EIPM and identifies a range of possible interventions that are available to foster greater uptake of evidence Increasing governments capacity for evidence informed is a critical part of good public governance However an effective connection between the supply and the demand for evidence in the policy making process remains elusive This report offers concrete tools and a set of good practices for how the public sector can support senior officials experts and advisors working at the political administrative interface This support entails investing in capability opportunity and motivation and through behavioral changes The report identifies a core skillset for EIPM at the individual level including the capacity for understanding obtaining assessing using engaging with stakeholders and applying evidence which was developed in collaboration with the European Commission Joint Research Centre It also identifies a set of capacities at the organisational level that can be put in place across the machinery of government throughout the role of interventions strategies and tools to strengthen these capacities The report concludes with a set of recommendations to assist governments in building their capacities
