The Spoken Word in Life and Art Estelle Headley Davis,Edward William Mammen,1927 How Machines Came to Speak Jennifer Petersen,2022-01-24 In How Machines Came to Speak Jennifer Petersen constructs a genealogy of how legal conceptions of speech have transformed over the last century in response to new media technologies Drawing on media and legal history Petersen shows that the legal category of speech has varied considerably evolving from a narrow category of oratory and print publication to a broad abstract conception encompassing expressive nonverbal actions algorithms and data She examines a series of pivotal US court cases in which new media technologies such as phonographs radio film and computer code were integral to this shift In judicial decisions ranging from the determination that silent films were not a form of speech to the expansion of speech rights to include algorithmic outputs courts understood speech as mediated through technology Speech thus became disarticulated from individual speakers By outlining how legal definitions of speech are indelibly dependent on technology Petersen demonstrates that future innovations such as artificial intelligence will continue to restructure speech law in ways that threaten to protect corporate and institutional forms of speech over the rights and interests of citizens The Dublin University Magazine ,1876 Digital Libraries and Crowdsourcing Mathieu Andro,2018-01-19 Instead of outsourcing tasks to providers using labor intensive countries libraries around the world increasingly appeal to the crowds of Internet users making their relationship with users more collaborative These internet
