Social Laboratory For Modern France:

A Social Laboratory for Modern France, 2009 DIV Documents the early days of the French welfare state through the Musée Social an early think tank A Social Laboratory for Modern France Janet R. Horne, 2002-01-11 Documents the early days of the French welfare state through the Musée Social an early think tank French Urban Planning, 1940-1968 W. Brian Newsome, 2009 French Urban Planning 1940 1968 explores the creation and progressive dismantling of France's centralized authoritarian system of urban and architectural planning Established in the wake of World War II to facilitate the reconstruction and expansion of cities this planning program led to the evolution of large suburban housing estates plagued by inter intra family conflict juvenile delinquency and other social difficulties which sociologists connected to poor planning and design Critics began calling for the democratization of planning to remedy design problems and the government of Charles de Gaulle started reforming planning procedures in the late 1950s and early 1960s This book moves beyond technical and political issues to explore forces of religion gender and class that affected planning practices Key critics and state officials emerged from the Catholic Left Some were women from working class backgrounds and they manipulated gender stereotypes to insert working and middle class women into the design process Sometimes in opposition but often together these reformers initiated the most significant change of architectural and urban planning until the introduction of François Mitterrand's decentralization reforms in the 1980s French Urban Planning 1940 1968 will appeal to scholars and students interested in architectural urban and social trends in twentieth century France A Nation Among Nations Thomas Bender, 2025-09-23 A provocative new book that shows us why we must put American history firmly in a global context from 1492 to today Americans like to tell their country's story as if the United States were naturally autonomous and self sufficient with characters ideas and situations unique to itself Thomas Bender asks us to rethink this exceptionalism and to reconsider the conventional narrative He proposes that America has grappled with circumstances doctrines new developments and events that other nations too have faced and that we can only benefit from recognizing this Bender's exciting argument begins with the discovery of the Americas at a time when peoples everywhere first felt the transforming effects of oceanic travel and trade He then reconsiders our founding Revolution occurring in an age of rebellion on many continents the Civil War happening when many countries were redefining their core beliefs about the nature of freedom and the meaning of nationhood and the later imperialism that pitted the United States against Germany Spain France and England Industrialism and urbanization laissez faire economics capitalism and socialism and new technologies are other factors that Bender views in the light of global developments A Nation Among Nations is a passionate persuasive book that makes clear what damage is done when we let the old view of America alone in the world falsify our history Bender boldly challenges us to think beyond our borders Ages of Anxiety William S. Bush, David S. Tanenhaus, 2018-07-31 Six compelling histories of youth crime in the twentieth century Ages of Anxiety presents six case studies of juvenile justice policy in the twentieth century from around the world adding context to the urgent and international conversation about youth crime and justice By focusing on magistrates social workers probation and police officers and youth themselves editors William S Bush and David S Tanenhaus highlight the role of ordinary people as meaningful and consequential historical actors After providing an international perspective on the social history of ideas about how children are different from adults the contributors explain why those differences should matter for the administration of justice They examine how reformers used the idea of modernization to build and legitimize juvenile justice systems in Europe and Mexico and present histories of policing and punishing youth crime Ages of Anxiety introduces a new theoretical model for interpreting historical research to demonstrate the usefulness of social histories of children and youth for policy analysis and decision making in the twenty first century Shedding new light on the substantive aims of the juvenile court the book is a historically informed perspective on the critical topic of youth crime and justice

French Sociology Johan Heilbron, 2015-11-06 French Sociology offers a uniquely comprehensive view of the oldest and still one of the most vibrant national traditions in sociology Johan Heilbron covers the development of sociology in France from its beginnings in the early nineteenth century through the discipline's expansion in the late twentieth century tracing the careers of figures from Auguste Comte to Pierre Bourdieu Presenting fresh interpretations of how renowned thinkers such as mile Durkheim and his collaborators defined the contours and content of the discipline and contributed to intellectual renewals in a wide range of other human sciences Heilbron's sophisticated book is both an innovative sociological study and a major reference work in the history of the social sciences Heilbron recounts the halting process by which sociology evolved from a new and improbable science into a legitimate academic discipline Having entered the academic field at the end of the nineteenth century sociology developed along two separate tracks one in the Faculty of Letters engendering an enduring dependence on philosophy and the humanities the other in research institutes outside of the university in which sociology evolved within and across more specialized research areas Distinguishing different dynamics and various cycles of change Heilbron portrays the ways in which individuals and groups maneuvered within this changing structure seizing opportunities as they arose French Sociology vividly depicts the promises and pitfalls of a discipline that up to this day remains one of the most interdisciplinary endeavors among the human sciences in France

The Shield of the Weak Christine Ehrick, 2005-07 A timely study of women's social advancement in Uruguay during a period of unprecented political reform early in the twentieth century

Freedom from Fear Alan S. Kahan, 2023-08-22 A new history of liberalism which argues that liberalism has been predicated on definite morality and should be viewed as an attempt to encompass both fear and hope Liberalism argues Alan Kahan is the search for a society in which people need not be afraid Freedom from fear is the most basic freedom If we are afraid we are not free These insights found in Montesquieu and Judith Shklar are the foundation of liberalism What liberals fear has changed over time revolution reaction totalitarianism religious fanaticism poverty and now populism but the great majority of liberal thinkers have relied on three pillars to ward off their fears and to limit the concentrated power that causes fear freedom markets and morals or to put it another way politics economics and religion or morality Most liberal thinkers emphasize one or two pillars more than another but it is typical of liberalism down to the Second World War to rely on all three although there were always minority voices who preferred to stand on only one leg After WWII thin procedural market liberals who wanted to strip any moral or religious basis or purpose from liberalism dominated thick liberal moralists who thought liberalism needed a moral basis and or goal It is the political contention of this book that liberalism is most convincing as program language and social analysis when it relies on all three pillars and that the relative weakness of liberalism at the end of the twentieth century had much to do with neglect of the moral pillar of liberalism Its historical contention is that for much of the past two centuries it did rely on all three pillars But Kahan also argues that liberalism is not only a party of fear It is also a party of hope or the party of progress Many of the contradictions typical of liberalism derive from the seemingly contradictory effort to encompass both hope and fear If in case of conflict fear often trumps hope for liberals loss aversion applies in politics as much as in economics and utopia is subject to indefinite postponement progress in personal autonomy and development has always been at the heart of liberalism Liberals typically support their hopes on the same three pillars of freedom markets and morals which they use to ward off their fears Nevertheless in one respect those historians and political theorists who identify liberalism with laissez faire economics are not wrong It is characteristic of liberalism then that it bases its hopes not on the state but on civil society which for liberals is the common source of a free politics a free market and of morals Alan S Kahan is Professor of History at the Universit de Versailles His previous books include Tocqueville Democracy and Religion Checks and Balances for Democratic Souls Oxford 2015 Alexis de Tocqueville Continuum Books and Mind vs Money The War Between Intellectuals and Capitalism Transaction Publishing 2010     The Metropolis in Latin America, 1830-1930 Idurre Alonso, Maristella Casciato, 2021-08-17 This volume examines the unprecedented growth of several cities in Latin America from 1830 to 1930 observing how sociopolitical changes and upheavals created the conditions for the birth of the metropolis In the century between 1830 and 1930 following independence from Spain and Portugal major cities in Latin America experienced large scale growth with the development of a new urban bourgeois elite interested in projects of modernization and rapid industrialization At the same time the lower classes were eradicated from old city districts and deported to the outskirts The Metropolis in Latin America 1830 1930 surveys this expansion focusing on six capital cities Havana Mexico City Rio de Janeiro Buenos Aires Santiago de Chile and Lima as it examines sociopolitical histories town planning art and architecture photography and film in relation to the metropolis Drawing from the Getty Research Institute s vast collection of books prints and photographs from this period largely unpublished until now this volume reveals the cities changes through urban panoramas plans depicting new neighborhoods and photographs of novel transportation systems public amenities civic spaces and more It illustrates the transformation of colonial cities into the monumental modern metropolises that by the end of the 1920s provided fertile ground for the emergence of today's Latin American megalopolis

Governing the Rural in Interwar Europe Liesbeth van de Grift, Amalia Forclaz, 2017-10-06 This book examines how rural Europe as a hybrid social and natural environment emerged as a key site of local national and international governance in the interwar years The post war need to secure and intensify food production to protect contested border areas to improve rural infrastructure and the economic viability of rural regions and to politically integrate rural populations gave rise to a variety of schemes aimed at modernizing agriculture and remaking rural society The volume examines discourses institutions and practices of rural governance from a transnational perspective revealing striking commonalities across national and political boundaries From the village town hall to the headquarters of international organizations local authorities government officials and politicians scientific experts and farmers engaged in debates about the social political and economic future of rural communities They sought to respond to both real and imagined concerns over poverty and decline backwardness and insufficient control by conceptualizing planning and engineering models that would help foster an ideal rural community and develop an efficient agricultural sector By examining some of these local national and international schemes and policies this volume highlights the hitherto under researched interaction between policymakers experts and rural inhabitants in the European countryside of the 1920s and 30s

Working Girls Patricia Tilburg, 2019-11-05 As the twentieth century dawned and France entered an era of extraordinary labor activism and industrial competition an insistently romantic vision of the Parisian garment worker was deployed by politicians reformers and artists to manage anxieties about economic and social change Nostalgia about a certain kind of France was written onto the bodies of the capital's couture workers throughout French pop culture from the 1880s to the 1930s And the midinettes as these women were called were written onto the geography of Paris itself by way of festivals monuments historic preservation and guide books The idealized working Parisienne stood in for at once the superiority of French taste and craft and the political and sexual subordination of French women and labour But she was also the public face of more than 80 000 real working women whose demands for better labour conditions were inflected distorted and in some cases amplified by this ubiquitous Romantic type in the decades straddling World War I Working Girls bridges cultural histories of the Parisian imaginary and histories of French labour and puts them in raucous dialogue with one another a letter by a nineteen year old seamstress a speech by a government minister a frothy Parisian guide by a bon vivant the minutes of a union meeting a bawdy caf concert song a policy brief on garment working conditions

Cities as Political Objects Alistair Cole, Renaud Payre, 2016-12-30 Focusing on the city's role as the nexus for new forms of relationships between politics economics and society this fascinating book views the city as a political phenomena Its chapters unravel the city's plural histories contested political legal and administrative boundaries and its policy making capacity in the context of multi level and market pressures

Garden cities and colonial planning Liora Bigon, Yossi Katz, 2016-05-16 This collection is a study of the process by which European planning concepts and practices were transmitted diffused and diverted in various colonial territories and situations The socio political geographical and cultural implications are analysed here through case studies from the global South namely from French and British colonial territories in Africa as well as from Ottoman and British Mandate Palestine The book focuses on the transnational aspects of the garden city taking into account frameworks and documentation that extend beyond national borders and includes contributions from an international network of specialists Their comparative views and geographical focus challenge the conventional Eurocentric approach to garden cities and will interest students and scholars of planning history and colonial history

The Expert Consumer Alain Chatriot, Marie-Emmanuelle Chessel, 2017-09-29 Recent work has focused on the politics of consumption and its manifestation in a number of situations This volume extends these debates providing a tighter focus and contributing to a noticeable gap in the field that numerous scholars are beginning to turn towards that is organizations of consumers themselves who have chosen to speak for all consumers and similar such bodies of experts which act on behalf of consumers The volume is fortunate in drawing upon a number of scholars who are about to publish major works on the subject but who are happy to provide summary versions of their work for the volume The book pays particular attention to specific moments in consumer mobilization and expertise capturing the range of types of expert consumers across the twentieth century from ethical consumer groups at the beginning to intellectuals housewives economists and public officials It addresses questions on the nature of consumer organizing which bodies can speak for consumers whether one consumer voice can ever be identified and the relationship between consumption and citizenship Overview pieces demonstrate the larger narratives involved in the study of the expert consumer whilst more comparative essays set out the nature of transatlantic exchanges Other contributions point to the similarities across seemingly different consumption regimes while case studies of specific organisations and key historical moments draw out the particularities of consumer expertise

Eugenics in the Garden Fabiola López-Durán, 2018-03-01 Winner Robert Motherwell Book Award Outstanding Book on Modernism in the Arts The Dedalus Foundation 2019 As Latin American elites strove to modernize their cities at the turn of the twentieth century they eagerly adopted the eugenic theory that improvements to the physical environment would lead to improvements in the human race Based on Jean Baptiste Lamarck s theory of the inheritance of acquired characteristics this strain of eugenics empowered a utopian project that made race gender class and the built environment the critical instruments of modernity and progress Through a transnational and interdisciplinary lens Eugenics in the Garden reveals how eugenics fueled by a fear of social degeneration in France spread from the realms of medical science to architecture and urban planning becoming a critical instrument in the crafting of modernity in the new Latin world Journeying back and forth between France Brazil and Argentina Fabiola Lopez Dur n uncovers the complicity of physicians and architects on both sides of the Atlantic who participated in a global strategy of social engineering legitimized by the authority of science In doing so she reveals the ideological trajectory of one of the most celebrated architects of the twentieth century Le Corbusier who deployed architecture in what he saw as the perfecting and whitening of man The first in depth interrogation of eugenics influence on the construction of the modern built environment Eugenics in the Garden convincingly demonstrates that race was the main tool in the geopolitics of space and that racism was and remains an ideology of progress
