The Dynamics of Devolution Alan Trench, 2015-10-26 This book is the fifth and final volume in the State of the Nations yearbook series on devolution in the UK This book explores the future of devolution by examining the new political dynamics devolution has put into play These concern devolution's operation and also its impact how devolution has altered politics in the parts of the UK that experience devolution and in the UK as a whole Chapters examine the key topics in devolution and examine the interplay between institutional change and social economic and political forces both those that existed before devolution and those brought into being by it This interplay creates scope for varying forms of change but what that change means varies from topic to topic In some cases such as Wales institutional issues remain to the fore while in others such as Scotland pressures for institutional change are relatively limited but the devolved institutions create scope for new political factors to come into play

Challenging Multiculturalism Raymond Taras, 2012-12-17 Tackles the challenge of dismantling the multicultural model without destroying diversity in European society Have Europeans become hostile to multiculturalism When people vote for anti immigration parties do they also support their anti multiculturalism policies And are right wing extremists becoming the storm troopers of the struggle against diversity In recent years European political leaders from Angela Merkel to David Cameron have discarded the term multiculturalism and now express scepticism criticism and even hostility towards multicultural ways of organising their societies Yet they are unprepared to reverse the diversity existing in their states These contradictory choices have different political consequences in the countries examined in this book The future of European liberalism is being played out as multicultural notions of belonging inclusion tolerance and the national home are brought into question Justice of the Peace and Local
