So You Want To Be A Scriptwriter And Make A Million Dollars:

So You Want to Be a Scriptwriter and Make a Million Dollars Irving Elman, 2000 This book was written to fill a need when I started teaching script writing at Santa Monica College and my students asked me to name a book on the subject I could recommend After voluminous reading I could find nothing which was completely satisfactory Most of it seemed to have been written by people who had never written professionally for films and or television and thus had no first hand knowledge of it from personal experience The books were written from hearsay and observation like trying to learn how to swim by standing at the edge of a pool and watching others do it without ever getting into the water yourself Or trying to fly by flapping your arms like a bird It doesn't work They have no hands on or wings on concept of how commercially produceable scripts are actually put together and then marketed and are of no real practical help to the beginning writer or anyone else who's interested Only a swimmer or a bird or a writer who has made his living at it really knows how his special trick is done and can pass it on to others And so here it is Enjoy while you learn Because if writing isn't fun it's no way to make a living Rob banks instead but try not to get caught So You Want to Be a Producer Lawrence Turman, 2010-03-10 Few jobs in Hollywood are as shrouded in mystery as the role of the producer What does it take to be a producer how does one get started and what on earth does one actually do In So You Want to Be a Producer Lawrence Turman the producer of more than forty films including The Graduate The River Wild Short Circuit and American History X and Endowed Chair of the famed Peter Stark Producing Program at the University of Southern California answers these questions and many more Examining all the nuts and bolts of production such as raising money and securing permissions finding a story and developing a script choosing a director hiring actors and marketing your project So You Want to Be a Producer is a must have resource packed with insider information and first hand advice from top Hollywood producers writers and directors offering invaluable help for beginners and professionals alike Including a comprehensive case study of Turman's film The Graduate this complete guide to the movie industry's most influential movers and shakers brims with useful tips and contains all the information you need to take your project from idea to the big screen Larry Cohen Tony Williams, 2014-11-11 Now in a revised edition this book is the only published study devoted to Larry Cohen and his significance as a great American filmmaker The first edition is long out of print and often sought after This edition covers all the director's films television work and screenplays and contains an updated interview with the director as well as interviews with his colleagues Janelle Webb Cohen Michael Moriarty and James Dixon The filmography and bibliography are also updated Popular Science Monthly, 1918 The New Scriptwriter's Journal Mary Johnson, 2013-10-08 The New Scriptwriter's Journal places you the writer in the center of the complex and challenging process of scriptwriting Charge up your imagination while learning how to write a professional screenplay This informational and inspirational guide details the creative aspects of scriptwriting such as crafting dialogue and shaping characters Inside you'll find blank pages to jot down your thoughts ideas and
