Griffin C.S.C., 2016-03-15 Fr Robert Griffin C S C 1925 1999 was a beloved member of the Notre Dame community With his cocker spaniel Darby O Gill he was instantly recognizable on campus He was well known for his priestly work counseling students as university chaplain for thirty years his summer ministry to the homeless and parishioners in New York City and his weekly columns in the student newspaper The Observer in which he invited the campus community to reflect with him on the challenges and joys of being Catholic in a time of enormous social and religious change This collection draws together essays that Griffin wrote for Notre Dame Magazine between 1972 and 1994 In them he considers many of the challenges that beset church and campus such as the laicization of priests premarital sex the erosion of institutional authority intolerance toward gay people and failure of fidelity to the teachings of the church Griffin also ruminates on the distress that human beings experience in the ordinariness of their lives the difficulty of communication in families grief over the loss of family and friends the agonies of isolation and the need for forgiveness Griffin s shrewd insights still ring true for people today His efforts to temper the winds of institutional rules cultural change and personal suffering reveal a mind keenly attuned to the need for understanding human limitations and to the presence of grace in times of change Griffin quotes from the works of literary modernists such as
