Ron Baker*

["Plurality which is not reduced to unity is confusion; unity which does not depend on plurality is tyranny".

Pascal, Pensees, 1670.

"It is not enough to teach a man a speciality. Through it he may become a kind of useful machine but not a harmoniously developed personality. Otherwise he — with his specialized knowledge — more closely resembles a well trained dog than a harmoniously developed person. He must learn to understand the motives of human beings, their illusions, and their sufferings in order to acquire a proper relationship to individual fellow-men and to the community".

Albert Einstein, on Education for Independent Thought — 1952.

"Theory without practice is sterile and practice without theory is blind".

Unknown (Often attributed to Karl Marx).

"Innovation springs from the collision between traditional assumptions and changing realities between theory and practice in a creatively irreverent mind capable of perceiving how poorly conventional wisdom fits the evolving world".

David Donnison, Social Policy and Administration Revisited.]
