The late twentieth century witnessed rapid changes not only in Taiwan's economy but also in its identity Both economic as well as ideological restructuring have been basic elements in the transformation of postwar Taiwan as rapid democratization opened a Pandora's Box and stirred a whirlwind of social discord This volume considers such important questions as whether the old Taiwanese work ethic is a relic of the past and whether Taiwan is likely to become a battleground of ideological wars The book addresses Taiwanese nostalgia for Chinese culture the rise and fall of postwar Taiwanese agrarian culture the transformation of farmers' social consciousness in the period 1950-1970 the place of Confucianism in postwar Taiwan and the awakening of the self and the development of a Taiwanese national identity in the post World War II period Finally it considers whether mutual historical understanding may be the basis for Taiwan Mainland relations in the twenty first century This second edition includes a new chapter on the history of Taiwan after World War II incorporating additional developments in Taiwan in the past decade Insights extrapolated from an understanding of history are essential for grasping and solving the basic problems Taiwan now faces and above all the conflicted relationship between Taiwan and Mainland China The book's thematic undercurrent is the question of Taiwan and Mainland China How do we deal with the tension between cultural China and political China Resolving Land Disputes in East Asia Hualing Fu, John

Gillespie, 2014-07-03 Economic development and mass urbanization have unleashed unprecedented levels of land disputes in East Asia In China and Vietnam especially courts and other legal institutions struggle to find lasting solutions It is against this background of legal failure that this book brings together leading scholars to understand how state agencies land users and land developers imaginatively engage with each other to resolve disputes Drawing on empirically rich case studies contributors explore the limits of law and legal institutions in resolving land disputes and reveal insights into how key actors in East Asia understand land disputes Their studies reveal promising dispute resolution practices and point to the likely ways that states will deal with land disputes in the future Taiwan's Modernization in Global Perspective Peter C.

The Gap Between Rich And Poor Mitchell A Seligson,2019-07-15 Increasing concern has been expressed by Third World leaders and international organizations alike over the growing gap between rich and poor nations Between 1950 and 1980 alone the per capita income gap between low income and industrialized countries grew from 3 677 to 9 648 In addition within the developing nations themselves an ever widening gap separates the rich from the poor Other evidence suggests that middle income countries may be gaining on the rich countries Some research shows that the gap in education and health is narrowing rather rapidly and studies of domestic inequality have revealed that growth with equity has occurred in a number of developing nations that have committed themselves to such a policy This volume presents the evidence for both sides of the debate It begins by stating the conventional wisdom that international and internal gaps are widening and goes on to examine the major explanations offered which focus on culture urban bias dependency and world system analysis The book then presents empirical studies on the existence and causes of the gap as well as key case studies that challenge the conventional wisdom Unique in its objectivity this text does not seek to serve either side of the debate but instead draws upon the best research in the field to highlight major issues and to present studies that have subjected the differing perspectives to rigorous empirical analysis It will prove especially useful in courses on Third World development political economy comparative politics development economics the sociology of development and related topics territory under the jurisdiction of the nation known officially as the Republic of China Constant debate over whether Taiwan is its own sovereign state part of the Republic of China or part of the People s Republic of China has been going on for years With Chinese leaders in the People s Republic of China rejecting Taiwan s legal separation and vowing that they will resolve the Taiwan issue by military force if necessary and most citizens of Taiwan opposing unification with China in the short run it would appear that Taiwan faces some tough decisions ahead The A to Z of Taiwan Republic of China offers insight into Taiwan s situation through a chronology an introduction appendixes a map a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on important people places events political parties and institutions as well as major political economic social and cultural aspects of this island country Whether or not Taiwan joins the People s Republic of China or gains its independence Taiwan s outcome is of the utmost importance and this reference provides the necessary information to understand its state of affairs Looking Through Taiwan Keelung Hong,Stephen O. in American social science literature Taiwan in Transformation, 1895-2005 Junjie Huang, 2006 The last decade of the 20th century witnessed rapid changes not only in global politics but also in Taiwan's quests for new identities. The notorious martial law was lifted in July 1987 and long repressed calls for democratization began to be heard that caught worldwide attention. In tandem with economic transformation, the entire world of thought in Taiwan underwent significant changes. Both economic and ideological restructuring have been basic elements of transformation in postwar Taiwan. However, rapid democratization has opened a Pandora's box and stirred a whirlwind of discord. Taiwan in Transformation 1895-2005 elaborates on the where from and the where to of the Taiwan transformation and attempts to answer such questions as: Is the old Taiwanese work ethic just a relic of the past? Is Taiwan going to become an Armageddon of ideological wars?
