Slow Death:

Slow Death: James Fielder, 2011-10-24 Never Trust a Chained Captive That was one of the rules David Parker Ray posted on the isolated property where he and his girlfriend Cynthia Hendy lived near New Mexico's Elephant Butte Lake. They called their windowless trailer The Toybox. Over the years they lured countless young women into its chamber of unspeakable pain and horror and filmed every moment. A Satanist Ray was the center of a web of sadism, sex slavery, and murder. Authorities suspect he murdered more than 60 women. In October 2011 a flood of tips led to a renewed search for the remains of more possible victims. This updated edition reveals all the details plus the inside story on the controversial movie based on these unforgettable events. An eye-opening journey into the world of criminal sexual sadism. Jim Yontz, Deputy District Attorney, Albuquerque, New Mexico. 16 pages of haunting photos. Darkly fascinating a shocker from beginning to end. Gregg Olsen, New York Times bestselling author.

Unhomed Pamela Robertson Wojcik, 2024-04-23 In this rich cultural history Pamela Robertson Wojcik examines America's ambivalent and shifting attitude toward homelessness. She considers film cycles from five distinct historical moments that show characters who are unhomed and placeless, mobile rather than fixed characters who fail to resist or opt out of the mandate for a home of one's own. From the tramp films of the silent era to the 2021 Oscar-winning Nomadland Wojcik reveals a tension in the American imaginary between viewing homelessness as deviant and threatening or emblematic of freedom and independence. Blending social history with insights drawn from a complex array of films both canonical and fringe, Wojcik effectively unhomes dominant narratives that cast aspirations for success and social mobility as the focus of American cinema, reminding us that genres of precarity have been central to American cinema and the American story all along.

Slow Death, 1970 Necrogeopolitics Caroline Alphin, François Debrix, 2019-10-08 Necrogeopolitics: On Death and Death Making in International Relations brings together a diverse array of critical IR scholars, political theorists, critical security studies researchers, and critical geographers to provide a series of interventions on the topic of death and death making in global politics. Contrary to most existing scholarship, this volume does not place the emphasis on traditional sources or large-scale configurations of power force leading to death in IR. Instead, it details, theorizes, and challenges more mundane, perhaps banal, and often ordinary modalities of violence perpetrated against human lives and bodies, and often contributing to horrific instances of death and destruction. Concepts such as slow death, soft killing, superfluous bodies, or extra-ordinary destruction, disappearance, are brought to the fore by prominent voices in these fields, alongside more junior creative thinkers, to rethink the politics of life and death in the global polity away from dominant IR or political theory paradigms about power force and violence. The volume features chapters that offer thought-provoking reconsiderations of key concepts, theories, and practices about death and death making, along with other chapters that seek to challenge some of these concepts, theories, or practices in settings that include the Palestinian territories, Brazilian cities, displaced population flows from the Middle East, sites of immigration policing in North America, and spaces of welfare politics.

in Scandinavian states      Horror on the Brain Austin Lim, 2025-04-08 A fascinating exploration of the science and psychology behind fear madness and the haunting stories that linger in our minds Scientists throughout centuries have mined the depths of humanity looking for and finding answers to life's most mysterious questions but perhaps the most memorable accounts of hidden dimensions have been left to us by science fiction writers like Philip K Dick and Octavia Butler When science discovers science fiction writers ask what's next Horror on the Brain reveals the real science and psychology behind science fiction's most iconic characters from Mary Shelley's Dr Frankenstein to the doctors of H P Lovecraft and even today's horror blockbusters like Get Out and The Last of Us In this fascinating exploration of fear and madness neuroscientist Dr Austin Lim recounts psychology's most bizarre and haunting real life cases alongside famous speculative fiction that stretched that science to the edge In 1924 Hans Berger invented the EEG a commonly used brain imaging device as a means to telepathically communicate with his sister eerily similar to the protagonist in H P Lovecraft's Beyond the Wall of Sleep while Nobel Prize winning research on marine animals in the 1960s reflects his tentacled creations Phineas Gage the 19th century man who experienced a dramatic personality shift following a traumatic brain injury shares similarities to Robert Louis Stevenson's Dr Jekyll Investigate the neurological causes of schizophrenia and how characters in Sheridan Le Fanu's story In a Glass Darkly manifest the diagnosis Neurological conditions from sleepwalking to the Cotard delusion which leads patients to believe they are dead even going to such extremes as burying themselves alive have provided the basis for horror stories since their discovery and likewise the wildly imaginative minds of writers have even prompted scientific research Horror on the Brain uses illuminating analogies to connect science fact and science fiction showing how spooky stories contain insights into the dark corners of the human mind and why we can't stop looking into the abyss      Labor and Aesthetics in European Contemporary Dance Annelies Van Assche, 2020-06-13 This transdisciplinary study scientifically reports the way the established contemporary dance sector in Europe operates from a micro perspective It provides a dance scholarly and sociological interpretation of its mechanisms by coupling qualitative data interview material observations logbooks and dance performances to theoretical insights The book uncovers the sometimes contradicting mechanisms related to the precarious project oriented labor and art market that determine the working and living conditions of contemporary dance artists in Europe's dance capitals Brussels and Berlin In addition it examines how these working and living conditions affect the work process and outcome From a sociological perspective the book engages with the relevant contemporary social issue of precarity and this within the much at risk professional group of contemporary dance artists In this regard the research brings novelty within the subject area particularly by employing a unique methodological approach Although the research is initially set up in a specific geographical context and within a specific research population the book offers insights into issues that affect our neoliberal society at large The research findings show potential to make a relevant contribution with regards to precarity within dance studies and performance studies but also labor studies and cultural sociology

Colonial Debts Rocío Zambrana, 2021-04-19 Rocío Zambrana uses the current political economic moment in Puerto Rico to outline how debt functions as both an apparatus that strengthens neoliberalism and the island's colonial relation to the United States

Representing Acts of Violence in Comics Nina Mickwitz, Ian Horton, Ian Hague, 2019-08-01 This book is part of a nuanced two volume examination of the ways in which violence in comics is presented in different texts genres cultures and contexts Representing Acts of Violence in Comics raises questions about depiction and the act of showing violence and discusses the ways in which individual moments of violence develop and are both represented and embodied in comics and graphic novels Contributors consider the impact of gendered and sexual violence and examine the ways in which violent acts can be rendered palatable for example through humour but also how comics can represent trauma and long lasting repercussions for both perpetrators and victims This will be a key text and essential reference for scholars and students at all levels in Comics Studies and Cultural and Media Studies more generally

Unbound Queer Time in Literature, Cinema, and Video Games Juan Francisco Belmonte Ávila, Estibaliz Encarnación-Pinedo, 2024-07-19 Unbound Queer Time in Literature Cinema and Video Games investigates the potential of queer conceptions of time to unbind forms of understanding identities In doing so it recognizes the power of time to determine us but chooses to queer time and turn it into an ally of unbound forms of understanding identities Through the analysis of different media literature cinema and video games the chapters revolve around three key ideas that there are inherently queer styles of using and dealing with time and temporality in culture that the critical rediscovery of canonical texts and the analysis of largely ignored queer texts and authors allow for a better understanding of queer identities and finally that normative conceptions of time can and should be challenged through critical tools that reconceptualize notions of the self around time This volume will be of interest to postgraduate students and researchers working close to areas such as queer and gender studies media and cinema studies cultural studies literary theory comparative literature game studies and art history

One Family Andrew Kolin, 2021-03-17 One Family Before During and After the Holocaust Third Edition written by the son of a survivor revisits and expands the author's research on his relatives while they lived in Poland France Denmark and the U S Kolin draws on newly available secondary and archival sources successfully providing readers with a dynamic portrait of this one family as a microcosm of what happened to families throughout Europe during the Holocaust He explores the identities of his relatives not only as Jews but also as workers in specific sectors from the slaughterhouses of Warsaw to the leather workers and pocketbook makers of Paris He traces the political and military experiences of family members and how each family wrestled with the decision of whether or not to emigrate and whether or not to be politically active The author describes how his relatives responded to and coped with the unfolding of anti Jewish measures in Poland and France He then traces how that response whether it was flight and or resistance affected their ultimate fate

Disability, Space, Architecture: A Reader Jos Boys, 2017-02-17 Disability Space Architecture A Reader takes a groundbreaking approach to exploring the interconnections between disability architecture and cities The contributions come from architecture geography anthropology health studies English language and literature rhetoric and composition art history disability studies and disability arts and cover personal theoretical and innovative ideas and work Richer approaches to disability beyond regulation and design guidance remain fragmented and difficult to find for architectural and built environment students educators and professionals By bringing together in one place some seminal texts and projects as well as newly commissioned writings readers can engage with disability in unexpected and exciting ways that can vibrantly inform their understandings of architecture and urban design Most crucially Disability Space Architecture A Reader opens up not just disability but also ability dis ability as a means of refusing the normalisation of only particular kinds of bodies in the design of built space It reveals how our everyday social attitudes and practices about people objects and spaces can be better understood through the lens of disability and it suggests how thinking differently about dis ability can enable innovative and new kinds of critical and creative architectural and urban design education and practice

Boomer Spirituality Craig Kennet Miller,2017-01-01 As the boomer generation navigates dramatic change as it ages it will be informed by a unique spirituality that was forged in the tumultuous years of the 1960s and 1970s If you are a boomer you are sure to be reminded of the events and experiences that had an impact on you when you were young If you are the child of a boomer this book will help you understand why your parents act the way they do If you are creating ministry for this generation this will be your guide to the way boomers view the world and look toward the future Cyberfiction P.

Youngquist,2010-03-29 Cyberfiction After the Future explores a world where cybernetics sets the terms for life and culture our world of ubiquitous info tech instantaneous capital flows and immanent catastrophe Economics fuses with technology to create a new kind of speculative fiction cyberfiction Paul Youngquist reveals the ways in which J G Ballard Philip K Dick Samuel Delany Octavia Butler and William Gibson among others map a territory where information reigns supreme and the future is becoming a thing of the past

Arming Asia Richard Bitzinger,2016-12-19 Bitzinger examines the phenomenon of attempted self reliance in arms production within Asia and assesses the extent of success in balancing this independence with the growing requirements of next generation weapons systems He analyzes China India Japan South Korea and Southeast Asia The overarching question in the book is whether self reliance is a strategically viable solution for development and manufacturing of arms Given the ever changing dynamics and increasing demand for sophisticated next generation weaponry will these countries be able to individually sustain their domestic defense industries and constantly update their technologies This is the first book to analyze arms production from a regional perspective

Remapping an Ableist World Vera Chouinard,2025-02-28 Remapping an Ableist World examines the forces shaping our lives in an able capitalist world It draws on examples including human enhancement and the organ trade to illustrate connections between able capitalist ways of life impairment disability and oppression The book addresses ableness as a regime of power and oppression intrinsic to global capitalism and as such a system that touches all of our lives albeit in different ways Vera Chouinard offers an intersectional analysis of the production of impairment and disability drawing on autoethnographic and autobiographical methodologies case studies of disability in the Global South and North and comparative accounts of processes such as the uneven development of disability law Inviting readers to rethink the causes and consequences of the ableist capitalist order in which we find ourselves Remapping an Ableist World reminds us that for our own well being and that of generations to come we must forge a less destructive and more nurturing way of life

The Twilight of Cutting Saida Hodic, 2016-11-22 The last three decades have witnessed a proliferation of NGOs engaging in new campaigns to end the practice of female genital cutting across Africa These campaigns have in turn spurred new institutions discourses and political projects bringing about unexpected social transformations both intended and unintended Consequently cutting is waning across the continent At the same time these endings are being disavowed by cross continental discourses that argue that cutting has become an object of a neocolonial racist gaze and Western interventionist zeal What does it mean to say that while cutting is ending the Western discourse surrounding it is on the rise And what kind of a feminist anthropology is needed in such a moment The Twilight of Cutting examines these and other questions from the vantage point of Ghanaian feminist and reproductive health NGOs that have organized campaigns against cutting for over thirty years The book looks at these NGOs not as solutions but as sites of problematization The purpose of understanding Ghanaian campaigns their transnational and regional encounters and the forms of governmentality they produce is not to charge them with providing answers to the question how do we end cutting Instead it is to account for their work their historicity the life worlds and subjectivities they engender and the modes of reflection imminent critique and opposition they set in motion Provided by publisher

Active Intolerance Perry Zurn, Andrew Dilts, 2016-01-26 This book is an interdisciplinary collection of essays on Le Groupe d'information sur les prisons The Prisons Information Group or GIP The GIP was a radical activist group extant between 1970 and 1973 in which Michel Foucault was heavily involved It aimed to facilitate the circulation of information about living conditions in French prisons and over time it catalyzed several revolts and instigated minor reforms In Foucault's words the GIP sought to identify what was intolerable about the prison system and then to produce an active intolerance of that same intolerable reality To do this the GIP gave prisoners the floor so as to hear from them about what to resist and how The essays collected here explore the GIP's resources both for Foucault studies and for prison activism today

The Worshipping Life Lisa Nichols Hickman, 2004-12-01 In this unique and engaging book of meditations pastor Lisa Nichols Hickman delves into the life of worship seeking to reveal its rhythms and order There are twenty chapters each a meditation on an element of worship reflecting on how that particular element plays out not only in a service of worship but more importantly in everyday life

Shielding Sandra Noeth, Sandra Umathum, Janez Jansa, 2024-09-03 Shielding offers a collection of conceptual approaches through which bodies intentionally or involuntarily become shields Bodies take on an ambivalent status in the process they serve as protection or a buffer and express resistance At the same time they turn and are turned into weapons when they intervene on the ground and politically in war conflicts and through activism The contributors address the idea of bodily integrity both in a material sense and with regard to the symbolic and ethical relations that a body entangles The book engages with ongoing debates around the re evaluation of corporeality and embodiment in contemporary socio political contexts     Deep Change Robert E. Quinn,2010-08-20 Don t let your company kill you Open this book at your own risk It contains ideas that may lead to a profound self awakening An introspective journey for those in the trenches of today s modern organizations Deep Change is a survival manual for finding our own internal leadership power By helping us learn new ways of thinking and behaving it shows how we can transform ourselves from victims to powerful agents of change And for anyone who yearns to be an internally driven leader to motivate the people around them and return to a satisfying work life Deep Change holds the key
