Silent Players Anthony Slide, 2010-09-12 From his unique perspective of friendship with many of the actors and actresses about whom he writes silent film historian Anthony Slide creates vivid portraits of the careers and often eccentric lives of 100 players from the American silent film industry He profiles the era's shining stars such as Lillian Gish and Blanche Sweet leading men including William Bakewell and Robert Harron gifted leading ladies such as Laura La Plante and Alice Terry ingénues like Mary Astor and Mary Brian and even Hollywood's most famous extra Bess Flowers Although each original essay is accompanied by significant documentation and an extensive bibliography Silent Players is not simply a reference book or encyclopedic recitation of facts culled from the pages of fan magazines and trade periodicals It contains a series of insightful portraits of the characters who symbolize an original and pioneering era in motion history and explores their unique talents and extraordinary private lives Slide offers a potentially revisionist view of many of the stars he profiles repudiating the status of some and restoring to fame others who have slipped from view He personally interviewed many of his subjects and knew several of them intimately putting him in a distinctive position to tell their true stories

A Short History of Film Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2008-03-01 The history of international cinema is now available in a concise conveniently sized and affordable volume Succinct yet comprehensive A Short History of Film provides an accessible overview of the major movements directors studios and genres from the 1880s to the present More than 250 rare stills and illustrations accompany the text bringing readers face to face with many of the key players and films that have marked the industry Beginning with precursors of what we call moving pictures Wheeler Winston Dixon and Gwendolyn Audrey Foster lead a fast paced tour through the invention of the kinetoscope the introduction of sound and color between the two world wars and ultimately the computer generated imagery of the present day They detail significant periods in world cinema including the early major industries in Europe the dominance of the Hollywood studio system in the 1930s and 1940s and the French New Wave of the 1960s Special attention is also given to small independent efforts in developing nations and the corresponding more personal independent film movement that briefly flourished in the United States the significant filmmakers of all nations censorship and regulation and how they have affected production everywhere and a wide range of studios and genres Along the way the authors take great care to incorporate the stories of women and other minority filmmakers who have often been overlooked in other texts Compact and easily readable this is the best one stop source for the history of world film available to students teachers and general audiences alike André Bazin, the Critic as Thinker R. J. Cardullo, 2017-01-28 Andr Bazin 1918 58 is credited with almost single handedly establishing the study of film as an accepted intellectual pursuit as well as with being the spiritual father of the French New Wave Among those who came under his tutelage were four who would go on to become the most renowned directors of the postwar French cinema François Truffaut Jean Luc Godard Jacques Rivette and Claude Chabrol Bazin can also be considered the principal instigator of the equally influential auteur theory the idea that since film is an art form the director of a movie must be perceived as the chief creator of its unique cinematic style Andr Bazin the Critic as Thinker American Cinema from Early Chaplin to the Late 1950s contains for the first time in English in one volume much if not all of Bazin s writings on American cinema on directors such as Orson Welles Charles Chaplin Preston Sturges Alfred Hitchcock Howard Hawks John Huston Nicholas Ray Erich von Stroheim and Elia Kazan and on films such as High Noon Citizen Kane Rear Window Limelight Scarface Niagara The Red Badge of Courage Greed and Sullivan s Travels Andr Bazin the Critic as Thinker American Cinema from Early Chaplin to the Late 1950s also features a sizable scholarly apparatus including a contextual introduction to Bazin s life and work a complete bibliography of Bazin s writings on American cinema and credits of the films discussed This volume thus represents a major contribution to the still growing academic discipline of cinema studies as well as a testament to the continuing influence of one of the world s pre eminent critical thinkers Forties Film Funnymen Wes D. Gehring, 2014-01-10 The twelve classic comedy films examined within these pages are distinguished by an equal number of defining comic performances Ranging from The Great Dictator 1940 to A Southern Yankee 1948 each film focuses on the most central theme of clown comedy Resilience the encouragement or hope that one can survive the most daunting of life s dilemmas even during the war torn 1940s And each film can be regarded as a microcosm of the antiheroic world of its central clown or clowns Among the performers represented are Charlie Chaplin W C Fields Abbott and Costello Jack Benny Eddie Bracken Bob Hope Bing Crosby Danny Kaye the Marx Brothers Harold Lloyd and Red Skelton This lavishly illustrated work includes an introduction by noted film critic and historian Anthony Slide The Freshman Christina G. Petersen, 2019-03-27 Before the advent of the teenager in the 1940s and the teenpic in the 1950s The Freshman Taylor and Newmeyer 1925 represented 1920s college youth culture as an exclusive world of leisure to a mass audience Starring popular slapstick comedian Harold Lloyd The Freshman was a hit with audiences for its parody of contemporary conceptions of university life as an orgy of proms and football games becoming the highest grossing comedy feature of the silent era This book examines The Freshman from a number of perspectives with a focus on the social economic and political context that led to the rise of campus culture as a distinct subculture and popular mass culture in 1920s America Lloyd's use of slapstick to represent an embodied youthful middle class masculinity and the film's self reflexive exploration of the conflict between individuality and conformity as an early entry in the youth film genre

Crowds, Power, and Transformation in Cinema Lesley Brill, 2006 A noted critic brings crowd theory to Film Studies offering a bold new analysis of the pervasive cinematic themes of transformation and power From Intolerance to The Silence of the Lambs motion pictures show crowds and power in complex usually antagonistic relationships Key to understanding this opposition is an intrinsic capability of the cinema transformation Making unprecedented use of Elias Canetti's Crowds and Power Lesley Brill explores crowds power and transformation throughout film history The formation of crowds together with crowd symbols and representations of power create complex unifying structures in two early masterpieces The Battleship Potemkin and Intolerance In Throne of Blood power seekers become increasingly isolated while the crowd of the dead seduces and overwhelms the living The conflict between crowds and power in Citizen Kane takes place both within the protagonist and between him and the people he tries to master North by Northwest Killer of Sheep and The Silence of the Lambs are rich in hunting and predation and show the crowd as a pack transformation true false and failed is the key to both attack and escape Brill's study provides original insights into canonical movies and shows anew the central importance of transformation in film Film theorists critics and historians will value this fresh and intriguing approach to film classics which also has much to say about cinema itself and its unique relationship to mass audiences

Too Funny for Words David Kalat, 2019-04-26 American silent film comedies were dominated by sight gags stunts and comic violence With the advent of sound comedies in the 1930s were a riot of runaway heiresses and fast talking screwballs It was more than a technological pivot the first feature length sound film The Jazz Singer 1927 changed Hollywood Lost in the discussion of that transition is the overlap between the two genres Charlie Chaplin Buster Keaton and Harold Lloyd kept slapstick alive well into the sound era Screwball directors like Leo McCarey Frank Capra and Ernst Lubitsch got their starts in silent comedy From Chaplin's tramp to the witty repartee of His Girl Friday 1940 this book chronicles the rise of silent comedy and its evolution into screwball two flavors of the same genre through the works of Mack Sennett Roscoe Arbuckle Harry Langdon and others
