each other but which dance together as one In this regard the role of meditation during the undertaking of diaries is specifically highlighted concerning its propensity to bring one into the present moment pacify racing thoughts and transcend the ego It also shows how a meditative state of mind that accompanies the reading writing and analysis of the diary entries contributes to deeper self discernment along with unique intuitive insights related to oneself as a teacher and the classroom environment In addition this book describes how the Wordsmith Tools Program and the Book of Changes can be used as additional approaches to analyzing thought patterns within the diary entries and how these also nurture inward contemplations and the intuitive insights that accompany them Thereafter considerations based on the applications of core Daoist principles for classroom pedagogies are filtered through the contemplative lenses of teacher diaries These principles are the unintentional integrity of de the complementary duality of yin yang the cosmic vitality of qi the self so ness of ziran the unforceful spontaneity of wuwei and the unblemished purity of pu This book illustrates through its diary lenses how these six Daoist principles can be nurtured in ways that contribute to a scholarliness that is grounded in an equal appreciation for the logical applications of intelligence along with the uniqueness of intuitive creativity which cannot be explicitly taught but which spontaneously arises from within the deep reservoirs of intuitive wisdom which exist within the true selves of everyone In addition this book shares pearls of Daoist wisdom for teachers from within the poetic chapters of the Laozi as well as within the amusingly enlightening stories in the Zhuangzi and the Liezi such that their ancient teachings can be applied to Daoist inspired pedagogies and nurtured in ways that unite the joyfulness and scholarly efficacy of both teaching and learning It is shown how doing so enhances a sense of awe wonder openness and contemplative oneness within the classroom environment making it a happier more contented and more meaningful place for both teachers and students Forthcoming
