Annotated Hunting of the Snark Martin Gardner, 2006-09-26 Published on April Fool's Day 1876 Lewis Carroll's The Hunting of the Snark remains one of the most amusing and bizarre works of modern verse Carroll who completed this classic poem eleven years after the publication of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland invites readers along on a fictitious hunt to determine who or what the Snark actually is Now over 130 years later Martin Gardner the extraordinary philosophical scrivener returns to the Snark with a trove of new annotations and illustrations offering readers fresh insights into Carroll's existential play of fancy and philosophy Henry Holiday's original drawings enhance the work as does a new introduction by Adam Gopnik that communicates the relevance this strange and in many ways ominous poem holds for a new generation of readers BOOK JACKET

DOE this Month, 1991 Evocative Coaching Bob Tschannen-Moran, Megan Tschannen-Moran, 2010-06-18 There's a lot of conversation about how to make schools better Unfortunately the nature of those conversations often makes things worse Evocative Coaching Transforming Schools One Conversation at a Time maps out a way to change that By taking a teacher centered no fault strengths based approach to performance improvement the Evocative Coaching model generates the motivation and movement that enables teachers and schools to achieve desired outcomes and enhance quality of life Viewed as a dynamic dance the model is choreographed in four steps Story Empathy Inquiry Design which are each laid out in its own chapter with powerful illustrative materials and end of chapter discussion questions to prompt further reflection Bringing together the best research and wisdom in educational leadership and professional coaching authors Bob and Megan Tschannen-Moran have developed a simple yet profound way of facilitating new conversations in schools through Story Listening Expressing Empathy Appreciative Inquiry and Design Thinking It's an iterative process that moves beyond old ways of thinking doing and being It s an inspirational process that reinvigorates the passion for making schools better one conversation at a time This happens when coaches give teachers our full undivided attention accept and meet teachers where they are right now without making them wrong ask and trust teachers to take charge of their own learning and growth make sure teachers are talking more than we are enable teachers to appreciate the positive value of their own experiences harness the strengths teachers have to meet challenges and overcome obstacles reframe difficulties and challenges as opportunities to learn and grow invite teachers to discover possibilities and find answers for themselves dialogue with teachers regarding their higher purpose for teaching uncover teachers natural impulse to engage with colleagues and students assist teachers to draw up a personal blueprint for professional mastery support teachers in brainstorming and trying new ways of doing things maintain an upbeat energetic and positive attitude at all times collaborate with teachers to design and conduct appropriate learning experiments enable teachers to build supportive environments and teams use humor to lighten the load and inspire and challenge teachers to go beyond what they would do alone Each chapter provides a research based theory to support the strategies presented and includes specific suggestions and anecdotes The Evocative Coaching model makes coaching enjoyable by getting people to focus on what they do best and it invites larger more integral conversations so that people talk about their work in the context of other things they care about Resting on strong evidence based practices the Evocative Coaching model offers educators the help they need to meet the challenges of increased accountability and expectations This model can also be used effectively by coaches and leaders in other organizational contexts Table of Contents Chapter 1 What Is Evocative Coaching Chapter 2 Coaching Presence Loop I The No Fault Turn Chapter 3 Story Listening Chapter 4 Expressing Empathy Loop II The Strengths Building Turn Chapter 5 Appreciative Inquiry Chapter 6 Design Thinking Chapter 7 Aligning Environments Chapter 8 Coaching Conversations Chapter 9 The Reflective Coach To learn more about Evocative Coaching and to sign up for the Evocative Coach Training Program visit www.SchoolTransformation.com Science Explorers Barrett Williams, ChatGPT, 2025-08-10 Science Explorers invites curious minds to step outside the screen and into the weather around them This engaging hands on guide turns everyday skies into a living classroom where observation becomes discovery and questions lead the way to real understanding Perfect for curious kids families and classrooms it blends exploration experimentation and playful problem solving into one exciting journey Inside you ll build confidence through concrete beginner friendly activities Craft a simple thermometer a rain gauge and a wind indicator Start a weather journal collect data and watch patterns emerge Learn how clouds form what the water cycle looks like in action and how winds shape the day From tracking seasonal changes to measuring heat and temperature every chapter invites you to test ideas record findings and predict what comes next with funny mishaps and aha moments along the way Science Explorers covers a rich landscape of topics in an approachable way Discover how weather affects daily life explore safety around storms and peek into how forecasts are made You ll read the
