The Jazz People Of New Orleans:

Jazz in New Orleans Charles Suhor, 2001-04-11 Jazz in New Orleans provides accurate information about and an insightful interpretation of jazz in New Orleans from the end of World War II through 1970 Suhor relying on his experiences as a listener a working jazz drummer and writer in New Orleans during this period has done a great service to lovers of New Orleans music by filling in some gaping holes in postwar jazz history and cutting through many of the myths and misconceptions that have taken hold over the years Skillfully combining his personal experiences and historical research the author writes with both authority and immediacy The text rich in previously unpublished anecdotes and New Orleans lore is divided into three sections each with an overview essay followed by pertinent articles Suhor wrote for national and local journals including Down Beat and New Orleans Magazine Section One Jazz and the Establishment focuses on cultural and institutional settings in which jazz was first battered then nurtured It deals with the reluctance of power brokers and the custodians of culture in New Orleans to accept jazz as art until the music proved itself elsewhere and was easily recognizable as a marketable commodity Section Two Traditional and Dixieland Jazz highlights the music and the musicians who were central to early jazz styles in New Orleans between 1947 and 1953 Section Three An Invisible Generation will help dispel the stubborn myth that almost no one was playing be bop or other modern jazz styles in New Orleans before the current generation of young artists appeared in the 1980s

Walking with Legends Mick Burns, 2007-10-01 Drummer record producer bandleader jazz researcher and cigar chomping raconteur Barry Martyn is a New Orleans original who happens to have been born in England Implausible though this may seem it makes perfect sense to members of the New Orleans traditional jazz community who view themselves as an extended family based on merit as much as nativity For more than forty years Martyn has been a fixture in the Crescent City s jazz scene laying down the beat for generations of celebrated musicians and avidly promoting the city s unique musical heritage around the world In Walking with Legends based on over forty hours of interviews with Martyn by fellow British jazz enthusiast and author Mick Burns Martyn reflects upon his life in jazz and offers a window into a musical world that few have understood let alone witnessed from the inside At the age of nineteen jazz fanatic Martyn found his way to the Crescent City and began working as a professional drummer in clubs and studios The first white man in the United States to join a black musician s union he eventually started his own record label and recorded hundreds of jam sessions that today are regarded as classics in Europe In 1972 he formed the Legends of Jazz an old style New Orleans jazz band that toured the world and took New Orleans jazz into the American showbiz mainstream Martyn s life story provides unique intimate glimpses of a vanished generation of New Orleans musicians including Louis Armstrong Kid Sheik Cola Harold Dejan Joe Watkins Albert Nicholas Kid Thomas Andrew Blakeney and many others Throughout his chronicle Martyn highlights the continual clash of cultures that arose from an avid British pupil learning lessons of life and music from elderly African American strangers who take him under their wing both out of curiosity and self interest Together they find a way to connect through music even if the road gets a little bumpy at times A standard bearer for New Orleans s jazz drumming tradition Martyn remains one of the city s busiest musicians and most avid promoters of New Orleans music In Walking with Legends he honors the legacies of the African American musicians who taught and inspired him and affirms the importance of the human relationships that make the music possible The Jazz People of New Orleans Lee Friedlander,1992 This book reflects the passionate interest the author has in music especially the musicians of New Orleans whom he has been photographing since 1957 New Orleans the birthplace of jazz was once home to such legends as Louis Armstrong and King Joe Oliver Friedlander has photographed most of them musicians like Manuel Fess Manetta who was playing with bands before World War I and who tried to teach Louis Armstrong to play with two trumpets at once Johnny St Cyr George Kid Sheik Cola Sweet Emma Barrett Isidore Barbarin and Roosevelt Sykes blues singers and guitarists Robert Pete Williams and Snooks Eaglin
