The Effects of Political Institutions on Varieties of Capitalism Matthew P. Arsenault, 2017-02-10 This book identifies and explores the mechanisms linking political institutions and variation in capitalist systems A strong correlation exists between varieties of political regimes and varieties of capitalism majoritarian political regimes are correlated with liberal market economies LMEs and consensus political regimes are correlated with coordinated market economies CMEs Still correlation is not causation Empirical findings illustrate that partisanship and policy legacies the number of political parties electoral rules and constitutional constraints are significant indicators of LMEs and CMEs Arsenault finds that majoritarian institutions create an environment of adversarial politics and strong competition between actors which makes credible commitment to nonmarket coordination mechanisms unlikely Consensus institutions on the other hand promote an atmosphere of cooperation and coordination between actors thus encouraging credible commitment to nonmarket coordination mechanisms Qualitative case studies of Germany Britain and New Zealand confirm the quantitative findings and suggest that political regimes were instrumental in shaping the economic adjustment paths of these countries during the era of liberalization in the 1980s

Rudolph Jr., 2015-12-07 An indispensable reference that will help students understand the major ethnic conflicts that dominate the headlines and shape the modern world Since World War II significant conflicts have most often taken the form of acts of violence between ethnic or national communities inside individual states This two volume work uses case studies to explore some four dozen of those conflicts making it an ideal first stop reference for students and others who wish to quickly gain an understanding of ethnic struggles Content from the first edition is updated and new entries on recent conflicts have been added The set's geographical range which encompasses nearly every continent is matched by the diversity of the conflicts explored These include internal conflicts such as those experienced by African Americans in the United States and Muslims in France as well as separatist movements of groups like the Chechens in Russia and Bosnians in Yugoslavia. Headline making conflicts for example those in Mali and Syria are covered as well. The book is organized alphabetically by country and region. Social Capital David Halpern, 2005. This work presents an introduction to the concept of social capital, a term which refers to the social networks, informal structures and norms that facilitate individual and collective action.

The Persuasion Industries Steven McKevitt, 2018-08-09. At the end of the twentieth century Britain was a consumer society. Commerce, intoxicating and addictive, had almost entirely colonized modern life. People were immersed in and ultimately defined by promotional culture. The things they consumed had overtaken class, religion, geography or occupation as the primary form of self identity and self expression. For much of the twentieth century all forms of brand communication, from political campaigning to product advertising, were based on the theory of rational appeals to rational consumers. There was only one problem with this theory: it was wrong. The Persuasion Industries: The Making of Modern Britain examines developments in marketing, advertising, public relations and branding. It explores the role they played in the emergence of the consumer society. New ideas from fields of behavioural psychology and economics, together with internal developments such as planning, positioning and corporate branding, allowed persuasion to become the driving force within many commercial enterprises. Together these changes led to the emergence of an alternative, emotional model of brand communication. A simple idea that proved so compelling it changed the world we live in.

Topographies of Suffering Jessica Rapson, 2015-08-01. Commentary on memorials to the Holocaust has been plagued with a sense of monument fatigue, a feeling that landscape settings and national spaces provide little opportunity for meaningful engagement between present visitors and past victims. This book examines the Holocaust via three sites of murder by the Nazis: the former concentration camp at Buchenwald, Germany; the mass grave at Babi Yar, Ukraine; and the razed village of Lidice, Czech Republic. Bringing together recent scholarship from cultural memory and cultural geography, the author focuses on the way these violent histories are remembered, allowing these sites to emerge as dynamic, transcultural landscapes of encounter in which difficult pasts can be represented and comprehended in the present. This leads to an examination of the role of the environment, or more particularly the ways in which the natural environment co-opted in the process of killing becomes a medium for remembrance.

The Past is a Future Country Edward Dutton, J.O.A. Rayner-Hilles, 2022-06-30. Since the 1960s the West has moved ever leftwards. Equality and feelings are central to the New Religion that rejects all traditional values. Yet beneath the institutionally dominant Left stews a growing and restless Right. How has this fractured situation come about? What will the future hold? In The Past is a Future Country the authors trace it back to the Industrial Revolution. Darwinian selection massively weakened meaning, that for the first time in history the selfish sick and stupid could survive and reproduce undermining our religious group oriented culture Now the West is scourged by an epidemic of narcissists competing to signal their individuality and moral superiority But their fight for equality is really a fight for self promotion Reflecting this runaway individualism Westerners increasingly don't have children save for those who are genetically resistant to this onslaught the staunchly conservative and religious the eventual inheritors of the earth But there is a dark storm brewing in the demographic data that the authors have analysed There is a burgeoning growth in the population of exceptionally unintelligent and antisocial people that social welfare systems cannot sustain for much longer The developed world will pass away and the global population that depends on it will crash in the greatest Malthusian Collapse of all time Yet all is not lost The authors show how a resistant class of intelligent religious conservatives will band together to preserve enclaves of civilization that may survive most of the coming apocalypse and from its ashes rebuild a new world A Neo Byzantium Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2003-04 Between Policy and Performance
